Spring Season Is Full And Exciting Everywhere

This was the afternoon the young pair of lads from the house across the lane investigated their mother into accompanying them on an angling expedition along the millstream. If, as it happened, they got not so much as an encouraging bite, the outing would be of considerable profit to all. It would be remembered happily along after the current Easter holiday had passed. It is good to say in the after-years, "I had a mother who read to me." It is also nice to recall, and how clearly the scenes will remain in mind, "when we were young we had parents who shared our pastimes as well as our work."

HAPPENINGS

Audrey Jenkins, Women's Editor, Phone 4-5306

Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Keeping left Murray Harbour for Montreal from where they sailed on April 23rd on the S.S. Franconia for England. They will visit points of interest until May 6th, when they leave for France to begin a tour of Continental Europe, covering Belgium, Holland, Denmark and Germany. On return, they will travel via North Germany to Scotland, leaving Preswick by air for Halifax on May 25th. While in France, they will visit the grave of Mr. Keeping's brother, Kimball, who lost his life in the First World War.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wesley Murray and daughter, Bonnie, of Halifax, N.S. spent Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Murray, Fredericton, P.E.I.

Annie Graham, Summerside, vacationed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Graham, Breadalbane, during the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O'Brien and family, Burton, returned home from a holiday spent with relatives and friends in Maine and Massachusetts.

Easter weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sleep, Kensington, were Mrs. Sleep's mother, Mrs. Norman Jeffery, Mrs. Robert Pilmer (sister) and two brothers, Frank and Gary Jeffrey, all of Young's Cove Road, N.B., also a sister, Nellie Jeffrey, of Saint John, N.B.

At East Point Baptist Church, Kingsboro, recently a large number of people had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Charles Harvey, a missionary for the past six years in Africa. Interesting films were also shown on the work and conditions in Africa while he and his wife were there. Following the service and showing of films, there was a social get together for all present and refreshments were served by the Young People's Group.

Easterime guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy McGaville, Kensington, were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McGaville and family, Glen, Elizabeth and Diane Marie of Windsor, N.S., and also their son Edwin of Halifax.

Instead of the usual monthly meeting, North River W.M. held a social evening and auction sale recently at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wheatley, with each member bringing a guest.

The evening opened with a sing-song, followed by some interesting contests and games put on by Mrs. Earl Younker and Mrs. Bud MacKinnon, after which Mrs. John Warren acted as auctioneer for the auction sale. The meeting closed with singing of the Queen, and refreshments.

"Foil-Fixed" Drumsticks Hit An Appetizing Beat

WHILE spring-cleaning, a suburban homemaker rifled through the winter's household bills tucked into a kitchen drawer.

"My! It cost $15 for a plumber to come and fix that leaky faucet," she thought.

That evening she showed the bill to her husband. "With the right tools, I believe I could have done it myself," she said.

Lesson Promised

"I bet you could," he said. "Tell you what, I'll fix up a little tool closet for you on one of the kitchen base-cabinet doors. Tomorrow I'll buy you a set of tools and show you how to use them."

As he promised, he brought home a shiny new hammer, screwdriver, long-nose and slip joint pliers and a crescent wrench, which adjusts to fit a wide variety of nuts and bolts.

"With these basic tools, you can easily repair 90 per cent of the minor mechanical aches and pains throughout the house," he remarked, "and you won't have to be kept waiting for me or someone else to do the job."

Onto the base-cabinet floor, he adjusted a peg-board frame. On this he hung the tools.

Fixed The Drop

The next day, our homemaker friend had the proud pleasure of tightening a dripping faucet that she said "was driving her crazy."

These tools can save time, annoyance and money not only just once, but throughout the years," she said. "And I'll be having fun learning how to be a fixer-upper!" She laughed happily as she served an extraordinary dinner, including her husband's favorite foods.

WI Reports Used Clothing Sent To USC

Mrs. Chas. Mills and Mrs. Edwin Mills were hostesses to the Eglington - Howe Bay Women's Institute members for the April meeting. Mrs. Alex Fisher presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Margorie Stead.

The meeting opened by repeating of Mary Stewart collect in union and roll call was answered by naming a flower, fruit, weed or vegetable beginning with the first letter of one's own name. Minutes were read by the secretary, and the treasurer's report was given. Correspondence was read and discussed.

Mrs. John MacKie read a very interesting paper on farm life in general, comparing the present day rush with all the modern conveniences, and the period before these came into use.

Mrs. Russell Mills conducted several contests, and it was reported that six more boxes of used clothing were forwarded to the Unitarian Service Committee Rooms in Charlottetown for overseas relief, making a total so far this year of fifteen boxes.

Mrs. Lucetta MacDonald invited the members to her home for the May meeting, when roll call will be answered by each member donating one dollar for the Souris hospital. "Citizenship" will be the theme for the month, and Mrs. Alex Fisher and Mrs. Lorne Dingwall are conveners. Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Howard Wood and Mrs. Bruce Stead.

The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by the committee in charge, and a social hour was enjoyed.

Wife Chose To Take Try At Own Writing Career

Dear Mary Haworth: May I interpose a word of warning to the noneghead young wife whose husband's job transfer from New York to Washington has brought her into a college-educated society where she feels inferior to, and snubbed by, the wives.

My warning is: don't strain so hard, either for or against eggheadism, that you miss out on the kind of life that appeals to your most.

I speak from experience. Start with shallots and seasoning. Slow - saute 3 min.

Center each square of foil with 2 chicken legs; spoon over onions and mushrooms; dust with parsley. Bring foil up around chicken legs. Add 2 tbsp. liquid cream to each packet. Bring foil edges together; double-fold into a packet. Place packets in shallow pan. Bake 1 hr. in hot oven, 400 degrees F.

Place each packet on a dinner plate; with scissors, snip foil on top forming a large "cross"; fold back the points.

SAVORY WHIPPED POTATO FROM THE CHEF

Prepare 1 pkg. whipped potato flakes as directed on label. Meantime, slow - saute, 1 chopped seeded green pepper in 2 tsp. butter. Whip into the potato. Serve piping hot.

MODERN CARPETBAGGER

The tote is square in shape and is constructed with a synthetic leather handle, a brass fastener and brass hardware. Multi-colored carpet threads form the binding on the sides, bottom and flap.

Through your support we will be able to continue our assistance to the worthy cause of helping the crippled children of Prince Edward Island.

ly, because so few of the egg-head-author-name-droppers had read their output.

Rather than live vicariously on the outskirts of the literary world, I chose to whack away at a writing career of my own... and now a book is scheduled for publication next fall. If it should be made into a film, the critics probably would label it adult fare, not because it is dirty (it isn't), but because morons wouldn't get the message...

I had plenty of ideas when first I sat down at the typewriter, but, until two years ago, the right words eluded me. I've never been analyzed, so I don't know why the breakthrough came. But I believe it was because I read an article in "The Quire" of all places about a certain spotlight personality who lives his own life and does his own thinking...

I'll never learn to play bridge or read women's magazines; but likewise I'll never sit through another performance of the theater - of - the-absurd.

I've even joined the ranks of the diehards who stay away from the symphony and will continue to do so, until the Big Noise is placed last on the program, so I may leave quietly before it starts... E.K.

Dear E.K.: One of my friends, a renowned scholar and author whose multiple contributions to human enlightenment, expanding the horizons of human consciousness, will endure as landmarks the history of mankind's moral evolution, has a trait in common with you.

That trait is, he keeps his mind disengaged from the writings of his contemporaries. He simply doesn't read them. He doesn't say why; only that he doesn't. But his construction would be that either he knows by intuition, or has learned from experience, that this is a protective necessity, for keeping the "recording" mind uncluttered, alertly attentive and responsive to the fresh inspirations, pertaining to the sweep and purpose of life on earth, that are the hallmark of the genuinely "creative" writer.

The creative writer doesn't write "from" himself, so much as he utilizes himself to fetch, within the range of human comprehension, some further treasure from an inexhaustible storehouse of universal "becoming." M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of the Guardian.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Connelly of Dunstaffnage, P.E.I. and Greens Farms, Connecticut, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Deborah Marie, to Richard H. ### Sensible Way to Relieve Diarrhea

Many people hope a sudden attack of Diarrhea will quickly subside. So they do nothing. Others prefer to take a fast-acting, dependable remedy right at the start, like Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It relieves nausea, cramps and diarrhea - gently restores intestinal balance. Fast-acting for over 115 years. For those sudden attacks that can strike at home, on trips or vacation, keep Dr. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry on hand.

MAN-BURNS-FOREST

Man caused 83 per cent of Ontario's forest fires in 1963, devastating 36,897 acres of woodland.

Changing Times

Requests for new menu ideas are pouring in again, now that spring is here. Could it be a touch of spring fever? In any case, we suggest trying something new with dairy foods... easy on the budget, good to eat and just as good for the family as the old stand-bys.

Start with Breakfast

Start the chronic breakfast-skippers off on the right foot nutritionally with a frosty Orange Nog. For two servings, beat together 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons sugar, a cup of skim milk powder and a cup of cold orange juice. Serve up this breakfast-in-a-glass with a slice or two of hot buttered toast. Who'll ever recognize the same old pattern in this new quick-to-drink form?

Brunch or Lunch

Ever tried adding cottage cheese to scrambled eggs? It really makes them light and creamy. A cup of cheese along with ½ cup milk is about right for 8 eggs... blend and cook as usual in melted butter.

Minced Magic

Mincéd beef inevitably turns up in the menu somewhere during the week. Give it the food value of extra milk by adding skim milk powder... ½ cup powder for each pound of meat. This won't alter the liquid in a meat loaf or patty recipe.

Hint o' Summer

If you enjoy refreshing Salad Molds as we do, try this nifty idea. Dissolve a 3-ounce package of lime jelly powder in a cup of boiling water. Then, instead of adding cold water, beat in a 4-ounce package of cream cheese until the mixture is smooth. Add a few crisp vegetables - such as a mixture of shredded cabbage, grated carrot and chopped spinach - and such flavoring ingredients as grated onion, lemon juice, salt and Worcestershire sauce.

Candy Capers

When the children coax for homemade candy, try these Peppermint Humbugs - easy to make with skim milk powder. Bring 1 tablespoon butter, 3 tablespoons sugar and 1 tablespoon corn syrup to a boil and simmer 7 minutes. Remove from the heat and quickly stir in ½ cup skim milk powder and 2 teaspoons peppermint extract. Turn onto a board dusted with skim milk powder and knead lightly. Cut into pieces.
