Small Boat Sailing on Seaway Booming

By JOE DUPUIS MONTREAL (CP) — Reg R. Fife is a little man's sailor in a big man's industry... Fife says Seaway authorities appear to have lost sight of the "very recreational and commercial value of the tourist as well as the boater."

ing that he regards the $2 fee as discriminatory. A Green clearance lights on a "trial" water suit... Fife's favorite cruise is to Ontario's Thousand Islands area.

Adenauer Rides Out Gov't Crisis

BOON (AP)—The Free Democratic Party's five cabinet members quit Chancellor Adenauer's cabinet Monday because of the Spiegel affair but avoided pulling down West Germany's coalition government.

Some regulations create friction with pleasure boaters. The 22 toll on each of the Seaway's seven locks is perhaps the worst irritant. Boaters must moor at each lock and scramble a half-mile, sometimes over high river banks, to the lock master's office to pay the fee.

Openting lead—Jack of spades. One of the most common problems faced by declarer is whether or not to finesse when he is missing Q-x-x in a suit. The problem is even more complicated when the Queen is missing in either direction.
