

NOTICE RE EXTRACTS

The attention of all Merchants, Retailers and Peddlers is again directed to Regulation No. 9 made under the provisions of the Prince Edward Island Temperance Act which prohibits the sale of all proprietary or patent medicines, extracts, essence, lotions, tinctures and preparations which contain alcohol, except by persons duly licensed by the Commission to keep for sale and sell the same by retail. Such licenses may be obtained from any Retail Vendor Store at a fee of $1.00.

(Pharm.) of Halifax; Sister De Paul, Charlottetown Hospital; Miss Jennie MacKnight, Halifax; Sister St. Hugh, Charlottetown Hospital; E. P. Foley, M.L.A., Summerside.

Ellen's Diary

sends them—or keeps them. And I don't know that anyone can—or should, try to change it. You may send your son to a hundred ways of making a living—taking banking for instance. And he may make a good banker. But if he has a yen for mechanics, the time he'll sing is when he's tinkering at the car, variably pinches and saves to buy after hours!"

"So it's like that about farming. A good farmer is born to it. He loves every twist and turn of it. He wouldn't raise his eyes to look at the newest model of a car or plane—but give him his herds and flocks, his meadows and woodlands . . . and, if by chance, fate has sent him to some other line of work, what does he do? In-the dark, James went to the barns to satisfy himself that all was well there. "A little black lamb! Won't the children like that!"

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night

MAJOR DISEASE
Nephritis, a disease of the kidneys, for many years has ranked third among leading causes of deaths in Canada.

VITAL IMPORT
More than 90 per cent of raw wool used in Canada is imported, mainly from Australia and New Zealand.
