LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Inter-Collegiate Football Match in Nova Scotia.

Sir,—Believing that your columns are open to information of interest to at least a portion of your readers, I send the following communication:—

The annual Football Match between the teams of Dalhousie College, Halifax, and of Acadia College, Wolfville, was played on the grounds of the latter team on Saturday, 21st November, in which the superiority of Acadia's men over their opponents was clearly shown. The fifteen young men comprising the Acadia team were all undergraduates, their captain, Mr. J. T. Prescott, being of the junior class. Of the fifteen from Dalhousie, three were taken from the "Wanderers' Club," professional sportsmen, one of whom, Mr. Henry, acting as their captain, has acquired celebrity as a football player in the United States, and has represented America in that capacity in Europe. The game had not been in progress ten minutes when Anderson, of Acadia, by a beautiful run and truly wonderful dodging, succeeded in carrying the ball directly behind Dalhousie's goal. A foul was claimed however by the Dalhousie Captain, although one of the Umpires and all spectators conversant with the rules of the game, could not see where it came in. In the last half of the game, lasting twenty-five minutes, the most exciting playing ever witnessed in Wolfville took place, in which the Acadia team, by sheer strength of muscle, with great agility, forced the ball down again, and over several times Dalhousie's goal-line, against desperate efforts on the part of their opponents to drive the ball out to the middle of the ground. About two minutes before time would be up, Raymond, one of Acadia's forwards, secured a catch from a Dalhousie player, and a beautiful goal was kicked by Capt. Prescott, amid the deafening cheers of the crowd of spectators, among whom were the entire faculty of Acadia College, and the lady teachers of Acadia Seminary with their fair pupils.

The University life of Acadia College is all calculated to draw out and develop all the finer and nobler qualities of her students. This is not more plainly shown than by the jealous care with which every young man within her walls guards her honor in all the manly sports.
I might add that in a football match played on the college grounds a fortnight before, between the King's College team of Windsor, and the Acadia team, six points were scored against the visiting team, and not one point in their favor.

Yours Respectfully,
LEX.
Wolfville, Nov. 24th, 1885.

The British Elections.

FIRST RETURNS OF THE CABINET.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The following results of the Parliamentary elections were received this afternoon:—

Right Hon. David R. Plunkett, first Commissioner of Works under the Conservative Cabinet, and Mr. Holmes, Attorney-General for Ireland, also under the Conservative Cabinet, have been elected for the Dublin University division.

Thos. Burt, labor candidate, is elected for Morpeth.

Right Hon. George Otto Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, under Mr.
Gladstone's administration, and afterwards Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, is elected for Galloway.

Colonel F. A. Stanley, Colonial Secretary in the Conservative Cabinet, is elected for Blackpool.

Right Hon. Henry C. Bannerman, chief secretary for Ireland, under Gladstone's administration, is elected for Sterling, Stirling, Perth, and Kinross.

The following parliamentary candidates were elected to-day:— Birmingham—H. Broadhurst, John Bright and J. Chamberlain, all Liberals.
Hythe—Sir E. W. Watkin, M. D.
Strand—W. H. Smith, Conservative.
Warwick—A. Peel, Liberal.

The Tories have gained seats in Bury St.
Edmunds, Warrington, Rochester, Stalybridge, Exeter, Colchester, Blackburn, Barnbridge, Bath, Plymouth and Chiltanham, and the Liberals gained in Newcastle-under-Lyme. The totals thus far are 34 Tories, 33 Liberals and 2 Parnellites—net Tory gain 10. The Conservatives everywhere show increased strength.

Protesting Against Parnell.

DUBLIN, Nov. 24.—The Louth Nationalist convention assembled at Drogheda to-day, to nominate a candidate for parliament for Louth division, represented by Philip Callan. Callan demanded the ground of Parnell's recent charge against him in refusing to accept him as the Nationalist candidate to succeed him. Mr.
O'Kelly arose and declared that the charge was that Callan was drunk in the house of commons during the session just closed, and for this reason Parnell deemed him unworthy to represent the Nationalists in the new parliament. Callan admitted the charge was true and apologized. He afterwards made an appeal against what he called a packed convention. Uproar and confusion followed, during which Callan and his followers left the hall.

IN NO DANGER.—Rev. A. B. O'Neill, of Memramcook College, telegraphs as follows: "For the benefit of parents having sons in St. Joseph's College, please state that the one case of smallpox in Memram-cook is six miles distant from the College.
The students have been vaccinated and no alarm is felt."

An Interesting Event.

One of the most interesting events in the history of the war between spiritual and physical force, which is the great war of the ages, is the proposed evacuation of Madagascar by the French. France is one of the great powers; Madagascar is an island inhabited by reputed barbarians—by a people who one generation ago were sunk in brutal barbarism. But by the power of the Gospel that people have been regenerated and filled with that spiritual force called Faith, of which France knows very little, and which is able to remove mountains. They have become educated, and their training has been in a text-book, which tells much about "a high hand and an outstretched arm," and bids them trust in the Lord whatever the odds, and when they can do nothing else to stand still and see his salvation. The Hovas sent what force they could into the field—men who fought bravely. They then met in their churches and they met in a great national prayer meeting, and from the Queen down to the humblest they asked for divine protection. They made it a point in every transaction to treat their enemies as Christians should, giving no manner of offence either by act or word, and then they went about their daily business with steadfast hope. The war never came near them.
"The angel of death spread his wings on the blast, and breathed on the face of the foe as he passed," or, in other words, the malaria guarded their coast line, and the Hovas manured the dense forests which were everywhere behind it, and the French made no progress at all. Now we are told negotiations have been opened, and the French have resolved to retire.

The Execution of Riel.

The following is an extract from a letter written by a St. John man in the Mounted Police, and dated Regina, Nov. 16:—"I can find time to answer your letter as Riel is gone; he was hanged this morning on the same gallows on which Connors was executed. We have had a hard time of it, I can tell you, this last month, mounting 30 men for guard and 40 men for patrol duty.
We have been out at 4 o'clock in the morning patrolling all along the prairies on the look-out for 'cow-boys,' who, it is said, were coming to take Riel before we hung him; but they did not get him.
I was guard over the 'old man' (Riel) on Sunday, when he was out for his exercise, and he was all right. He was quite pleasant, and said:
"Ain't it a fine day? I wonder what tomorrow will be like?" When we took him into the yard he saw the box-like gallows on which he was to be executed. He looked at it and said: "There ain't much chance to speak there, is there?" I answered "no," and he continued: "They allow me to speak a few words, and I would like to have a good view."
He had six eggs for his supper, but no breakfast. There were about fifty teams up from the city with people to see the hanging, but they were not allowed in, only a few on a pass.

Military Scandal.

A military scandal is attracting much attention in St. Petersburg. A party of officers belonging to various regiments of the guards, while dining recently, became somewhat turbulent, and a commissioner of police, falling in his attempts to quiet them, summoned Gen. Gresser, governor of St. Petersburg. The officers thereupon locked and bolted the doors of the saloon.
General Gresser ordered the doors to be forced, which was done. On coming from the saloon Count Scheremetieff, a captain of hussars, struck Gen. Gresser in the face.
A corps of guards then arrested all of the officers, who were imprisoned. The Czar has ordered a court martial.

Evidence given before the British royal commission on the trade depression, shows that the iron trade in the north of England, from 1881 to 1885, decreased almost one-half as compared with that from 1871 to 1875. The falling off is attributed to colonial protection, and manufacturers urge federation in order to prevent the shutting out of British goods from the colonies.

Lord and Lady Melgund are about to close their residences in Canada and return to England. The reasons announced by his lordship for resigning his position as military secretary are entirely private, the chief being the advanced age and decreas-ing strength of his father, the Earl of Minto. It is probable that Earl Melgund will time his journey so as to reach England shortly before Christmas.

The nomination of Miss Helen Taylor, who is contesting the parliamentary division for North Camberwell, England, has been refused by the returning officer. Miss Taylor has protested against the alleged arbitrary action of the officer.

A despatch from Cooktown, Queensland, says the Geographical expedition, which was reported to have been massacred in New Guinea, has arrived there. All the members are well.

A despatch from Minha says that severe fighting took place Monday in the jungle, continuing until the central post of the Burmese was captured, when they fled in all directions.

A Montreal despatch says that several French Canadian priests have expressed themselves against the so-called National party, and state that Riel deserved his fate.

Severe shocks of earthquake were felt in Spain on Monday at Valez, Malaga, Anda-luz, and especially at Alhama.
