

Miscellaneous Extracts.

MOVEMENTS AMONG THE JEWS.—Never has a movement taken place amongst them of the same character as that which has been exhibited within the last few years—not even in the time of Ezra. That is a strong expression, but I use it advisedly. There have arisen sixteen Jewish periodicals on different parts of the Continent, ably written, and in which the cause of Judaism is well advocated. They are continually stirring up one another upon the topic of reform in religion; and the necessity of striking off many of the traditional incumbrances that have clogged and shackled them. One author observes—"We do not wish to have splendid worship in our synagogues—true religion needs no outward decorations." Christians (he says), require decorations to cover the nakedness of their system—he lives in a Roman Catholic country—but we stand forth in the name of our God with our true and holy religion, given by himself." (Hear, hear.) Another fact of importance is, that a circular has been issued concerning the translation of the Talmud, in which the writer speaks in the strongest terms of the necessity of making the Talmud intelligible to all Israel. "Hitherto," he says, "we have been obliged to look to the teaching of the Rabbis; but in these days, when intelligence is making progress, we ought to have the Talmud translated into our own language." He is a French Jew. It consists of 16 volumes, and they propose to translate it for about 4l. English. (Cheers.) This is of importance, because the Talmud has been regarded as a sacred book, that could only be read by learned men, which the unlearned regard as handed down to them from Heaven. But when a man shall read the many fables combined with the many wise statements in this book, he will soon lose all idea of its mysterious sacredness, and he will be obliged to come to the conclusion that the revealed will of God is contained only in the Scriptures—that they alone constitute his rule and guide for eternity. A new translation of the Bible has been proposed, and begun to be executed by the Jews in England, France, and Germany. (Hear, hear.) They say that the reading and study of the Bible has been confined to those learned in the Hebrew tongue—that they could not read their own Scriptures, and consequently, when the Christians came into contact with Jews, being better versed in the old Testament than they were, they could easily assail them, and make converts of them. They propose, therefore, to bring out a new translation, with emendations. It is impossible, however, that they can alter the 53d of Isaiah, and the 110th Psalm, that speak so plainly with regard to the work, the sufferings, and the ascension of Christ. They may endeavour to twist them, but they cannot change them. They are also disposed to establish schools—(hear, hear)—in which the children are to be well instructed in their own religion. Let them be taught in Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, for we believe it will be just preparing the soil that shall be sown and watered by the Spirit of the Most High God. This movement calls for particular attention on the part of the Church of God. The eyes of Jews, in different parts of the world, are necessarily fixed on the Christians before them, and, in their periodicals, they continually point to Christianity, as exhibited to them, as an evil that must be removed. One man goes so far as to say that Christianity has done a great deal for the civilization and reformation of the world, but that it has had its day—that its time is drawing to a close, and Reformed Judaism must be brought forward to teach those Christians what true and spiritual religion is. (Hear, hear.) As the Apostle Paul said, that his "heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel was, that they might be saved," so I feel the same desire for my kinsmen according to the flesh. My prayer to God for you Gentiles is, that you may be filled with all the fulness of God, and when that takes place, and you show forth the spirit of Christ to all around you, the Jews will undoubtedly share in your affections and your prayers; and your prayers for the Jews will, in some measure, correspond with that earnestness evinced by the Apostle Paul, when he prayed for the Ephesian Gentiles, pouring out his soul to God on their behalf.—Rev R. Hirschell.

How to make a happy home.—It is not in the imposing majesty of a sumptuous mansion, nor the hollow glare of gaudy furniture, nor the obsequious attention of servants, nor even of children, that makes a home of home, and keeps alive the sacred blessedness of married life. No, but it is the steady exercise of those holy charities, that soothe sorrows and smooth the asperities of nature. Those little evidences of sincere esteem, those spontaneous expressions of affection and tenderness, those unpremeditated smiles and tears at each other's joy or sorrow, that affectionate officiousness which volunteers more readily as service becomes difficult—these are the things that give to home its purest and most powerful attractions; where these abound, the mind reposes in all the confidence of conscious safety, and in the satisfaction of ample enjoyment.—Mutual respect and attention between man and wife are essential to render them respected in the eyes of their domestics and children; and also to maintain that healthy flow of soul, that cheerfulness and buoyancy of spirit so necessary in bearing the ills and performing the duties of life. As kindness and respectful treatment are due to all persons, so they are especially due to ourselves as wife and husband—for we cannot love those whom we do not respect, nor can they love us in return. Let it then be a principle of established authority, like the laws of the Medes and Persians, that change not, to give each that affectionate attention which is mutually due between equals. Let every thing be studiously avoided that goes to lessen either party in their own estimation or in that of other persons; and let it never be forgotten, that even a smile or frown may gild with brightness or overcast with clouds, that most sacred spot on earth which you call HOME.

THE REV. DR. WOLFF'S MISSION TO BOKHARA.—We have the gratification of announcing that intelligence has reached us by way of Trebizond and Malta, of the safe arrival of this intrepid traveller at Meshed, from which place he was to have taken his departure on the 21st of March, under the escort to be furnished him by the Governor. The most perilous part of the journey, extending over a space of 300 miles, was yet before him; but he appeared fully confident that, under divine Providence, he should succeed in accomplishing the same. No fresh intelligence had been collected touching the objects of his search, whose fate continued still a matter of mystery. The contradictions in the accounts had rather to the hope that they will be found alive, though perhaps the captives of the despotic and tyrannical Ameer. The Most Reverend Dr. M'Hale, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Tuam, is publishing a version of Homer's Iliad, translated into Irish verse. The Pope has addressed a letter to the Roman Catholic Archbishops and Bishops, calling their attention to the efforts which are being made by various Bible Societies, and particularly by the Christian Society of New York, to produce religious dissent in Italy.

EXTRAORDINARY!! NEW CASES!!

ATTESTING THAT HERE IS

HEALTH! FOR ALL!!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The following case of Dropsy can scarcely be called a Cure, being so WONDERFUL and EXTRAORDINARY as to be little short of a MIRACLE.

Mr. JOHN ROBINSON, an opulent Farmer and Grazier, residing at Wotton, in Bedfordshire, was lately reduced to the apparent extremities of DEATH, being at the time so bloated with water as to be increased in size to double his usual bigness, indeed his Legs had become so large round that they actually burst in three places. In this most alarming and dangerous state his Medical Man informed him "that he could not possibly live more than two days longer!" Mr. Robinson, upon hearing this, instantly dismissed his DOCTOR, and had recourse alone to the wonderful efficacy of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, which not only saved his life, but likewise effectually expelled the water from the system, and restored him, in a short space of time, by a steady perseverance in the use of the Pills, to as sound and as perfect a state of health as ever he enjoyed.

N. B.—Mr. Robinson, whose life has just been saved by these Pills, is well known to most persons, not only throughout Bedfordshire, but also in the surrounding counties.

Cure of a Case of Great Debility of the System, occasioned by the baneful influence of Mercury, and the injurious effects of a long residence in Tropical Climates, by Holloway's Pills.

JAMES RICHARDS, Esq., a Gentleman in the East India Company's Service, and who had resided for the last Seventeen Years in different parts of India, where his constitution had become much impaired from the influence of the climate, and the injurious effects of powerful and frequent doses of that dangerous mineral, Calomel, which, together, made such inroads on his constitution as to oblige him to return home to England, and on his arrival he placed himself for some time under the care of a celebrated Medical Practitioner, but received no benefit from that Gentleman's treatment. He was then advised by a Friend, (who had tried this Medicine,) to go through a proper course of "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS," which he did, and in about Four Months his formerly shattered frame was so completely invigorated as to enable him to prepare himself again for his immediate return to India, whither he will embark early in the coming spring of this year, 1844. This Gentleman is now residing in the Regent's Park, where he is well-known, in consequence of his opulence and liberality.
