The Front Gate.

An old and crippled gate am I,
And twenty years have passed
Since I was swung up high and dry
Betwixt these posts so fast;
But now I've grown so powerful weak—
Despised by man and beast—
I'm scarcely strong enough to squeak,
Although I'm never greased.

'Twas twenty years ago, I say,
When Mr Enos White
Came kind of hanging round my way
Most every other night.
He hung upon my starboard side
And she upon the tother,
Till Susan Smith became his bride,
And in due time a mother.

I groaned intensely when I heard—
Despite I am so churl—
My doom breathed in a single word:—
The baby was a girl!
And as she grew and grew and grew,
I loud bemoaned my fate;
For she was very fair to view,
And I—I was the gate.

Then, in due time, a lover came,
Betokening my ruin,
A dapper fellow, Brown by name,
The grown up baby wooin'!
They sprang upon me in the gloam,
And talked of moon and star;
They are married now and live at home
Along with pa and ma.

My lot was happy for a year,
No courting night or day—
I had no thought, I had no fear,
Bad luck would come my way.
But oh! this morning, save the mark!
There came a wild suprise,
A shadow flitted grim and dark
Across my sunny skies

A doctor with a knowing smile,
A nurse, with face serene,
A bustle in the house the while,
Great Scott! what can it mean?
My hinges ache; the lock is weak,
My pickets in a whirl;
I hear that awful doctor speak;
It is another girl!

It is not what you have in bank, but what you have in your heart, that makes you a man.

Be loving and you will never want for love, be humble and you will never want for guiding.

That was a good prescription given by a physician to a patient:—"Do something for somebody."

It would do the inmates of a poor-house good to attend a charity ball and see the diamonds and good clothes that are worn by others for their benefit.

Faith is to believe what we do not see, and the reward of this faith is to see what we believe.—Augustine.

Take a true view of life; be proud that you have worked in the world's busy path, and do it well and honorably.

I wonder many times that ever a child of God should have a sad heart, considering what the Lord is preparing for him.—Rutheford

Consolation is the dropping of a gentle dew form heaven on desert hearts beneath; it is one of the choicest gifts of divine mercy.—Spurgeon

Current Notes.

Abundant rain has fallen in Calfornia, about the same amount as in 1880, and the Journal of Commerce, San Francisco, predicts a crop of 70,000,000 bushels of wheat this year in California.

Chinese cheap labor has had its day in British Columbia, the railroad contractors finding that in the long run it costs them less to employ whites. A large influx of white mechanics and laborers has now set into the province, many coming from California and Nevada.

The produce of the Dominion fisheries for the last year is valued at $16,088,672. The value of the fish exported from Canada for the fisical year is $6,898,884, the eggs and fish laid down in hatcheries were: Salmon, 6,612,000; salmon trout, 8,350,000; speckled trout, 200,000; white fish, 43,000,000—a total of 58,162,000. The total expense of fish capture service was $31,223.

The wheat crop of the United States for 1881 was 390,380,090 bushels, and for 1882 it was 502,789,600 bushels, being an increase of 122,509,510 bushels, or 32.2 per cent. The corn crop for 1881 was 1,194,916,000, and for 1882 it was 1,624,917,700 bushels, showing an increase over the previous year of 430,001,800, or 36 per cent. The products of agriculture constituted about 80 per cent of the total exports of the United States during the year 1882.

Wedding announcements are in favor. They are in sheet form and often read thus:—"Mr. and Mrs.——announce the marriage of their daughter Mary to——;" the gentleman's name appears in full, followed by the date and place of cermony, Or the announcements may consist of the groom's name and the bride's name with the place of ceremony. "At Home" is often engraved in small type in the left-hand corner. Instead of the sheet form may be used two cards, the larger a Mr. and Mrs. card, with the adress in the right-hand corner, and the reception day and "At Home" in the left-hand corner. On the second card is engraved the maiden name of the bride. These cards are contained in seaarate envelopes.—New York Herald.
