THE RIFLE.—The Regulation Government Targets are now ready for practice at Kensington range.

PHILHARMONIC.—A general meeting of the Philharmonic Society will be held on Monday evening next.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT.—Peter Redpath, formerly of Montreal, and now of Chislehurst, Eng., has given two hundred thousand dollars for a new library for McGill University.

NOVELTIES.—Young people's Society Christian Endeavor Writing Pads at the Diamond Bookstore, also splendid chromo scribbling pads for five cents each. Just received from Huntington, Pa.

Dyspepticure—Is not a palliative, but a cure; it first relieves, then controls, and finally entirely subdues the irritation and inflammation of the stomach that causes indigestion and dyspepsia.

AFTER THE FIRE BUG.—The Moncton City Council has offered a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who set two incendiary fires in that town on Saturday morning last.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—The shoddy cloth peddlers who victimized so many persons in New Brunswick lately, are now operating in Nova Scotia. They are evidently making a tour of the Provinces, and will likely strike in here.

FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer Fastnet arrived here last night with a general cargo. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Toombs and two children were passengers. The Fastnet will leave on return at the usual time. She is decorated with bunting to-day in honor of the marriage of Purser Morris.

GOLD.—A brick of gold weighing 231¾ ounces, the product of 20 tons of quartz, crushed in the Eastville Mill, South Uniacke, owned by Messrs. Quirk and Thompson, was brought to the city yesterday by the latter gentleman. The value of the brick was over $4,500.—Hx. Herald.

JUVENILE TEMPLE.—Remember the social to be held by the members of the Juvenile Temple in J. D. McLeod's Hall, this (Thursday) evening, from four till eight. A refreshment table will be provided for visitors. Come and help in the good work. By order of the Superintendent.

HOME, SWEET HOME.—Sixteen families of 59 persons entered at the Moncton custom house since July 1st from the United States, mostly returned Canadians. They brought effects to the value of $1,461. This does not include individuals returning without effects, who are by far the lsrgest number.

SECOND CLASS STUDENT TEACHERS.—A special class in book-keeping will be opened on Tuesday next, 22nd inst., for those who wish to take Book-keeping instead of French. Intending students are requested to call at the Business College on Monday, between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m., to register their names.—L. B. Miller, Principal. 3i—sep17

SHOULD BE PUNISHED.—This morning a young Magdalen Island pony belonging to Mr. P. S. Brown died from inflammation, brought on, says Dr. McMillan, V. S., by some persons ill-using her while at pasture. Some time ago Mr. Brown was informed that boys were driving on her back and chasing her around the fields, together with a colt at her side. If this be so, we trust that the guilty parties will be discovered and punished. This is not the only case of boys taking mares with foals at their sides from the pastures and ill-using them to such an extent that they became useless for a long time after.

PRECEPTOR GONE.—On Tuesday morning last M. Stephen Schurman, formerly of North Bedeque, left for Carthage, Mo., in charge of the standard bred stallion Preceptor, 5301, by Nutwood, 600. The owners of Preceptor value him at $10,000. As will be remembered this trotting sire was bred by Mr. J. C. McFerran, of Glenview, Kentucky, and was bought by Messrs. C. C. Gardiner and Benj Hearn, of Charlottetown, when one year old. His stock are rapidly coming to the front, one of them winning the yearling race at Amherst the other day. The Island sustains a heavy loss with the departure of this fine sire.—Eagle Farmer.

SOCIETY EVENT.—The Knowlesville correspondent of the Woodstock, N. B., Press says: Miss Minnie Gardiner departed this life on Saturday, 5th, amidst the joyful congratulations of friends—Mr. Herman Shaw presiding at the obsequies. The other deeply interested party was Mr. William McEwan, one of our enterprising farmers, Windsor. As the rev. gentleman pronounced the words "earth to earth," an electric thrill ran through the hymeneal gathering. Bride's cake has been flying like snow, not a single acquaintance, young or old, having been forgotten. Since the auspicious day Mrs. Gardiner, mother of the bride, has been entertaining friends with bounteous hospitality.

AN EMBEZZLER CAPTURED.—Early last month Police Inspector J. Stoker, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, Northumberland, England, arrived here on the hunt for a man named Sidney Old, alias Samuel Owens, who was wanted for embezzling several thousands of pounds from Fisher & Renwick, Newcastle-on-Tyne, in whose employ he was as accountant. Inspector Stoker remained here several weeks. During his stay he was assisted in his search for the fugitive by Marshal Cameron and others. But not a trace of him could be found. So far as the officers could ascertain he had never visited the Province. Last evening Marshal Cameron received a letter from Inspector Stoker, who is in New York, saying that Old had been captured at Detroit and would be brought to New York for extradition. A reward of £100 was offered for Old's arrest. Old was in New York last July, from which city he sent a very penitent letter to Mr. Renwick, acknowledging his guilt, pleading debt and unfortunate stock speculations as extenuating circumstances.

That Letter of Remonstrance.

THE TARTE-McGREEVY CASE

Supplementary Estimates.

Amounts for the Island

OTTAWA, Sept. 17.

In the Senate yesterday, Hon. Mr. Abbott presented a correspondence between Governor Angers and the Governor General. It is a copy of the letter of remonstrance addressed by Angers to Mercier regarding the Bay Chaleur scandal. After reciting the facts as revealed before the Senate Committee, Governor Angers adds: "It would seem that there exists between the Government and the creditors of the Province a gate at which tribute must be paid before justice is done to those who are claimants for justice." He He then demands explanations about the Bay Chaleurs affair and the appointment of a royal commission to enquire into the whole transaction, naming Judges Jette, Baby and Davidson, and he concludes by saying that "until further orders, I also call on you to limit the action of the Government to the urgent accounts of the administration, and I revoke the nomination of the deputy Lieutenant Governor" (appointed to sign money warrants) "and I beg you to give notice of the revocation to whom it concerns."

In the Commons the majority report of the Tarte-McGreevy committee was presented, also the minority report. These reports will not be considered until Monday.

Supplementary estimates presented last night amount to less than one million dollars, and include the following Island items:—Breakwater, St. Peter's Bay, $1,100; Belfast Pier, $700; Brae Breakwater, $900; Miminigash, $1,950; Malpeque, $375; Bay Fortune, $1,500; Bay View, $500; Higgin's Shore, $500; Nine Mile Creek, $800. Allowance to family of late Chief Justice Palmer, $1,000; Ronald McMillan for railway lands, $3,300.

Floods in Spain.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE

And Destruction of Property.

MADRID, Sept. 17.

The loss of life and destruction of property by the floods in Spain is truly appalling. The worst is not yet known. One estimate places the death list at two thousand. There will be months of terrible privation and extreme suffering before the utterly impoverished survivors. The crops are gone, cattle swept away, houses and household furniture ruined—all that would enable them to earn their bread has vanished beneath the torrents of water which rolled over town, village, field and farm. At Almeria, the capital of the Province of that name, over 500 houses were destroyed, and a large number of people perished. Public collections are being made for the relief of the survivors.
