

Was Sister Of Murray River Clergyman

Additional information regarding the death of Elizabeth Trenholm, 22, of Timber River near Port Elgin, N.B. in a car-truck collision on Wednesday is that the victim was a sister of Rev. Hermon Trenholm, pastor of the Pentecostal Church in Murray River. Rev. Mr. Trenholm, who had been on the mainland attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Harold Murray, was advised of the fatal accident when boarding the ferry at Cape Tormentine. He at once returned to Timber River.

P.E.I. Red Cross Campaign Lags Behind, Reports Show

Just $23,722.41 of the $31,200.00 objective (76 per cent) of the 1958 Red Cross campaign has been received to date in Prince Edward Island was the statement made by Mr. William Hayward, Provincial campaign chairman, when reporting at a meeting of the Provincial Red Cross executive held yesterday afternoon at Red Cross headquarters. Mr. Hayward said that he is in hopes that when all the canvassers have finished their districts the results will be at least equal to last year's returns. On an objective of $31,000, Mr. Hayward's report revealed all sections lagging behind last year except King's County which has now collected a sum equal to the total amount received last year with some districts still to report.

LITTLE SANDS

"The Lord Selkirk" made her first inaugurated trip to Wood Island and Caribou on Saturday, May 24. And is making regular scheduled trips since. On yesterday, Sunday, May 25, she was open for inspection, and the huge crowd that gathered at Wood Island to go through the ship, speak of the curiosity and interest of the Islanders, to see for themselves this lovely boat.

It will prove a great asset to the people living in these districts as well as to travellers from our sister provinces and abroad who come to visit our Island.

The new bridge which is being built at MacPhersons (just East of the county line) is steadily progressing. The five men from the Western part of the Island are Mr. William Noye, his son Brendon from Mt. Pleasant, Stanley and Vernon Dymont from Northam, and Harry Ellis from Springhill. These men are boarding at Alex Blue's in Little Sands.

Although the men themselves appear to be doing their best to get the job done, so many people use this bridge daily, that it is a great handicap to Little Sands and others when the bridge is not passable.

The local boys Messrs. Robert White, George Hume and Floyd MacLean, are also working on the new bridge (part time). We are sorry to hear that Robert is suffering from an ankle injury, when his foot was struck by a pile, which necessitated a trip to the doctor and loss of time from work.

Word has been received here by relatives, of Mr. Tosquar MacLean's death in Vancouver, B.C. on May 14, 1958. A brother Mr. John D. MacLean resides in Little Sands and a sister Mrs. Jessie Campbell in Pictou. To all who mourn his passing sincere kind sympathy is extended.

Relatives here and friends of Mrs. Jessie Campbell regret to hear of her serious illness. Mrs. Campbell was taken to the Hospital at Pictou.

Mr. Carlton Hume, Little Sands, made a business trip to New Brunswick on Saturday.

Miss Sandra Stewart, a student in teacher training, in P.W.C. this year, is getting her two weeks practical training as teacher in Little Sands school. She is staying with her Grandmother, Mrs. A. D. MacNeill, Little Sands.

Mrs. William White teacher at Parkdale Junior High, visited her home in Little Sands over the week end.

Mrs. Alexander Blue, continues to receive word from her sister Mrs. William Conrad of Detroit Michigan, that she is improving in health at her home there. C.O.

Calls Immigration Act One Of Saddest Statutes

OTTAWA (CP)—A complete overhaul of Canada's Immigration Act and its regulations described as "one of the saddest statutes in force" was recommended Thursday by Progressive Conservative John Taylor.

He said in the Commons the act is administered in an atmosphere of secrecy which has been strongly criticized by lawyers, the courts and the newspapers.

Mr. Taylor, member for Vancouver Burrard who has often acted as counsel in immigration cases, spoke as the 10-day throne speech debate neared its end Thursday night.

Earlier, H. W. Herridge (CCF—Kootenay West) presented a motion of non-confidence in the government, calling for federal action to ease the "very heavy financial burden" of municipalities.

A vote on the motion was to be held before the adjournment Thursday night.

The government's big majority already has defeated two other opposition non-confidence motions during the debate. One, by the CCF, called for planned economic policies and expanded international trade. The other, by the Liberals, urged expanded trade.

FEDERAL GRANTS
The question of federal aid to municipalities came up during the question period, when Prime Minister Diefenbaker said the government has agreed to an informal conference with the Canadian federation of mayors and municipalities.

During the debate, Roger Parizeau (PC—Lac St. Jean) proposed federal grants to municipalities covering up to half the cost of town planning and zoning projects.

3 One-Act Plays Presented In Provincial Drama Festival

Three one-act plays were presented last night in the Provincial Drama Festival. The Cornwall Women's Institute presented "Everlasting Flowers", the Zion Players staged "The Master Key" and the Parkdale Women's Institute presented "Rise and Shine."

The plays were presented on the stage of the Prince of Wales College auditorium. Mrs. Morris Casely of Kensington presided.

The Cornwall play featured an attractive woman of 40, Melita, played by Margaret Lowther, who looked with loathing at what the advancing years told her in her mirror and longed for the gift of eternal youth, and another woman played by Ruth Herlihy, who had kept her youth unchanged through 125 years because of a bargain she had made with the devil when she really was young.

Lucinda had long since regretted her ceaseless youth while Melita longed for it.

The devil himself appeared on the stage (Harvey MacLean) granted Melita her wish, but because of an error in hearing she requested changed her back to a babe. Her desire was to be a lass of 26. The director was Mrs. Waldron Lowther.

Others in the cast were Mrs. Smepe played by Katherine Donahue, Marie played by Alice Wilson and Milord played by
