

What do you think about the tuition hike?

Chris Carson - 4th Year Psychology

"I just think it's ironic that we're paying too much and the pros aren't getting enough."

Mathew Bredin - 5th Year Sociology

"I am only taking three courses so I didn't really notice it, but it still blows."

Mathew Rowsell - 2nd Year Music

"This sucks. It's too small of a university to raise tuition."

Jessica Smith - 2nd Year English

"It makes me really mad because it's extremely unaffordable."

Brett Butler - 2nd Year Psychology

"I think it's a big steel-toed kick in the balls."

Kaitlin Richard - 1st Year Physics

"I think it's unfair that our tuition prices increased by 50% and in other places in Canada it was not that high. It's just not right."

Nadia Oulette - 2nd Year Veterinary
Bert and Ernie - A Couple of Puppies

"Tuition hikes suck because student loans don't really give you enough money to pay for tuition and books and live off of. if you're in a really difficult faculty it's hard to get a part-time job."

David Deschen - 1st Year Business

"My tuition is going to cost me about $100,000 when I'm finished of university, so any spikes or additional costs are certainly going to be to my disadvantage."

George Maros (left) - 1st Year Arts
Mike Ross (right) - 5th Year Music

"I'm not a fan of the tuition hike. A lot of the younger students are having hard times trying to get their student loans together...they're having troubles with them, so thumbs down on tuition hike."
