Bedeque Union WCTU Hold Annual Meet

Bedeque Union of the WCTU held its annual meeting in the United Church Hall, Central Bedeque, May 25. Mrs. Heber Myers presided. Louise Callbeck led the devotional opening with the hymn "Lord of Light, design to make us Thy co-workers." Scripture readings from the sermon on the Mount and the Second Epistle of Peter dealt with some of the christian's duties — Keeping high standards, and making the good life attractive to others. Remember the three key words Come, Tarry, Go!

The treasurer reported that $155.00 had been collected to defray expenses of the Youth Alcohol Education Program on TV and radio. A balance of $46.00 is on hand. The provincial convention is to be held July 13 at the Jewell Gardens, York.

Following is the slate of officers: Mrs. Myers, president (re-elected); Mrs. E. Johnson, Vice president; Mrs. Nina Sudbury, treasurer; Mrs. E. Wright, Secretary.

The August meeting will be an open one with Mrs. Robert Reeves at her summer home in the village. Mrs. Wilbert Wright has charge of the devotional, and Mildred Callbeck, the programme.

Prairie Family Forms Own Band And Talent Agency

EDMONTON (CP)—A visit to the Moss family rumpus room is like stepping on stage in the middle of a nightclub act. Lloyd Moss and his 12 talented children, ranging in age from five to 18, supply all the songs, music and dancing. The family has displayed its talents on local television, shows and dances and in tours of Alberta and Saskatchewan. "We plan to stay on this grass-roots level until we feel ready to move on," Mr. Moss says of the band which has been playing together for a little more than a year. All the children—eight boys and four girls—take music lessons, with the oldest a veteran of eight years on accordion and holder of many prizes.
