Address to Father Wm. Phelan.

At Georgetown, on Tuesday last, the Rev. William Phelan, P. P. of Montague, was waited on and presented with a set of harness and the following ADDRESS: To the Rev. William Phelan, Montague.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR.—As a small token of our appreciation of your efforts on behalf of Temperance, and towards the suppression of the illegal traffic in intoxicating liquors, and as a humble assurance that the friends of Temperance will stand by and uphold those who sacrifice very suffer for the cause, on behalf of the friends of Temperance we, whose names are on the accompanying subscription list, respectfully request you to accept the accompanying set of harness, which has just taken first prize at the King's County Exhibition. And while we deplore the fact that the necessary, the assassin and the burglar alike to be faced and fought in the struggle for the suppression of this degrading traffic, we can rejoice with you that this will be the means of drawing the lines more distinctly between those who fight for home, peace and sobriety, and those who set at defiance the laws of God and man, and seek to establish a system of mob rule only tolerated in countries far down in the scale of civilization.

That you may be spared to see your labors crowned with success, and that you may largely participate in the blessings you have so liberally helped to confer on your fellow creatures, is the sincere wish of all friends of temperance, law and order.

J. C. UNDERHAY, A. J. MCINNIS, JAMES M. AITKEN, RONALD MCCORMACK, JOHN A. LAWSON, (On behalf of G. L. L. O. G. T.) BERNARD MCGUIGAN, Committee.

September 29th, 1885.

In reply, Father Phelan said:

REPLY. To MESSRS. J. C. UNDERHAY, A. J. MCINNIS, JAMES M. AITKEN, RONALD MCCORMACK, JOHN A. LAWSON, BERNARD MCGUIGAN, (Committee):

GENTLEMEN.—I feel exceedingly thankful to you for this address, and the friendly manner in which you have spoken of me. I should be very ungrateful, indeed, if I did not feel pleased for the compliment which you have paid me by presenting me with this beautiful address, and your very generous
