LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Public Works.

Sir,—The following paragraph appears at the end of an article in yesterday's Patriot headed "not ordered to be printed." "There is too much hole and corner days-work going on. Even the bulk of the tender work, as a rule, mysteriously gets into the hands of Tory contractors."

Observations.

Sir,—It is a sufficient commentary upon the intelligence of the "Opposition" in the City Council to say that "the party who was obliged to apply to me for library assistance" had sufficient ability to draft all the resolutions presented by those gentlemen last night.
