

Personal—Gossip.

Lieutenant Governor Aikens assumed his duties at Winnipeg on Saturday.

A Toronto lady, in her hurry for church, took from a closet a pair of her husband's trousers by mistake for her dollman, threw them across her arm and did not discover her mistake until she had thrown the trousers over the back of the pew in front of her.

Mr. Labouchere says:—"I have been reading the 'Soldier's Pocket Book,' by Sir Garnet Wolseley, and I gather from its perusal that, should he take his seat in the House of Lords before his £50,000 has been voted him, he will himself oppose it, for he says:—"The only rewards that are justly due are the gratitude of our country and the praise of our superiors."

Bishop Clifford, at a recent celebration in England, when proposing the health of the Pope, humorously boasted that he was one of the very few men living who could say that he had had the Pope under lock and key for several hours! The explanation was that he was one of the prelates who guarded the door of the conclave, and who accordingly kept the cardinals and newly elected Pope under lock and key for some hours until the necessary formalities were completed.

England, according to an English writer, is to become the sanatorium and resting-place of Canadians, Americans, Australians and finally of all the rest of the Continental world when her mission of over-spreading it is fulfilled. This prediction is based upon the assumption that Americans and Canadians, by the quality of the air they breathe, suffer a drying up of the fibre, a "constitutional intensification," a general "inflammatory intensification," or, as he says, an "acute Americanitis."

On his early promotion to Major-General's rank, Sir John McNeill, V.C., will receive the offer of a military command in recognition of his recent services in Egypt, where he has acted as Equerry to His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, his soldierly qualities having brought him prominently to the notice of Sir Garnet Wolseley, with whom he served in the Ashantee campaign. Colonel McNeill has held for the last eight years an Equerryship to the Queen.

Lieutenant General Sir Henry Havelock-Allan, V.C., C.B., who was lately retired from the army on resigning his brigade command at Aldershot, and who greatly distinguished himself whilst present en amateur at the storming of Tel-el-Kebir, has expressed a wish that his case may be reconsidered by the military authorities, with a view to his restoration to the active establishment of general officers. In the event of his request not being complied with he will again come forward as a candidate for a seat in Parliament.

Hon. Lionel Sackville West, British Minister to Washington, who has been on a fishing tour in Maryland, has had more than the typical fisherman's luck during his trip. A Maryland constable placed him under arrest for violating the laws in relation to fishing, and had him incarcerated. The hon. gentleman pleaded that being Representative of Her Majesty in the United States he was not subject to arrest; but the minions of the law in Maryland couldn't swallow the doctrine. The constable affirmed that all sports caught in illegal fishing claimed they were members of a foreign legion, and that kind of a story was becoming monotonous. His Excellency finally secured his release through an order from the State Department, which the constable accepted, grumbling all the while.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 8, '79 REPORT ON THE LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY: "We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
