Burton Women's Institute Marks Tenth Anniversary

On Jan. 2, 1933 the ladies of Burton School district assembled at the school house to organize a Women's Institute branch. On Jan. 2, 1923, members of Burton WI assembled at the home of Mrs. Eva Dalton to celebrate their 10th anniversary.

Much good was accomplished in the district during the past 10 years, it was felt, as the WI members worked together for home and country. Some projects were first aid courses, swimming and water safety class, 4H sewing class, prizes for students, visiting the stock and shilms and assistance to the needy.

Mrs. Lince Dalton presided and meeting opened with "Auld Lang Syne". Eight members answered roll call. Minutes were read and approved, followed by treasurer's report. Entertainment consisted of readings: "Burton WI members as I see them" by Mrs. Lince Dalton; "From Burton to Boston" by Mrs. Clifford Collett. (This poem was composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson); "What did not go for Christmas" by Mrs. Melvin MacGregor; "Burton WI celebrate their 10th anniversary" by Mrs. Peter Dalton.

Scramble word contest was conducted by Mrs. Ivan Collett with Mrs. Peter Dalton as winner. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ivan Collett. Committees were re-appointed: Luncheon, Mrs. Melvin MacGregor; Mrs. Roma Vanecko; Mrs. Elmer Cooke. The meeting closed with Silent Night followed by a touch of ice cream and another cake made and decorated by Mrs. Clifford Collett. A social hour then took place.

VICTORIA UCF
As the January meeting date of the Victoria UCF coincided with the opening service of the Week of Prayer, the members of this organization for their devotional period, attended the service in the John's Anglican Church. Rev. Mr. Graves presided while Rev. Dr. MacQuarrie led the prayers. The congregation was addressed by the Rector of St. John's, Canon Lord, who delivered a sermon on "Christian Unity." The choir was under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Howatt and a special solo was rendered by Mrs. Vernon Norring.

After this church service, the members gathered at the home of Mrs. Keith Boswell where the President, Mrs. Max Thompson, officiated. Roll call was answered by 14 members with 10 prayers present. Report was expressed that two of the members, Mrs. L. D. MacLeod and Mrs. Fred Ginnar were in the hospital and hopes were expressed for their speedy recovery to good health.

A note of thanks was a read by Mrs. Norman Boswell for Christmas box and other verbal thanks were tendered to the Victoria UCF for similar acts. Routine business matters pertaining to the meeting were discussed and it was decided to order pamphlets for the World's Day of Prayer meeting which, for this area, will be held in Hampton Church.

Mrs. Jean Howatt invited the members to hold their pot luck dinner meeting at her home in February and the Roll Call to be answered by a verse of scripture containing the word "love." The interpretation of "The Word and The Way" will be explained by Mrs. Richard MacQuarrie.

After the benediction was pronounced, refreshments were served by the committee presided of Mrs. Jean Howatt and Mrs. Richard MacQuarrie.

MARY HAWORTH

Parents Are Advised Not To Pussify But To Act

Dear Mary Haworth: We have the "going steady" problem with our daughter, 16, a junior in high school. She has been so steady for a year with a boy who is 18 months her senior in high school. It is your plain duty to break up this business of her being carried to school each day by her Romeo, who goes about it well, but by consulting with your husband, to draft reasonable social activities governing Jean's social activities. And thereafter by informing her about the revised provisions are.

Stop pussifying around the kitchy subject of your feelings toward hers. Stop acting. You call off your daily feelings. Let them steady state in the atmosphere of family acceptance over the weekends. They may learn it is possible to love and nurture and loyal when out of sight of one another for days at a time.

Or if they can't abide that discipline, if their character and mutual devotion don't thrive on a little self-denial, then they may learn it is possible to love and nurture and loyal when out of sight of one another for days at a time.

Dear C.D.: Inasmuch as you disapprove, justifiably, of Jean's embarrassment in her "steady" boy friend who don't you just call a halt to their morning and evening twosome routine?

Face the fact, along with her, that she is, (or thinks she is), very much in love with the boy — a fact that makes it all the more necessary to her present welfare and future happiness to establish a system of checks and balances that will ward off mistakes or reduce the volume of mistakes now being made. Under a lawyer, say he would consider it a breach of the marriage contract if I were to listen to his daily vows and he would refuse to listen to mine.

But to scold a housewife who is weary of listening to a talkative husband who won't listen to hers that's not fair. He too is at fault, very much at fault, and should be held to give her a break — R.V.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Guardian.
