AFTER THE COLLISION

Two City Men In Hospital Following Two-Truck Collision

A collision involving two three-ton trucks near Marshfield School on the St. Peters Highway last evening sent two Charlottetown men to hospital with injuries.

Neither of the men, George MacCallum of Hillsboro Street and Arthur MacLeod of Sydney Street are believed to be seriously injured, although both were held overnight at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. It is believed x-rays will be taken today to determine the extent of their injuries.

The trucks involved were reported to be a 1958 vehicle driven by Melvin George Devine of Peakes Station and a Department of Highways truck driven by MacCallum. Both MacCallum and MacLeod, a passenger in the truck, are employees of the Department of Highways.

The extent of the damages to both trucks was believed to be near $1,000. The devine truck was averturned and came to rest on its roof. Both trucks were travelling towards Charlottetown.

The mishap occurred about 5.05 p.m.

Another highway collision near Brookfield caused damage of between $250 and $400 to two cars. The drivers Donald B. Pineau of North Rustico and Stewart MacPherson of Millview were shaken up but not seriously hurt, it was reported.

Time of the accident was reported as 7.10 p.m.

Island Firm Planning Big, New Supermarket

ALAN H. HOLMAN

The more than a century old Island firm of R.T. Holman Ltd. has announced its intention of constructing a large modern supermarket in the immediate vicinity of Charlottetown.

The announcement was made yesterday by Alan H. Holman, president of the firm. Mr. Holman did not say where the building is to be constructed, although it is believed the site will be in Belvedere on the outskirts of the city.

"Sufficient land has been acquired to contain the proposed building and a parking lot capable of handling from 80 to 100 cars at one time.

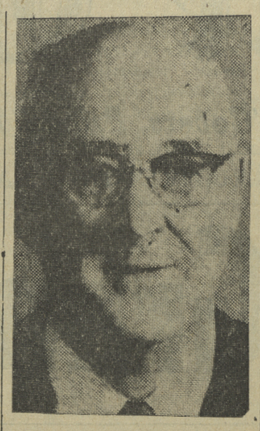
"This supermarket will be equipped with the most modern and sanitary food handling equipment and will carry an assortment of foods equal to any outlet in the Atlantic Provinces. For the convenience of the shoppers many non-food items will also be sold," Mr. Holman said.

Construction of the project will begin soon.

For many years R.T. Holman's has had a grocery outlet in its big Summerside store, but this will mark the first time the firm has been in the retailing grocery business in Charlottetown.

The first Holman store was founded by Robert Tinson Holman, over 100 years ago. After his death in 1906 his sons Harry and J. LeRoy carried on the business and they in turn were succeeded by Alan H. and Harry T. Holman, president and vice-president respectively.

Former Hampshire Man Retires From VLA Post



IRA HOLMES

Ira L. Holmes, a native of Hampshire, P.E.I. has retired as Saskatchewan district superintendent of the Veterans' Land Act administration after 20 years service with the department.

Mr. Holmes is a brother of Mrs. Colby Lewis, Freetown, and Gordon R. Holmes, Q.C., Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island.

He joined the VLA field staff in June, 1938, working out of Swift Current. His appointment as chief inspector for Saskatchewan was made in 1950 and district superintendent in 1954.

CROPS AWARDS

In addition to his VLA duties he had served since 1943 as a member of the board of review for the Pairie Farm Assistance Act administration. This board has authority to make awards to farmers who suffered crop failures.

Mr. Holmes was raised on an Island farm and himsef became a successful farmer in Saskatchewan after serving in the First World War. He enlisted in January, 1915 and served overseas nearly three years with the Canadian Light Horse. He was wounded at Cambrai in France and invalided back to Canada near the end of the war in 1918.

After discharge from the army he became a soldier settler on half a section of land near Swift Current. Be built this up into a successful farm with 960 acres of grain land. His experiences as a soldier settler stood him in good stead when he became an administrator under the Soldier Settlement Act and later the Veterans' Land Act.

Hallowe'en Observance In City Described As 'Quiet'

City Police report that last night was one of the quietest Hallowe'en in years. Even areas of the City that have been trouble spots other years, showed no signs of wilful damage.

The Police report that the usual soaping of windows and minor property damage occurred as in other years. A fire hydrant on Hillsboro street was opened by pranksters, a few telephone booths upset, stop signs knocked over, but all in all it was a very quiet Hallowe'en.

Both City Police and the local detachment of the RCMP report that weather conditions held off most of the pranks of a serious nature.

The usual complaints of noisy disturbances were reported to the RCMP from the surrounding districts of the City. The most troubled spot was Mt. Stewart where gangs were blocking the main highways with wrecks of cars and old rubble. The gangs were soon broken up, wherever found by the RCMP.

For the younger fry the main attraction were the annual parties put on by the local clubs. At the Kinsmen party held at the Community Centre the young fry had a visit from "Looney Louie" from Television land and were shown a number of films.

Judges were very busy awarding prizes for the outstanding costumes. The following is a list of the prize winners:

Girls 1-7, 1. Victoria Horden, 2. Carol Doyle, 3. Gloria Innis, 4. Diana Dowling.

Boys 1-7, 1. Paul Doyle, 2. Shane Doyle, 3. John Dowling, 4. Jack Kipping.

Girls 7-11, 1. Julie Dowd, 2. Mary Doucette, 3. Elizabeth Gaudet, 4. Norma Matheson.

Boys 7-11, 1. John Horton, 2.

Island Red Cross Teams Travel Again To Springhill

For the fourth time in the past week, Mr. J. Gordon MacDonald, Provincial Chairman of Red Cross Disaster Services, has gone to Springhill with a team of workers to do a shift of duty in order to relieve the Nova Scotia Team at Red Cross Headquarters in the Baptist Church Hall in Springhill.

Last night's team consisted of Mrs. R. R. Bell, Miss Hannah Turner, Councillor H.E. Hyndman, who is chairman of the Red Cross Disaster Committee for Charlottetown, Mr. Robert Younker, Deputy Provincial Disaster chairman, and Mr. Walter Baker, Executive Director of the Protestant Family Service Bureau at Charlottetown.

This will be Councillor Hyndman's third trip to Springhill since last Thursday's fatality. On Wednesday evening he took a team composed of Les Gillespie, Bruce MacLaren, Art Ballem and Ewen Stewart over to do the "midnight shift".

VARIED DUTIES

Duties performed by Red Cross Teams at Springhill are many and varied but some of those engaged in by members of the teams from the three Maritime Provinces included the making and serving of sandwiches and coffee, etc., the transportation of these supplies to the miners' rescue hut and to the pithead, as well as the sorting of clothing for the rescuers, and the making up of grocery orders for the miners' families who are in need.

The demand for extra clothing particularly for the brave bareface miners who have been doing most of the actual rescue work has been caused by the fact that conditions are such that they cannot use the same clothing a second time. Many of these

. Not Bread Alone .

Modern Social Agencies stress the need of giving sympathetic understanding and guidance to those in need—but they know that first they must attend to the pressing material needs of food, shelter and clothing . . . and then practicing the precepts of the Gospel as found in God's Word . . . endeavor to guide them through the distressing problems of living which they have been unable to handle alone.

Our Lord emphasized this principle when He said, "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

It is possible for us to studiously read the Bible and yet close our hearts to the suffering about us . . . but the prayerful reading of the Scriptures will open our eyes and hearts to our neighbors' total need . . . material and spiritual.

The Bible Society, by supplying The Word, works hand in hand with the Church and social agencies . . . working together they preach the practical Gospel of Christ who "went about doing good."
