A CLEAR, delicious table drinking water is the Willnot Spa Water, yet it cures many forms of stubborn diseases. Witness certificates; send for pamphlet.

READ IT--Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Walter P. Donil, which appears elsewhere in to-day's issue. If you want anything in his line (or anything that is not in his line) call and get it.

ASK YOUR neighbors if they use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They strengthen the nerves, tone the system, and the most stubborn cases of kidney diseases yield to their influence. They are especially appreciated by the old. Ask your neighbors about them.

HARBOR LIGHT--Contributions of newspapers, magazines, &c., for the Harbor Light will be thankfully received by Rev. W. W. Brewer or W. P. Carter, secretary. As the Harbor Light reopens on Thursday evening, contributors will please send what they may have at hand as early as possible.

GOOD--A new plank sidewalk is being put down over the bricks at the Bank of Nova Scotia corner, the locality referred to by THE EXAMINER a few days ago. If similar action were taken at the corner of Water and Queen streets and at Heart's corner the public would appreciate it.

OH YES WE WILL--We will give you better values in carpets, oil cloths, curtains, art muslins, damasks, window shades and all house fixing, etc., etc., than you have ever got before. Where? At the old stand and from the same old firm--James Paton & Co., Scotch Store. Nov. 23d.

ORIENT DIVISION--The Rev. J. A. Gordon will deliver an address before Orient Division, Sons of Temperance, next Friday evening, on the "Financial Aspect of the Liquor Traffic in Canada." A full and punctual attendance is requested. The meeting will be held at the Victoria Division and transient brethren cordially invited.

CIVIC--An emergency meeting of the City Council was held this forenoon to receive the report of Charles McGregor, Inspector of Queen's Wharf, certifying that the work on the wharf had been completed by the contractor, Michael Egan. The report was read, but action thereon was postponed until Monday evening next, when a special meeting will be held.

THE LYCEUM--The musical entertainment to have been given in the Lyceum last evening by Prof. Spinyne and the Citizens' Band did not take place, owing to the small number in attendance. The lack of appreciation of the band thus exhibited by the citizens is to be regretted. The band has always been kind to the citizens in the way of giving free concerts on the square, and now when they arrange for a concert they are greeted with a "beggarly array of empty benches." There will likely be "band on the square" to-night--if it doesn't snow or rain,--at least the bandmen say so.

GET A COPY--We have received from the hands of the compiler, to whom our thanks are due, a very neatly printed pamphlet, entitled "Problems in Arithmetic, suitable for candidates preparing for the entrance examination to the Prince of Wales College and Normal School." It is the work of D. J. M., Le. d. Superintendent of Education for this Province, who deserves to be highly complimented upon his arrangement of the large number of useful and eminently practical problems in arithmetic that are gathered together within the 33 pages of the little book. As an aid to students in the public schools the pamphlet must prove very useful, because in addition to the arithmetic problems there is included in the 1st part a valuable appendix containing a large list of mathematical terms most clearly and accurately defined.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE--A goodly number assembled in the basement of the First Methodist Church last evening to hear Rev. W. C. Matthews lecture on "John Wesley." The lecturer's review of the life and labors of that noted religious leader was interesting and instructive. By the aid of stereopticon views he presented to the audience the events, and numerous scenes in the life of Mr. Wesley in a realistic manner, and with an impressiveness which can scarcely be gained from written history. The lecture was interspersed by the singing of hymns composed by Charles Wesley. The interest evinced and satisfaction expressed last evening augurs well for the success of the course of lectures and entertainments laid out for the winter by the Epworth League, all of which we understand are to be illustrated with stereopticon views.

A HERO REWARDED--One of the most pleasing parts of the programme of Wednesday night's entertainment in the Agricultural Hall, Souris, was the presentation of a silver mounted ocular glass to Capt. Peter McDonald, for the rescuing of the shipwrecked crew of the schooner British Pearl, of Guysboro, N. S., in September, 1891. The presentation was made by Mr. John McLean, M. P., acting for the Dominion Government. In well chosen words, the account of the rescue is briefly as follows: On the morning of September 8th, while the steamer Princess of Wales was on her way to Pictou, she saw on Point Prim reef a ship in its distress with the crew in the rigging. Captain McLean, mate of the steamer at the time, with much difficulty lowered and manned a boat, and after much hardship and risk succeeded in rescuing the crew from their perilous position. We understand that the others have been equally compensated. The glass bears the following inscription: "In recognition of humane and gallant exertion in rescue of shipwrecked crew of schooner British Pearl, of Guysboro, N. S., on 8th September, 1891. Presented by the Government of Canada to Mr. Peter McDonald, mate of steamer Princess of Wales, of Charlottetown, P. E. I."

BOCK'S CHECKERED CAREER

In Jail Before, and Has Taken Human Life.

The Condemned Man Not Yet Ready for Death.

MONCTON, Nov. 2.

Robert Olsen, alias Buck, sentenced to be hanged at Dorchester on December 1st, was interviewed by the editor of the Plain Dealer. He says: "I am thirty years old. I was born in Norway and afterwards removed with my parents to Stillwater, Minn., at an early age. I went to sea for six years and then learned shoe-making. I worked in several New England towns, but spent my wages in debauchery. I was brought up a Roman Catholic, but forgot the teachings of both church and home. I joined bad company and started on an evil career. I was in Moncton in June, and then went to Amherst to go to work in the shoe factory, but times were too dull and I went to Halifax where I had a big drunk. I then returned to Moncton, and went to the States, and one day met "Jim" in a saloon in Bangor, Me. We struck up an acquaintance and decided to go back to Canada, where "Jim" said he was born and brought up. The condemned man, in the interview, insists that he arrived in Moncton from St. John, and had no connection with the Chatham burglary, and that the money found on him was given him by the person who committed the burglary. Continuing, Buck says: "I am not fit to die. I have made no preparation for death yet. I tried to do so, but it seems so hard for a man as healthy and strong as I am, that I cannot make up my mind to pray. I feel sometimes as though it would be a blessing if I were to drop dead in my cell." It appears that "Buck" was sentenced to twelve months in jail for a crime in Bristol, England, and sentenced also in New York and in France. Once while in the West Indies he fought with a negro and killed him with a club on the plea of self defence. Taken together, by his own admission, his life has been a bad one.

Gladstone Declines.

LONDON, Nov. 2.

It is announced officially that Gladstone has declined to attend the inaugural banquet to Lord Mayor-elect Knill. His declining is especially significant as it has been the custom in past years for the Prime Minister in response to a toast at this banquet, to review the work of the government and speak of its plans for the future.

The Premiership.

LONDON, Nov. 2.

Sir Charles Tupper in an interview says that he could not be induced to accept the premiership of Canada. He says: "Should Sir John Abbott resign, and I believe he will, shortly, the person to succeed him should be Sir John Thompson. He is entitled to the position by seniority and by ability. I am sure he would make a worthy premier."

Schooner Disabled.

HAWKESBURY, C. B., Nov. 2.

While the fire was in progress the mother returned and rushing into the burning structure would doubtless have perished had not men dragged her back.
