REPLY

To the citizens of Summerside.

GENTLEMEN :

In thanking you as I heartily do for the warm welcome accorded me on this my first visit to the capital of Prince County since my appointment to the Lieutenant Governorship of this Province, I am at a loss how sufficiently to thank you for your too flattering address. With reference to the responsible duties necessarily devolving upon me, in the high position to which I have been called, I shall try so to discharge them that at the end of my term I may merit the good opinions which you now so freely shower upon me. You are pleased to make kindly reference to my career as a commercial man, and as a legislator. With reference to the former, it is pleasant to receive this further assurance that my business intercourse of nearly thirty years with the people of this Province has been to their benefit, as it has been to my pleasure and profit; and in regard to the latter, it is satisfactory to feel that my labors are appreciated, as having been in the best interests, and for the advancement of this great Dominion of Canada.

Gentlemen, I shall never forget the thrill of pleasure experienced when in London, in July last, I received a cable message signed by a large number of the most prominent men of Summerside, asking me to accept their congratulations. As already said, I shall never forget the pleasure which the message afforded me, and I now desire most sincerely to thank you for it.

For your kind wishes to Mrs. Carvell and to myself I thank you.

King's County Exhibition

A LARGE ATTENDANCE

AND A GOOD DISPLAY.

THE attendance at the King's County Exhibition at Georgetown to-day was large, and the exhibits were larger in number and better than at any previous exhibition. Among the prominent men present were Hon. Senator Prowse, Hon. W. W. Sullivan, Hon. James Clow, Hon. A. J. Macdonald, Hon. A. A. Macdonald, Angus McLeod, M. P. P., High Sheriff Macdonald, Dr. Muttart, Austin C. Macdonald, Richard Frame, George Sutherland, George Tweedy, Thomas Vessey, Marcus Deacon and a number of other prominent persons.

The show of horses was larger and better than we have ever before seen at Georgetown. There were about seventy entries of horses and sixty of horned cattle; altogether there were about one hundred and eighty-four entries of live stock. Many prime animals, including several splendid foals and fillies from Stockman and other draft horses were shown. There were also several very worthy representatives of All Right and other trotting and carriage stallions.

Father Stephen Phelan showed a good example to his parishioners and the county by exhibiting creditably in both horse and cattle classes. Mr. Hamilton, of New Perth, James Phillips and Wm. Shaw, of Montague, and Wm. Thompson, Michael Power, Charles Cleary, Leslie Poole, Malcolm J. Campbell and others were among the exhibitors of horses and cattle.

The grain on exhibition was excellent. The prize wheat weighed 77 and 68 lbs. per bushel, the black oats 48 lbs. and the white 52 lbs. A bag of Japanese buckwheat was shown as a sample of grain that produced this year 150 bushels from one bushel of seed.

The exhibits of butter and cheese, fruit and vegetables were very fine indeed.

At one o'clock His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor was received at the Drill Shed by the Board of Exhibition Commissioners, the band playing "God Save the Queen." The Hon. Daniel Gordon then read, on behalf of his fellow commissioners, the following address :—

ADDRESS.

To the Honorable Jedediah S. Carvell, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island, &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR :

We, the Commissioners appointed to manage the exhibition for King's County for the present year, beg leave to tender our hearty congratulations on your elevation to the Governorship of this Province.

We are gratified to meet with Your Honor on this occasion, being your first visit to our County since your appointment, and we desire to extend to you a most cordial welcome.

The Exhibition now about to be opened to the public will tend to show the steady advance and the solid gain which our husbandmen and artisans are making in their several avocations.

This desideratum has been attained largely through the generous spirit of rivalry encouraged and promoted by the annual competitions; at the same time we can not overlook the fostering care and the liberal support rendered by the Government in aid of all measures tending to promote the prosperity and welfare of our agricultural and industrial population, and we entertain the hope that in the future, as in the past, this wise policy shall be continued in order to augment those beneficial results so much to be desired.

We duly appreciate the progressive step secured by the legislative enactment passed at the last session of the legislature. When the people avail themselves of the provisions of this act, a further stimulus will be given to the various competitors, which must tend to far greater improvement.

On taking a survey of the harvest gathered in this season we think there is cause for thankfulness.

Owing to the extremely dry summer there will be some shortcoming in the yield of carrots, especially of the oat crop; but wheat is of excellent quality and will give a better return than the average for years past.

In the sections allotted to roots and vegetables it will be observed that these samples indicate very favorable returns for the labors of the "tillers of the soil."

Owing to various causes fruits have not been abundant this season, and we regret that we can not refer, with the same degree of satisfaction to the profits to be derived by those engaged in fruit growing; still, on the tables are to be found many choice varieties.

In the sections assigned to the various other products, the collections show a marked improvement over those of former years.

Notwithstanding the very large export of horses, whereby our noblest steeds are taken away to a foreign market, yet we look with some degree of pride on the number of fine horses on the show grounds. These give evidence of due care and attention on the part of those who appreciate pure-bred stock.

In the classes of cattle and sheep the stock show an advance and greater attention by stock-raisers.

The exhibits of textile fabrics and fancy work afford evidence that the ladies have not forgotten their art. Many of these articles show considerable artistic skill and correct taste, both in design and manufacture.

In conclusion, we desire to tender our assurance of respect and esteem for your Honor personally; and we request you to convey to Mrs. Carvell the expression of our gratification on witnessing her presence at the opening of this Exhibition; and we trust that your Honor and Mrs. Carvell will be pleased to favor us with your countenance on many future occasions of this kind.

We now respectfully ask you to declare this Exhibition open to the people.

For self and County Commissioners,
D. GORDON,
Chairman.

Exhibition Building,
Georgetown, Sept. 26, 1889.

The Lieut.-Governor replied in a capital off-hand speech, thanking the Commissioners for their compliments and good wishes, and congratulating them upon the excellence of the Exhibition.
