TORONTO, Dec. 8. A despatch from Victoria, B. C., says there is great excitement there over the Settlement and Island Railway Bill. Strong objections were taken by the opposition to the action of the Legislature in delegating to the Dominion Government the construction of the Island Railway. An especial hostility was manifested towards the so-called Settlement Act, which confers on the Dominion Government the power to dispose of a large amount of land and money to Mr. R. Dunsuir, a member of the contracting legislature, and his associates, without first submitting the question to the electors. On Friday Mr. Beaven, M. P., moved for a return of the Dunsuir contract. The Government declined to make it and the House adjourned under strong excitement till Friday. The Government will consult the authorities.

BEAUTIFUL Wax Dolls for thirty cents—formerly sold at eighty cents—at the Diamond Bookstore.

On Friday last a shuttle train on the New York Elevated Road, plying between the Chatham Square station and the City Hall, left the track and jolted along over cross ties for about eighty feet. Had it not been for the fact that the road was solidly planked over at this point, the entire train must have fallen into the street below. As it was, the train stopped just at the edge and the passengers were severely frightened and well shaken.

In photograph and autograph albums, the Diamond Bookstore excels.

THERE are said to be 207 lawyers in the United States of Representatives, eleven journalists, eight farmers, thirty-six merchants and bankers, and only one physician. It would appear that the mercantile classes, in spite of the large interests at stake in legislation, do not seek an entrance into Congress, but it is just possible they are represented by proxy by legal gentlemen in a good many instances.

Just price the goods at the Diamond Bookstore. You will find them very cheap.

A CASE of mistaken identity is recorded by the Arkansas Traveller.—An old negro, passing along the street, stepped on a torpedo ingeniously placed in his way by a boy.
