Grass fires, one of our greatest demons of destruction, is again exacting its unnecessary toll of property. Year after year the same dismal story must be repeated of people who start grass fires without having either the necessary help or equipment to keep such fires under control and some persons totally unconnected with the starting of the fire has his property destroyed. If there is no Provincial Statute covering this menace then surely the time has long since arrived when such a law should be enacted. If there is such a law already on the books then it more, is receiving a real royal welcome from his hosts of friends since he arrived home to spend a 60-day leave after his tour of service in Korea.

Where'd they all go? Even without free-handed little girls like this, more families run out of Kellogg's Corn Flakes this morning than any other cereal. This is happening all the time. That's because Kellogg's Corn Flakes just naturally taste better to more people than any other cereal. Always have. Still do. No wonder so many women pick up a spare package of Kellogg's Corn Flakes every time they buy any other kind of cereal.
