ANOTHER TABERNACLE.—It is rumored, says the Herald, that a wealthy widow residing at the south end, Halifax, contemplates erecting a large tabernacle either on Inglis street or Victoria road, in which all classes may worship free from denominational forms. SENSATIONAL COWHIDING.—A sensational cowhiding took place at St. Louis a few days ago. Miss Georgie Lingard, an actress who visited Charlottetown some years ago, wielded the whip, and J. A. Stout, a theatrical man, was the victim. Stout, it was alleged, sent an insulting note to Miss Lingard asking for an appointment. She kept the appointment with a rawhide and invited some of her friends to be present. Among others a newspaper reporter was on hand with a camera. Stout was first on the scene and then came Miss Lingard and Miss Alyne, her friend. They whipped Stout until the blood flowed and he fell into the court house.

Hazard, of one mulatto boy called "Simon" and one mulatto girl called "Catherine." Simon was three years old at the time of the transfer, and was sold for $20 Halifax currency, "with all his wearing apparel." The girl "Catherine" was given to Harriet C. and Sarah L. Hazard by their grandfather.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS.

AN INTERESTING OUTLINE

OTTAWA, May 2.

Mr. HAZON, of St. John, moved the answer to the speech from the throne yesterday afternoon in a magnificent effort which is universally commended. He dressed Sir Richard Cartwright in fine style for his insulting allusion to the Maritime Provinces as "ragged remnants," etc. Mr. Caribould ably seconded Mr. Hazon's motion.

Laurier spoke well, but moved no amendment.

Sir John replied in fine form, evidently spoiling for a fight. He taunted the opposition unmercifully, with a special application to Sir Richard Cartwright.

Sir Richard then took the floor in one of his characteristic speeches.

Hon. Mr. Foster replied to him in one of the ablest speeches he has yet delivered.

Mills followed in a dry dissertation upon the constitutional methods of dissolving Parliament, quoting all the way from Disraeli back to King John.

The debate then adjourned, Mr. John Chilton having the floor.

The House adjourned till Monday.

The debate may last several days longer, and it is not improbable that the Opposition may move an amendment.

In the Senate, Hon. Mr. Prowse made a short but able speech, seconding the answer to the Speech. The debate closed in one session.

Messrs. Purry and Yao were served with a notice of protest against their election yesterday.

The Island colony here heard yesterday, with deepest regret, the news of Bishop McIntyre's death.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Unfortunate Irish Division.

LONDON, May 2.

The debate on the Government Irish Land Purchase Bill was continued yesterday.

Several McCarthyites discussed the proposed amendments to the Bill, and after a while Mr. Parnell arose, and addressing his remarks to the Irish members, advised them, in view of the conciliatory attitude of the Government, to confine their debate to the important point of the measure in order that the bill might pass the House more quickly.

Mr. Timothy Healy retorted that Mr. Parnell had been repudiated as representing Ireland, and he declared that he would not be guided by any directions given by Mr. Parnell.

Mr. Fitzgerald said that Irishmen still recognized Parnell as their representative, and that they never would be guided by Sexton or Healy.

Mr. Parnell said he was quite indifferent to what he thought was best for Ireland, with no regard as to whether his statements exasperated Mr. Healy or not.

This interchange of views between opposing Irishmen created quite a lively scene and excited cheering and countering from the supporters of the members.

MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS.

Lively Labor Demonstrations

New York, May 2.

Chicago and New York labor demonstrations yesterday were closed by an enthusiastic banquet.

At Paris the police exchanged shots with the mob, and four policemen were wounded.

At Lyons the police attacked the procession and cavalry charged the workmen, who retreated.

At Rome the cavalry dispersed the meeting. Several persons were killed and wounded.

Dunk River Hatchery Burnt.

An Incendiary Fire.

SUMMERSIDE, May 2.

Dunk River Hatchery was burnt last night. The fire was, doubtless, the work of an incendiary. The Fisheries Department have arranged to put it in running order for the autumn fry. Poachers were strongly opposed to the protection of the river.

Bismarck's Election.

BERLIN, April 30.—The supplementary ballot for a member of the reichstag was held in Gestemunde district to-day. The returns from fifty-five polling places give the following figures: Bismarck, 6,678; Schmelfeld, 4,718.

A Big Cut of Pine.

QUEBEC, April 30.—It is stated that Price Brothers, the famous lumber kings, have cut no less than 100,000 of pine logs in Montmagny woods during the past season.

Earthquake.

BOSTON, May 2.

An earthquake shock was distinctly felt last evening at Manchester, N. H.

Gubernatorial Rumors.

OTTAWA, May 2.

It is rumored that Lord Stanley will succeed Lord Lansdowne as Governor General of India.

Written For The Examiner.

"Passed Away."

With firm, free step he trod
On Pisgah's mountain crest;
He laid him down to rest
Alone! save with his God.

He sighed no faint farewell;
No murmuring refrains;
Out-echoed angel strains;
Nor tolled dull funeral knell.

Thus, as in days gone by
Great leader, careful guide!
God called thee hence, aside,
We might not see thee die.

Yet we have seen, may see
Thy work of noble life;
The courage through the strife;
Deeds testify of thee.

Rest well! Oh silvered head!
Voice ever prompt to bless,
To soothe the soul's distress;
Peace to thy lowly bed!

Soul which hath soared afar
Beyond the flight of time;
In calm, congenial clime
No ill thy joy may mar.

Fair spirit! just and wise;
Kind heart of larges love!
Christ-like, all creeds above!
Rest thou in kindred skies.

More glorious eve's bright sun,
More dull seems doleful night;
So, lost thy glorious light
And yet—Heaven's will be done.

A Tolling Bell.

It throbs embittered through the scented air,
It pains the utter sweetness of the May,
That weary bell! It grieves the birds away,
And cheery twirls twirls fall in dumb despair.

The voice of Earth is woe. How else declare
Her sense of sin?

The cross, above, holds sway
Over the bell-tower; and alone, to-day
I feel its mighty presence. Who can bear
Its crushing weight of tears, and thorns and blood?

O lilies white a-bloom! O blessed bells
That ring adown the vales of Paradise!
O souls gone thither, naught of earth foretells
Your joyousness of amethystine skies,
Your surging bliss, in broad illumed flood.
