The moderation with which the EXAMINER presents hard facts is telling in the country. The Patriot is waking up to the impolicy of abusing Pope and Brecken.

NEARLY every supporter of Mr. Pope in Charlottetown is going to vote the whole ticket for POPE AND BRECKEN. Electors, in the country, do not pay any attention to the wiles of the enemy. Poll your votes for Pope and Brecken.

The paragraph in Tuesday's issue, in reference to Mr. R. T. Holman, we find on inquiry is slightly inaccurate. The rooms of the Grit committee are not in Mr. Holman's warehouse, but in the house immediately opposite. The two buildings are, it is said, joined together by a hemp rope, bearing the mottoes which we mentioned, painted on flags suspended from it. We regret the insertion of the paragraph.

A CORRESPONDENT at Mount Stewart—whose able letter we regret that we cannot publish in full to-day—says that "the prospects of the Liberal-Conservatives in both King's and Queen's County, are most encouraging." He gives this bit of good advice to electors: "Go manfully to the polls on the 17th, and vote for the Liberal-Conservatives who, depend upon it, are your true friends."

MR. ANGLIN said that Prince Edward Island owes to Mr. Pope and his associate delegates a debt of "undying gratitude" for obtaining for its people $25,000 a year in addition to the first terms of Confederation. An opportunity of paying that debt will be afforded on Tuesday next. Then, send Pope up to Ottawa with five supporters at his back.

The Party of Purity.

The Toronto Globe, with sublime effrontery, says that the Reform Party has struggled, out of office and in office, for pure elections, and it was chiefly owing to their efforts that the Judges were entrusted with the task of trying contested cases. The following are the Judges' decisions as to some of the Reformers whose cases they tried:

Table with columns: Name, Constituency, Penalty. Lists names like Walker, Jodoin, Cushing, Sibley, etc., and their respective constituencies and penalties.

This is the list of those who were found out only. Yet the Globe impudently says that Reformers will not resort to bribery in any form, but as their opponents may not be so scrupulous, "purity and vigilance must be the watchwords of Reformers during the coming election." Could hypocrisy be carried further?

Postal Irregularity.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—On last evening, the 11th inst., my usual supply of the Daily Sun, published at St. John, N. B., did not arrive. This is the fourth time, within the past three weeks, that I have been disappointed. The St. John Telegraph, I receive with the greatest regularity. Yet the twenty copies of the Sun, which are posted in St. John at the same time occasionally miss. Is the fault with the postal officers between St. John and Charlottetown, or is it because the Sun is a Liberal-Conservative organ?

Yours, very truly, FRED. L. CHAPPELLE, Diamond Bookstore. Ch'town, Sept. 7, 1878.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—In this morning's issue of the Patriot an anonymous correspondent attempts to question the accuracy of your paragraph in yesterday's issue in reference to the remarks made by Hon. D. Davies. I think that if you were inaccurate, the editor of the Patriot, who was present, could himself have made the denial, and not require the services of an unknown scribbler. I may say that your report was quite correct, and thus the Patriot well knows. Yours, truly,

ANOTHER WHO WAS PRESENT. Ch'town, Sept. 12, 1878.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Unscrupulous Grit office holders and would-be statesmen when on their canvassing excursions, assert in the most emphatic manner and apparently without fear of contradiction, that if Sir John is returned to power at the coming election, those obliged to buy flour will have to pay from one to two dollars per barrel more for that article than they at present do—that they will have to pay from twenty-five to thirty-five cents on every dollar's worth of dutiable goods imported into the Dominion; and all, as they say, "for the benefit of a few Ontario manufacturers." Now, Mr. Editor, any man of ordinary intelligence can see that the above arguments are, to use a mild expression, nothing but unmitigated nonsense, and are used for the sole purpose of frightening the electors, and, if possible, to gain votes. The policy of Sir John and his followers, from British Columbia to P. E. Island, is most undoubtedly in favor of the poor man. Their policy is to place the poor man on an equality with the rich—to distribute the burdens of taxation in such a way that these Maritime Provinces will pay no more than their reasonable share—to foster, as far as practicable, our struggling industries, which are in imminent danger of being completely ruined by our American friends—to promote Inter-provincial trade, and thus unite the different Provinces of our Dominion commercially, as well as politically—in short, a policy that, while it will raise sufficient revenue, to carry on the Government of the country, will give fairly to all parts of the Dominion and favor to none. This, Mr. Editor, is the policy of the Liberal-Conservatives from one end of the Dominion to the other, and is the policy which every elector should vote in favor of on the 17th.

Yours, &c., ANTI GRIT. Sept. 11, 1878.

Meeting at Springton.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—As a farmer elector and resident of Lot 67, and being present at Springton meeting on Monday night last, I beg leave to send you the true statement of the meeting. It was as follows (and not as the foul reporter No. 2 of the Patriot would have people believe), viz: A very large number of electors were present. The meeting was opened by appointing Mr. Lamont, Esq., to the chair. The formality of appointing a Secretary was dispensed with, so that we here in Springton would have an opportunity of testing Mr. Lawson No. 2 of the Patriot in reference to his honesty, etc., in giving a report of the meeting. Mr. Brecken was first to speak, as Mr. Sinclair declined leading. Mr. Brecken spoke very clearly and most powerfully. He preferred the strongest charges of mismanagement against Mr. McKenzie's Government. His speech took well. He was often cheered during his speech, which was listened to with great attention. In alluding to Mr. Cartwright's slander on our people, Mr. Sinclair, Mr. McGill, Donald McKenzie, Esq., and Alex. McPherson, a school teacher from Brookfield, seemed to get scared. In fact, they all at once got wrathful and interrupted the speaker by saying that G. W. Howland slurred the people of Rona, Uigg and Raza in this Island on a former occasion. But what had Mr. Brecken to do with that?

Mr. Sinclair next spoke, and made one of his best speeches on the defensive. He was attentively listened to, but miserably failed to clear up any of the charges so clearly preferred against his obsequious legislation, &c. Mr. Pope was loudly and wildly called for. He spoke two hours and a half—and to the point. He fully exposed the incapacity of the McKenzie Government. He dealt some blows to our Island Representatives. He read copies of letters from and to Lieut. Governor Robinson in regard to confederation, which has, without any doubt, placed him, in our estimation, a statesman of the highest standing. He was most enthusiastically cheered throughout his long speech by, at least, two-thirds of the meeting; and he will be supported in that proportion by us on election day, without splitting our votes, as we first intended. We are now convinced, and will give the square vote for Pope and Brecken; and, our reason is, that they are, by far, the ablest and best men; and, what's more, they have a policy laid down well calculated to benefit this country.

The next speaker on the scene was the gallant Colonel, who acted the part of a half-trained comedian, and brought forth some side-splitting laughter from all without distinction. He would, at times, as if by magic, dash up the coat sleeves and say "Yes, en, what!" and cut up other fantastic shins by heaving his gasses (to use his own phrase) down on the desk—and, without any reason and for no purpose whatever, turn around and pick them up, and sling them back at least a distance of fifteen inches; whilst he would shoot (every time) them squarely in their proper place, which clearly proves that he is an expert in the science of ledgerdom. During the time occupied by the gallant every one looked glad, being that the exhibition was free to all. He was often cheered for the purpose of having him continue at greater length. He was frequently brooked by some person calling out, "Tug of War." His political remarks were few indeed, and, from a political standpoint, went to support the Opposition—every one of them. In taking farewell of the Colonel, we hope he may enjoy good health, and always be able to amuse us in like way and manner as he did on Monday night, and not be transported to Ottawa or any other foreign clime—as we wish to retain his valiant services here on our own Island.

Mr. Lawson (No. 2), of the Patriot, says the speakers were Brecken, Sinclair, Pope, McGill, Cameron, A. B. McKenzie, Tanton and Moore, in the order above written; but such is not the case. Mr. George Howatt, Crapaud, pleased us very much by telling us which way he felt. He spoke very calmly for only a short time, when he began to find out that he would not be heard on any ground. Now that Mr. Howatt knows who reduced the duty on coal oil, he must be satisfied and remain at home—or jump Jim Crow again. Howatt can't come it here.

Messrs. Cameron, Tanton and A. B. McKenzie spoke well—each supporting their cause like "Willies." Messrs. Pope and Brecken left at a late hour, with three rousing cheers and the full assurance of a majority vote in Springton, from the loyal, patriotic descendants of fair Scotia, on the 17th.

The meeting was a great victory for Pope and Brecken, and shows plainly that the National Policy is in the interest of the Island people generally. I am, &c.,
