Souvenir Photographs

Advance orders for photographs of our P. E. Island Transvaal contingent have at last been all filled. Now is the time for those who did not leave orders to obtain these interesting souvenirs.

Everyone should have one. The boys will soon be at the front. They'll probably see considerable fighting, and when they come won't they be heroes. All the stories they will have to tell.

The photos are in two sizes. Both are clear and sharp. One is mounted on a card 14 x 17 inches and makes a splendid picture for framing. The price is $1.00

The other is mounted on a card about 7 x 9 inches—just the thing for the mantelpiece. The price is 35 cents. It will be mailed, post paid to any address.

The day before he left Charlottetown Rev. T. F. Fullerton, the noble chaplain who left home and all its environments to look after the spiritual welfare of the boys sat for a photograph. An excellent likeness was the result. This photograph may be had in three different sizes. Price 30, 40 and 45 cents. Either will be mailed to any address postpaid.

All of the photographs were taken and are being finished by Westlake Eros, Charlottetown. In Charlottetown the Photos may be had at THE EXAMINER office, or at Johnson & Johnson's downtown drugstore.

In Summerside, orders for the large group photo may be left at D. K. Currie's Bookstore.

All mail orders should be addressed to Robert L. Cotton, P. O. Box 84, Charlottetown.

THE DAILY EXAMINER

NOVEMBER 29, 1899.

PROVINCIAL PROHIBITION.

The Guardian does not—cannot—deny that the "total prohibition" spoken of in the "pledge" that is now being distributed is not "total prohibition" in the sense in which the term is commonly understood; for such prohibition will not prevent the "importation" of liquors. Yet The Guardian affects to be amazed at THE EXAMINER's effort to give the people a clear understanding of the matter. It seems to be impossible for the Guardian to comprehend the idea of honest straightforward dealing, when it is politically hoodwink humbug.

Those who were present at the meeting know whether or not THE EXAMINER's statement concerning the size of the audience was true. As for the declaration that Mr. Marshall was not so "happy" as at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, some months ago, when he exhorted the electors present to "vote them down" we referred not to the style or matter of Mr. Marshall's speech—Mr. Marshall always speaks well—but to the evident effect of his words upon the people. His straightforward manly appeal to the electors to "vote down" the "traitors" and "deceivers" was heard with an enthusiasm which his subsequent effort did not evoke.

The Guardian had better stop questioning the motives and policy of THE EXAMINER and look to itself. The temperance men of the Province started it as a daily in the hope that the Scott Act would be upheld and drunkenness suppressed. The result is "license" and "increased drunkenness." Yes, the Guardian had better look to itself. It is playing a game of humbug and deception on behalf of the Liberals with the skill of a master; but the effects of its play are not admirable.

At the conclusion of its article The Guardian says:

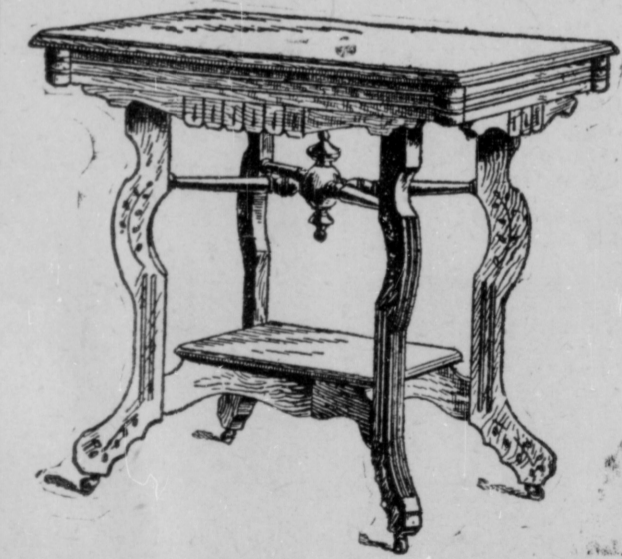

"The one significant note of THE EXAMINER's article is its opposition to provincial suppression of the traffic, the one measure which the liquor interest most fears, because it is possible, practicable, and may be near at hand."

To this we have to say that while THE EXAMINER would greatly prefer National Prohibition, we should be disposed to support the proposition of the Alliance if it could be shown clearly and authoritatively that "Provincial Prohibition" involves prohibition of the "importation" of liquors as well as of their "manufacture" and "sale." Unless liquor can be kept out of the province, the province will be no better off under "Provincial Prohibition" than under the Scott Act—which can be applied at any time.

President Weir Guilty.

MONTREAL, Nov 28.—W A Weir, president of the defunct Banque Ville Marie, was found guilty to-day of sending a false statement to the government of the financial affairs of the bank. The trial lasted eight days. The jury only required fifteen minutes to find a verdict. The penalty is five years. The counsel for the defence immediately asked for a reserve case, argument on which will be heard to-morrow.

FIGHT PAIR

Lord Methuen's Message to The Boers.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Statements concerning the treacherous use of the white flag, etc., are uncredible here; but they are now confirmed officially by the protest of General Methuen, who has sent a message to the Boer commander, saying:—"I must ask you to warn your wounded not to shoot our officers. I must warn you not to use dum-dum bullets, or use the flag of truce so treacherously. Such action is cowardly in the extreme and I cannot countenance it."

Continuing Lord Methuen says: "I am acting quite fairly as your opponent. I refused to take with me two men from Kimberley who were inside the Kimberley lager because I believed by doing so I should be taking an unfair advantage, seeing that they were on parole, although under conditions which have not been fulfilled by the Boer commander."

Referring to dum-dum bullets, General Methuen says: "I have 12 men in the hospital with wounds inflicted by dum-dum." In conclusion, he says:—"To place a white handkerchief on a rifle and take advantage of your enemy is a cowardly action, which neither you nor I can countenance."

A wounded Boer, who was among the prisoners sent to Orange River, when asked what he thought of the British bayonet charge, replied, in a surprised tone, "Almighty, do you suppose I waited for that?"

All accounts confirm the splendid charging of the British infantry, the Scots Guards entering the fight with drums beating and rifles playing.

The second ridge was the strongest position. The Boers there were sheltered behind ramparts of boulders. Nevertheless the Guards advanced steadily, many of them smoking.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The doggerel of the London music halls thus hits off public opinion in England:

Then take the muzzle off the Lion,
And let him have a go!
Is Boer or Britain going to rule?
That's what we want to know!
Whisper to him, "Majuba Hill!"
Then at his chain he'll pull!
There's only room for one out there,
And that is Johnny Bull.

—At Chicago, a few days ago, Professor W. H. Johnson made a successful test of wireless telegraphy. He succeeded in telegraphing without wires through a suite of seven rooms, all doors closed, and through seven walls. Several tests were made with satisfactory results. The professor claims that his invention is materially different from Marconi's and that instruments can be constructed to be carried on horseback and to be ready for operation in a few minutes after they have reached their destination.

Great Sport.
