

Only Me

A little figure glided through the hall; "Is that you Pet?"—the words came tenderly; A sob—suppressed to let the answer fall—"It isn't Pet, mamma: it's only me."

"THE NAME OF MOTHER." There are words that speak of a quenchless love, Which burns in the hearts we cherish.

Oh magical word! may it never die From the lips that love to speak it; Nor melt away from the trusting hearts

Regular Advertisers.

We commend the following, taken from an exchange, to the consideration of business men:—"Take it as a rule, the constant advertiser is the one who does a profitable business, and not the one who flashes his announcement at irregular intervals upon the public."

Strange Malady.

L'Evenement (Quebec) relates that a Madame Plante died in St Rochs on Sunday of a malady which bore a singular analogy to dropsy. After death an operation was performed by Dr. Vincelle upon the body to establish the exact nature of the disease, when a kind of sac or bag containing 13 gallons of watery matter and weighing 130 pounds was taken from the abdomen.

A correspondent mentions a source of danger in the use of kerosene lamps which seems to have been generally overlooked, namely, the habit allowing lamps to stand near hot stoves or mantelpieces, and in other places where they become heated sufficiently to convert the oil into gas.

Red lead in cayenne pepper; chromate of lead in mustard; sulphuric acid in vinegar; corrosive sublimate in pickles; prussic acid in tea; scented and colored clay in coffee; alum in bread; sand in sugar; marble dust and plaster of Paris in flour; powder stone in soda; terra alba in cream of tartar; damaged grain in Graham meal; chalk in baking powders; mercury, arsenic and copper in the coloring of candy; creosote and salt of copper in whiskey—such are only samples of some of the adulterations in food and drink pointed out the other day by Mr. George T. Angell, in a paper read to the American Social Science Association of Boston.

Old Deacon Sharpe never told a lie, but he used to relate this:—He was standing one day beside a frog-pond—we have his word for it—and saw a large garter-snake make an attack upon an enormous big bull-frog.

"THE ENAMORADO" A DRAMA IN V. ACTS, BY HUNTER DUVAR

THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island. Col. Duvar is happy in having selected for the theme of his drama, one of the most romantic incidents of a romantic and soldierly time. The scene is laid in Spain, amid all the accessories of grave and gay, love and chivalry, poetry and song, with room for the display of many types of character,—knights and ladies, priests and soldiers, courtiers and peasants, cooks and clowns. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling. Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents. Summerside, Jan. 25, 1879—

CATARRAL

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH. Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your 'Constitutional Catarrh Remedy' was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be 'too good to be true.' I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward 'drop' from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and was compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY SINCE THE CREATION OF MAN, OR SINCE THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CHRISTIAN ERA.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undoubted fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniments. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will cost hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
