Former Prominent Potato Farmer Dies In City

The death occurred suddenly in Charlottetown on Wednesday evening of Donald A. MacFadyen in his 71st year.

A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacFadyen, he was born and resided most of his lifetime in Augustin Cove, where, until failing health forced him to limit farming operations, he maintained one of the largest potato acreages in the province.

A man of exemplary character, the late Mr. MacFadyen was one of the most highly respected farmers in the province.

In addition to his widow, the former Millicent MacDonald of Craupaud, he is survived by a daughter, Muriel, Mrs. Arthur Clark of Charlottetown; and by one sister, Mrs. Frank Dixon of North Tryon.

He was predeceased by two brothers, Malcolm and Edward, and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Bradshaw. The funeral will be held from the home of Mrs. Edward MacFadyen in Augustin Cove on Sunday afternoon.

Smith - Vissey Wedding

The wedding took place in St. John's Roman Catholic Church in Toronto, Ont., on Feb. 27th, of Joan Vissey, second-oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vissey, West Royalty, to William Raymond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, Saint John, N.B.

The couple left on their honeymoon to Niagara Falls and New York City. On their return they will live in Toronto.

MacDonald-Bourke Wedding

A pretty, quiet wedding took place 3:30 p.m., Saturday, March 6, at St. James Church when Elaine Mackinlay Bourke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Arthur Bourke of Charlottetown, exchanged vows with W. Chester S. MacDonald, son of Mrs. Harold MacDonald of Summerside.

Rev. T. H. B. Somers officiated. The church was tastefully decorated with white tapers and white mums. Wedding music was played by Miss Lillian MacKenzie and the Misses Marilyn and Barbara Rupert sang "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. H. C. Bourke, in the absence of his father, the bride chose a gown of pink brocaded taffeta in cocktail length. Her accessories were a small cap-styled hat in pink, and matching gloves and brocaded shoes. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

She was attended by her twin sister, Mrs. Allison MacGregor who wore a dress of pink and blue shot taffeta and a white hat and gloves. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mr. Lloyd MacLeod was groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Lloyd MacDonald, brother of the groom, and Mr. Paul Devlin.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 128 Rochford street, for approximately 75 guests.

Following a wedding trip to New York, Toronto and Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald will reside in Summerside where the groom is practicing law.

Southport Community Organize Affiliation To H. And S. Assoc.

A meeting was held Monday evening, March 8 in the Southport school, with the object of forming in that community, an affiliation with the Home and School Association, as a project of the Women's Institute in that district.

This is a new venture of the Institute, and it was gratifying to see so many interested persons present, including the school teachers.

The committee in charge was composed of three Institute members and the three school trustees. The guest speakers were Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald, president of the Provincial Home and School Association; Dr. L. W. Shaw, Deputy Minister and Director of Education; and Mr. Edward MacPhail, supervisor of correspondence study.

The speakers outlined the origin, meaning and object of the Home and School Association, emphasizing the necessity of a close contact between the parent and the teacher. The interested audience engaged in a lively discussion and many problems concerning school, children, and teaching methods were cleared up.

The meeting was brought to a close by the showing of a film depicting the close contact of the home with the school.

A vote of thanks was extended to the visiting speakers and Mrs. R. S. MacDonald was chairman of the meeting. Plans are being made to hold about three such meetings during the year.

Why the Government should pay for this damage, Dr. Robert Roberts said, "The teachers were instructed to keep a check on the students everywhere in the building."

"There are also some stories on the rounds which are not too edifying about a dance which ended in a free-for-all fight last fall and as a result of which several students were expelled," he stated.

"Prince of Wales College is being conducted on a sectarian basis," said the Doctor. "There are no Catholics in any position of authority. Ever since the College was founded there has been Protestant Principals and fortunately they were good ones."

"For many years Dr. Henry Blanchard was Vice-Principal and he was a very good man in that position. When Dr. G. D. Steel retired as Principal I went to the Premier and asked him to appoint a Catholic in his place."

"He said there were no Catholics available with any administrative experience. I said there was Lt. Col. W.J. MacDonald. The Premier stated that he had no experience in administrative work. What? I said, he commanded a regiment in the army. Then the Premier went out to appoint a man with absolutely no administrative experience at all."

"The administrative committee of Prince of Wales College is now composed of Frank MacKinnon, Principal; James Brown, Vice-Principal and Lillian H. Seaman, Registrar. At least they could have added one or two more and put a Catholic on the committee."

Measure Of Fair Play

"How many of you would do a thing like that as a matter of fair play?" he asked the members. "I don't think you'd like it. I don't care what race or creed a man is, that's his business, but I do want to see all races and creeds given a measure of fair play. That's a matter of democratic justice. It was so in the days of Dr. Shaw, Dr. Robertson or Dr. Steel."

"Dr. MacKinnon laid down his own terms on which he became Principal. I wonder what would happen, Mr. Minister of Public Works, if the Superintendent of the Government Garage was not subject to the authority of your Deputy Minister?"

Speaking about the proposed bill which would have handed governing authority over to a board of governors and the Principal, Dr. MacMillan stated "Prince of Wales College is the bed-rock of education here because it was built for the training of teachers in the Province. Today the teacher training department has become nothing less than the tail of the dog."

"According to this bill it was proposed that a board of governors be set up giving them almost despotic powers. This board was to consist of eleven members. 'Who were to be eligible for this board of governors? Not the Members of this House, nor of the Civil Service, nor any other College, nor the staff of P.W.C. other than the Principal,' he stated."

"Also according to the bill the governors could not appoint anyone to the staff without the consent and recommendation of the Principal. The bill would have put the absolute and autocratic control of P.W.C. into the hands of one man. I never saw the like of it," said the Doctor.

This is in keeping with a speech Dr. MacKinnon made recently in Nova Scotia in which he advocated the same principle. The theory is to divorce the College from the Department of Education. I am glad to say that the Government had the wisdom to turn down the bill. I know you members would never have agreed to such a proposal," he stated.

Students Suffering

"It is the boys and girls of this Province who are suffering on account of the conditions at Prince of Wales College. How is it that 60 and 70% of the students in Nova Scotia attend New Brunswick schools? The Government now pays the hospitals $100 per patient a day."

Work Neglected

"The work that should have been done was neglected with the result that you can't travel over parts of our main highway in soft weather. If this work had been done at the proper time there would be no problem."

Dr. MacMillan requested more per diem allowance for the hospitals. The Government now pays the hospitals $100 per patient a day.

District Governor Visits Y's Men

Y's George Meikle of Summerside, District Governor of the Island Y's Men, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Alpha Y's Men's Club held last evening in the banquet room of the Y. M. C. A. when he made an official visit to the club. Y's George spoke on the different phases of Y's Men's work. He dealt briefly with Boys' Work, Fellowship, at the meeting and stressed the importance of the "World Outlook" feature of the Y's Men. He felt a better name would be "World Service" and pointed out the great need for help in the world today.

Y's George mentioned especially the children of Korea who through no fault of their own suffered starvation and privation beyond imagination and said every effort should be made to send them clothing and food.

President Dick Matheson introduced the speaker and co-chairman Wendell Mutch extended the thanks of the club for his most interesting address.

Y's Fred Small was chairman of the meeting and O. K. Presby and Harvey MacPherson led the singing.

taught properly although there are 17 more teachers employed than in 1933-34. There is something wrong when parents of this City are sending their students to Horton. They have no confidence in our institution and I think this condition must be remedied," he concluded.

Speaking with reference to the Crown Lands, Dr. MacMillan stated recent items in the press would indicate that there had never been any successful efforts in pressing claims at Ottawa in lieu of crown lands.

He stated that this was not correct as on three occasions the Government of Prince Edward Island had received judgments from Ottawa totalling $7,500,000.

Annual Subsidies

"In 1912 Chief Justice Matheson received an annual subsidy of $100,000 while in 1926 through the Duncan Commission we got an annual subsidy of $125,000 or 5% of the judgment of $2,500,000. In 1937 Frank MacEwan and I went before the White Commission and received another annual subsidy of $150,000 or 5% of the judgment of $3,000,000."

He stated that 1930 was the year of the great steal. "That was the year the Federal Government agreed to give the lands of which we were partners to Quebec, Ontario and the Western Provinces."

He charged a member of the Ontario Legislature serving on the White Board had written a report which closed the door on those lands of which Prince Edward Island had been partners with the Dominion Government. "I could never understand that injustice," he stated. "It has cost us a lot of money."

"Look today how much oil is coming out of those lands of Northern Alberta. Alberta has become so rich that she could pay off her debt."

MacMillan pointed out that Manitoba had raised the devil over the crown land issues for years. "They wanted the unassigned lands to the North Pending the decision of the Federal Government they received a subsidy. In the end they got the lands and were told to keep the subsidy. We should all get a share of these lands."

Poor Agreement

"In 1942 the Province entered an agreement with the Federal Government to receive a minimum of $9,000,000. It should have been four or five million. I would never have agreed to that agreement," he stated.

Dr. MacMillan stated that while he was Premier in 1934 he met with Premiers Angus MacDonald of Nova Scotia and Tiley of New Brunswick and as a result of this meeting they forced the Federal Government's hand.

"I feel you have accomplished something in your meeting with Premiers MacDonald and Fleming," he told the Leader of the Government. "Why didn't Premiers McNeil, MacDonald and Jones do something like that?"

Dr. MacMillan stated that present Government should go after their share of the crown lands. "We will make the presentations at the opportune time," replied the Premier.

"The Minister of Public Works and Highway has received a lot of criticism for his handling of the poor road conditions rest with the ex-Premier."

"He fiddled and fooled with the Trans Canada Highway until it is now in its fourth year and we haven't even got the road completed between Charlottetown and Borden."

"I asked him every year to tell us the route from Borden to Charlottetown and he always said 'I don't know.'"

"He didn't think there was any man in the Government good enough to plan for the Trans Canada Highway. Following his usual course of contempt for anyone's judgment but his own he took the responsibility of the Trans Canada Highway and look at the result today."

Work Neglected

In his remarks the Doctor stated there were several men whom he should have mentioned while speaking about the valuable men in the Government Health Departments. These included Dr. Temple Hooper, head of Cancer Clinic; Dr. Frank Jelks and Dr. George Fisher.

He spoke about the work being done to combat cancer and stated "It is generally acknowledged that the role Canada is playing is not bettered by any lent in the City Hospital was $9-60 in 1953," he stated. "Only a handful of the patients are paying there way from a financial standpoint. The Prince Edward Island Hospital is in the same position and the Prince County Hospital is worse off than either of the others."

"For years the problem of a new Treatment Centre at Falconwood was not tackled properly," stated the doctor. "Dr. Murchison has asked for new quarters for the past 15 years and got nowhere. The past Government moved too slowly on the matter. There are three splendid physicians at Falconwood but they have no proper accommodations in which to work."

"The present plans for the new Centre correspond exactly with those made up by three experts back in 1932. I wasn't allowed to go ahead with the building at that time because the plans called for $35,000 expenditures and they said that was too much."

The doctor stated he did not agree that Drs. Theriault and McVicar should be called upon to give their services free of charge to those who could afford to pay. "Physician patients are very difficult to deal with and it takes a long time for their cases to be properly diagnosed. Some people like to be sick and they take up valuable time of doctors. Those who afford it should be made pay in all branches of medical treatment."

Housing Conditions

The Doctor also spoke about the housing problem in the City. "One of our most serious problems in the City is that of housing," he stated. "It is a difficult thing to deal with and it is hard to say what is the proper solution."

"It is quite true that there are people existing in old houses not fit for human habitation. I was health officer in the City for 15 years from 1915-30 and condemned several houses that are still standing today and full of tenants."

R. C. A. F. Ass'n Annual Meeting Held Last Night

Mr. W. Stuart Chandler was elected president of the R.C.A.F. Association at their annual meeting held in the Clover Club last evening when upwards of 80 sat down to a splendid turkey dinner prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion.

Following the toast to the Queen, Mr. Harvey Douglas, M.L.A., expressed his pleasure at having been chosen by Premier Matheson to represent him on this occasion which he found a delightful experience. "Being a former member of the R.C.A.F. I find it easy to fraternize with all of you and recall experiences, sometimes difficult but always memorable," Mr. Douglas said.

Councillor Walthen Gaudet, speaking on behalf of the Mayor, who is vacationing in Florida, and the City Council said he was glad to bring greetings and deemed it a special honour and privilege to be present officially representing the Mayor at such a notable gathering so closely following his election to the Council.

"Being a frequent visitor to your Club I am impressed with the spirit of the Association and the good being perpetuated by you and similar organizations," Mr. Gaudet said. "In laying aside your uniforms you have not forgotten that the occasion may arise at anytime when you traditions will once again become active and effective."

Replying to the toast to the "R.C.A.F.", Ptl. Lieut. H. J. Weeden, representing Group Capt. A. G. Kenyon of the R.C.A.F. Station Summerside, brought greetings and good wishes, and expressed his pleasure at being in attendance at the splendid gathering. He hoped that the Association would continue and expand in the good work they have undertaken.

Officers Elected

The following officers were elected: President, W. S. Chandler; vice-president, Reg. Howard; secretary, Allan MacRae; treasurer, Sinclair MacLeod. Members of the executive: Ray Hughes, Geo. Hood, Ralph Jenkins, Arthur Seaman, Earl Taylor, Farrell Gaudet, Stan McInnis and J. A. Carruthers.

Following the dinner the members and guests assembled at the Association club rooms where the evening was continued with dancing, music being provided by Ding Connolly's orchestra.

Splendid Recruits

"We got a great many splendid recruits from the Air Cadets," Ptl. Weeden said, "and many are now flying in all parts of the world bringing honour and distinction to Canada."

Mr. Stan McInnis, group representative on the national executive, responded to the toast to the "Association". He described its inauguration three years ago by a small group who had very little to offer except an idea and the conviction that it was worthy of pursuing to a conclusion. The movement developed a friendship, and co-operative initiative in giving direction to air cadets, and especially has it kept alive the traditions of which the R.C.A.F. vets are justly proud.

Mr. G. B. Rayner, provincial chairman of the Air Cadet League of Canada spoke of the great help the Association had been in giving instruction and in various other ways identifying themselves with the air cadets in their activities and the development of character and loyalty.

Mrs. Eileen Jenkins in replying to the toast to "The Ladies" thanked the Association for their hospitality on many occasions in their club rooms and said that the ladies were always glad to make their contribution to the success of the organization.

Mr. Stan Bryant, president of the Canadian Legion also spoke briefly, expressing pleasure at being present as representing his organization.

A past president's button was presented to the immediate past president, J. A. Carruthers, who presided throughout the meeting and also to their first president, Mr. Stan McInnis. Another feature of the meeting was the presentation and unveiling of the Association charter by president-elect Stuart Chandler.

Ladies seated at the head table included Mrs. Weeden, Mrs. Carruthers, Mrs. McInnis, and Mrs. Rayner.

Notre Dame Students Present Delightful Comedy

A three-act romantic comedy, "Pride and Prejudice", by Jane Kenell, was presented by the college students of Notre Dame Academy at the auditorium last night under the direction of Sister St. Augustus.

The plot of the play was pleasantly familiar to nearly all members of the audience who recollected the novel on school curriculums—"Pride and Prejudice" by the English novelist, Jane Austen.

Central figure of the middle-class household was the highly excitable mother of five daughters, Mrs. Bennett, who personally was captured with liveliness by Wilma McHugh. Barbara Dalton, in beautiful poise, played the independent daughter, Elizabeth. Others in the cast were Eva Gallant, as the dry-humored husband and father; June Gallant as the gentle daughter, Jane; Norine Gillis as the bookish daughter, Mary; Gertrude Fitzgerald as the fretful daughter; Joyce Callaghan as Lydia, the carefree daughter; Kay Mooney, who played the pompous clergyman; Genevieve Rossler as Mr. Bingley, the wealthy young bachelor; Doreen Reid, as Miss Bingley, a haughty woman; Frances Campbell, who was the proud young man called Mr. Darcy; Eileen McInnis, as Lady Catherine de Bourgh, Darcy's overbearing aunt; Mary McGregor, as Lady Lucas, neighbor to the Bennetts; Eileen O'Halloran, Lady Lucas' plain daughter; Eileen Murray, who played Mr. Wickham, a young officer who elopes with Lydia; and Patricia Hammill as Hill the maid.

With a fine touch of humor arising from the commonplace, the play unfolds the hopes of Mrs. Bennett, living in the eighteenth century, whose greatest desire is to have her daughters well-married. Amidst the swirl of gaily ribbons, bonnets and flouncy long dresses, romance does enter into the household and Mrs. Bennett does everything she can to make sure her dreams materialize.

No sooner does romance enter, does it depart. Mrs. Bennett reacts excitedly until nervous exhaustion collapses her. Her daughters, Jane, Elizabeth and Lydia appear to be ruined. However, through the fine character of Elizabeth's suitor, Mr. Darcy, the marriages of Jane and Lydia are made possible, as well as his own.

The main interest in the play is the romance, although the revealing of character brings much interest and humor to the plot.

part of the civilized world."

"I believe it is only fair and just that the Government pay taxes on the property in Charlottetown to the City. If the Provincial Government does there is no reason why the Federal Government could not do likewise," he said.

Rev. Canon J. E. Sheehy, Rector of Amherst, announced the two hymns for the service, viz 511 "When the Day of God Is Done" and 611, "Let Saints On Earth In Concert Sing. With Those Whose Work Is Done". Rev. G. R. Thompson, Rural Dean and Rector of Truro led in the opening prayers and Psalm 39, and the Rev. Canon R. L. Bent, Rector of Pictou read the Lesson.

Right Reverend Dr. Waterman, Bishop of the Diocese spoke feelingly of the faithful work of the late Archdeacon, but he felt that a long eulogy would be the last thing the deceased would have desired. It was a time for thanksgiving for faithful and good service and for the fellowship and communion of Saints. The Bishop asked
