A NEW steamer to ply between Charlottetown and Belfast has been built by Messrs. Morrison and McKee, of the latter place. She is named the "Zidon," and was brought to town this morning to have the engine now being made by Messrs. McKinnon & McLean put in. She is lying at Pownal wharf.

MR. WALTER DUNBLACK, a section foreman on the I. C. R., was almost instantly killed at Penobscuit, N. B., on Monday, by the transference of a steam shovel falling upon his head. A short time previous to the accident he warned his fellow workmen to look out for danger. He was about 50 years of age and married.

The Rev. John L. Scudder, of Minneapolis, says of bicycling—"A peculiar exhilaration comes from this sport, which cannot be expressed in words, and is best represented by the word 'flying.' The rider feels like a bird, light and airy; for, on a smooth and level road, a slight expenditure of effort carries him forward at a very brisk rate. This life-giving sensation is just what is needed, nervously worn out clergyman needs. It replenishes his elasticity; makes him feel like a boy again; and turns 'blue Monday' into a carnival of delight."

ANOTHER of those interesting events, of which there has already been quite a large number this season, came off in St. Paul's Church at ten o'clock this morning. The contracting parties were Mr. H. P. Wright, and Miss A. W. Smith; the groomsmen Mr. W. J. Jenkins, and the bridesmaid Miss Wright. There were a large number of guests present. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of at the residence of the bride's parents, Cumberland Street. THE EXAMINER extends its congratulations.

The Souris correspondent of THE EXAMINER writing on the 2nd inst., says—"The mackerel fleet was off East Point on Sunday and Monday. The only catch reported is by the schooner Jubilee, which took ninety barrels of First Chapel. On Tuesday morning the fleet stood away towards Margaree. They saw rafts of fish but they do not remain up long enough. There are about one hundred sail in port this evening. The schooner Ada R. Tenny left Malpeque on Monday morning and saw no mackerel between that port and East Point."

The steamer Carroll arrived from Boston at an early hour this morning. Campbell, Mr. J. D. Prindle, Mr. F. Gray, Mrs. G. Geary, Mr. G. Geary, Mrs. J. Rose, Miss Clara C. Hunt, Mrs. John Crosby, Miss Matilda McAdams, Miss M. J. McAdams, Miss Kate Daly, Miss T. McKenna, Miss Maggie Gillis, Miss Annie T. Dougherty, Miss Maguire, Miss Doyle, Miss Constanza (2), Miss Scott, Miss Snow, Miss F. Campbell, Miss B. Looby, Mr. James McKenzie, Mr. J. P. H. Wolger.

MR. JAMES H. BURKE, of the N. W. Mount-Ed Police, writing to THE EXAMINER from Fort Saskatchewan, says: "The crops throughout the Northwest are excellent this year, especially north of Red Deer River, which is, no doubt, as anybody who is acquainted with the Northwest knows, the principal farming part of the country. It is the best part to settle down in, as there is abundance of wood and coal for fuel, which cannot be found in many places south of Red Deer River. This is what makes the northern part more preferable to settlers than the south. Another and just as good point as the aforesaid is that there is abundance of grass and shelter and water for cattle. Now, farmers, if you think of coming to the Northwest Territory, don't settle down until you have seen the northern part of it, namely, the Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan district."
