TO THE VOTERS FOURTH KINGS

Owing to the shortness of time before the Election Date and pressure of business at this season of the year, we regret that it will be impossible to call on each elector personally, as we would like to do. We offer our apologies, and assure you that we will see as many voters as time will allow. We take this opportunity of respectfully soliciting the support of Fourth Kings voters on Election Day.

Notice: Re Third King's Conservative MEETINGS

We the undersigned, duly advised the Conservative candidates several days ago that we were not engaging in joint meetings. These were dropped in our district many years ago. Notwithstanding we are now invited to attend these meetings through the press advertisement. Our position remains unchanged. Our time commitments are made and we have no time to waste attending Conservative meetings.

The "Silly Season"

We are now entering what one sage campaign veteran calls "the silly season". This is the time when Government speakers are likely to drop their gloves and reach for the brass knuckles. It is the time when personal abuse is the best answer to a telling blow on the body politic of a weak, slothful Government.

Somewhere, somehow, our Liberal opponents must find a scapegoat. Someone to blame for their present misery and their present hysterical confusion. "Mad? Who's mad?" No doubt your ears will be filled with nonsense, your eyes will blink at their angry blasts.

Be calm. Be cool. Be wise. Vote Conservative.

Our Liberal friends are anxious to see our platform. The people will see it in plenty of time. But the Liberal Government is running out of time.

Here is a secret for our Liberal friends. The first and foremost plank in our platform calls for Good Government. Some of our opponents will not know what that means so we will tell them.

It means that Ministers of the Crown will do a full day's work. They will be on the job full-time. The people demand it — Good Government will give them that service.

It means Government by the people and for the people — ALL the people. No more family compacts. No nonsense about spending from the public purse. One hundred cents of value for every dollar spent.

Good Government means the people will not fear their Government. They will speak freely and vote freely without fear or favour.

Good Government will not boast — it will not coast. We in the Conservative Party say there is much to be done to help the less fortunate, to encourage the younger people, to assist our older citizens. Anyone with eyes to see knows that.

But a Party too long in power cannot see. They are all-wise and all-perfect. It is time they were out. We have nothing to lose but their claims.

GO AHEAD!

Vote Conservative on May 25th!
