

SEE POSSIBILITY OF PERJURY IN MCCARTHY INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senators investigating the McCarthy-army controversy decided unanimously today to send a transcript of the hearings to the justice department—a step ordinarily taken when there are questions of perjury or other possible law violations.

Senator John McClellan Dem.-Ark moved that the transcript go to the justice department "for such attention and consideration as it may merit."

Immediately afterwards, Senator Stuart Symington, Dem.-Mo. read a statement claiming there had been a violation of law by whoever gave Senator Joseph McCarthy material from an FBI report relating to security risks at Ft. Monmouth, N.J., an army radar centre.

Symington spoke of the material, which McCarthy had brought into the hearing, as "this fraudulent letter."

OBSTRUCTION CHARGED

McCarthy retorted that Symington and Senator Henry Jackson Dem.-Wash. were attempting to obstruct the routing of Communist out of the government.

McCarthy said Symington and

Jackson are "part of a secret effort" to obstruct the committee. Symington had said someone was "absolutely guilty" of giving secret information "to someone not authorized to see it," an obvious reference to McCarthy's getting the material from the FBI report.

Symington repeated that the letter brought out by McCarthy was "fraudulent" in that the information had been altered to make it appear as a letter when it was not. He said he did not question whether the facts in the paper were accurate.

Symington said every effort should be made to find out who gave McCarthy the information from the FBI report.

Army Secretary Robert Stevens later resumed the witness seat and read a statement from FBI director Edgar Hoover praising army co-operation with the FBI. Stevens said he had talked with Hoover this morning and that Hoover authorized the statement.

McCarthy has charged that the army ignored repeated FBI warnings about the danger of sabotage or espionage in the army radar laboratory at Monmouth.

said the plan proposes regional armistices throughout Indo-China which would be internationally supervised and guaranteed. This would leave the Communist-led Vietminh in control of areas they now hold pending elections to be held 18 months to two years after the end of hostilities.

Gives Cabinet's View on Strasser

OTTAWA, (CP)—R. A. MacKay, deputy external affairs minister, said Wednesday Otto Strasser was "not the type of person we would want to fool around with a Canadian travel document."

He was replying to Howard Green PC—Vancouver-Quadra who asked in the Commons external affairs committee for further reasons why the government had refused to grant Strasser a certificate of identity for four years.

Last week, Mr. MacKay told the committee the certificate was denied Strasser at the request of the Allied High Commission in Germany. Strasser broke with Hitler in the 1930s and fled abroad for political asylum. He has been living in Nova Scotia for 13 years.

Mr. MacKay added last week that there were other reasons for refusing Strasser a certificate until Jan 6 this year. Strasser made his first application for a certificate in 1950.

Mr. Green asked when the Allied High Commission had lifted the ban on Strasser. Philippe Piarard L—Bellevue, committee chairman, said Mr. Green's questions involved government policy and that Mr. MacKay, as a civil servant, was not required to reply.

Geneva Scene Brightened

GENEVA (Reuters) — Prospects for Korea and Indo-China settlement brightened today with fresh moves made behind doors of the 19-nation Far East conference here.

South Korea was reported to have agreed in principle on Korea-wide elections under United Nations supervision. President Syngman Rhee's government had previously held out for elections in North Korea only.

But a South Korean source said Rhee's government will still seek UN-supervised elections in North Korea before nationwide elections are held to determine the country's future government. The source said South Korea in addition will insist on the withdrawal of all Chinese Communist troops before the all-Korean elections.

Diplomatic sources also said that senior delegates of the three major Western powers this morning discussed a new French plan for ending the Indo-China war. They

Richmond and Vicinity

Miss Jean McDonald, Charlottetown, spent the weekend in Richmond.

Friends are glad to welcome back to her home in Richmond, Mrs. Mary Currie, who spent the winter months in Halifax.

Cpl and Mrs. Bob MacNeill and young son, John, arrived home from Trenton, Ont., by car on Sunday, April 25 to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. James McNeil and Mr. and Mrs. James R. McNeill.

Mrs. Herman MacArthur (nee Emma Gaudet), and young son, Douglas, left by plane on Tuesday, April 27 to return to their home in Hamilton, Ont., after spending some time visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gaudet, Richmond.

Friends were very sorry to learn of the misfortune suffered by Mr. Junior Bridges. It is reported that, when wrestling in play with a brother, he broke an ankle, and will be wearing a cast for some time. All wish Junior as speedy a recovery as possible and all hope the convalescent period will pass quickly for him.

The Wellington Dramatic Players presented their three-act comedy "Meet My Wives" to a large audience in Wellington Station Hall on Friday, April 30. In the absence of Mrs. Elizabeth Bolger, who played the part of Mrs. Thurston Thwacker, Mrs. John E. Cameron filled in for her and deserves credit for doing so well on such short notice.

Mrs. George Rawlwick (nee Iris Brown) and three daughters arrived home by train on Friday, April 30 to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, Bay-side. Mrs. Rawlwick was living at Fort Smith, N.W.T., where George was stationed with the Army but was recently posted to Alberta where they will reside on their return.

The people of Richmond were sorry to learn that Mrs. Emma Larkin, formerly of Richmond, and now residing in Ottawa, has recently entered a sanatorium for treatment and all wish her a very speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gillis, Bay-side, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ebbra Fraught, Richmond, motored to Charlottetown on Saturday, May 1. They also visited Rev. Father Urban Gillis at Vernon

River and Mrs. Priscilla McDonald
