IN MEMORIAM

COSTELLO—In fond and loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Peter Costello, who departed this world on October 9th, 1949.

Sadly missed and always remembered by husband and family.

BUELL—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. L. A. Buell, who passed away October 7th, 1950.

This only a grave, but it still needs care. For the mother we love, is sleeping there. Her loving smile, her welcome face. No one can fill her vacant place.

She lives with us in memory still. Not just today, but always will. She was a wonderful wife and mother.

She played life's bottles square. No matter when we needed her. We always found her there.

So on this day our hearts go out. To the dearest and best of mothers.

Who never had time to think of herself. But always thought of others. Always remembered by husband and family.

MCCAUGHY—In loving memory of our dear father who passed away Oct. 9, 1941.

Through the Valley of the Shadow Down the road we all must tread. One we loved has gone before us. And now waits for us ahead.

Sadly Missed by Sons and Daughters.

JEWELL—In loving memory of our dear Aunt, Mrs. Margaret Jewell, who passed away October 9, 1955, at 4 Thompson Street, Concord, N.H.

A year of striving, little play. Loving and giving all the way. A cheery smile, a heart of gold. To the dearest aunt, the world could hold.

Fondly remembered by her three nieces, Janie, Elise and Bertha.

CARD OF THANKS

The New Haven Women's Institute extend their thanks to all those who donated food and helped in any way to make their recent supper a success.

IN MEMORIAM

MILICENT AGNES MacISAAC
A sad gloom was cast over Milo and surrounding districts, when it became known that Millicent Agnes, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Blanchard MacIsaac had passed away at the early age of 10 years and 5 months.

Millicent, who was born in Edinburgh, Scotland on March 24th, 1946, came with her parents to P.E.I. at the age of 5 months.

She had attended school, as usual, August 31st, but at 5 p.m. was suddenly stricken with cerebral hemorrhage.

Dr. C. Dewar of O'Leary, was quickly summoned and she was taken to P.C. Hospital but she never regained consciousness and passed away on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1st.

Left to mourn her passing are her sorrowing parents, two sisters Marag and Marlene, two brothers, Billy and Allan and her grandfather Mr. Pryde, in Scotland.

The funeral which was largely attended was held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the residence of her parents and was conducted by Rev. J. Heber Kean of United Church Charge, O'Leary, who brought a very comforting message to the bereaved.

A favorite hymn of the deceased, "Jesus Love Me" was sung by the pupils of Milo Sabbath School of which Millicent was a regular attendant. Other selections were "When He Cometh" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus".

At the grave a special number "I think when I read that Sweet Story" was beautifully rendered by a male quartette of Milo. Pall bearers were all school mates of the departed namely: Elmer MacDonald, Evan Harris, Clifford McNevin, Everett MacNevin, William Wedlock and Harold MacLean.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and were carried by fifteen of her sorrowing play-mates.

Interment was in Milo Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Mr. Claude Jolley, O'Leary. The sincere sympathy of all with the family in their sudden and sad bereavement.
