Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Green, Pointe-a-Pierre, Trinidad, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. MacDonald and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. MacNutt at Malpeque during the weekend.

The annual bazaar sponsored by the ladies of St. Peter's Church was held in the Curling Clubroom Saturday afternoon. In charge of selling were Miss Maud Dyer, Mrs. W. R. Oulton, Mrs. W. J. Phillips, Mrs. R. M. Dunn, Mrs. Clayton Travers and Mrs. J. R. McMahon.

A post nuptial shower for Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Pridham, (nee Marion Hardy), was held at the home of Mrs. LeBert Pridham Monday evening, with Mrs. Alvin Wilkie and Mrs. Henry Oliver as assistant hostesses. About ninety friends from South Kildare, Montrose and Alma assembled. The bride was assisted in opening the gifts by the Misses Marion Barbour and Eleanor Ramsay. Following a happy social hour, refreshments were served and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

The Daffodil Mission Band met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Green, Friday afternoon. The retiring president, Belle Wilkie, presided. Fourteen members and three visitors were present. A Life Membership certificate and pin were presented to David Morrell. The Christmas worship service was led by Belle Wilkie and the mission study was led by Mrs. Green. The next meeting will be in the church hall with Lily Beth Clarke in charge of the worship. The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Frances Currie; Vice-president—Dorothy MacNevin; Secretary—Belle Wilkie; Treasurer—Lona Hunter. These officers will be installed at the January meeting.

A Scout Group Committee course was held in the W. I. Hall, Monday and Tuesday evenings. In attendance were Mr. Gordon Kerr, Executive Commissioner for Prince Edward Island, and Scoutmasters, Clubmasters and Committees from O'Leary, Tignish and Alberton. At the Monday session, Mr. Kerr addressed the gathering on the History and Development of Scouting and on the Scout Organization. There were also two demonstrations. Demonstration of a Boy Scout Troop meeting was given under direction of assistant Scoutmaster Gordon Coffin of Alberton and the O'Leary Group Committee gave a demonstration of a Group Committee meeting. Tuesday evening was devoted to lectures in which Mr. Kerr dealt with "The Group Committee at Work" and "Plan Achievement". Scoutmaster Keefe of Alberton spoke on "Group Sponsorship" and Scoutmaster Douglas Hardy, of O'Leary dealt with "Group Spirit."

The December meeting of the Alberton sub-division of the C. W. L. was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Callaghan. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. W. E. Monaghan. Fifteen members responded to the roll call. The treasurer reported $46.30 on hand. Christmas gift boxes will be sent as in previous years. The Committee in charge of them will be Mrs. Michael Ahearn, Mrs. Edwin MacDonald and Miss Maud O'Connor. It was decided to send a Christmas box to St. Vincent's Orphanage. It will be packed by Mrs. Edwin MacDonald and Mrs. A. J. Bernard. It was requested that good used clothing and toys be left at the home of Mrs. Bernard not later than December 20. It was decided to have a question box at the next meeting. Mrs. J. A. Callaghan invited the members to meet at her home again in January. The roll call will be answered by the name of a Canadian author. Mrs. Michael Ahearn will be assistant hostess. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Edwin MacDonald and Mrs. Everett Shea.

Mrs. J. C. Matthews was hostess to the United Church Guild Monday evening. Opening worship was led by Mrs. H. D. Corbett. Minutes of the last regular meeting and of a special meeting, at which it was decided to order new collars for the choir gowns, were read and approved. Eighteen members answered the roll call. The Visiting Committee, Mrs. J. C. Matthews and Mrs. O. R. S. Leard reported eight hospital and seven home calls. The treasurer reported $71.21 on hand. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Beth Waugh with Mrs. R. E. MacDonald as joint hostess. Mrs. Wilkie will have charge of the program. Mrs. Herbert Matthews and Mrs. Fitzpatrick will be on the Visiting Committee for December. On motion it was decided that fifty dollars be given into the congregational funds. Plans were made for the bazaar to be held on Saturday afternoon in the Curling Clubroom. Two sunshine boxes are to be packed. The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Mrs. Arthur Wilkie; Vice-president—Mrs. Cedric Hunter; Secretary—Mrs. Frank Weeks; Treasurer—Miss Helen Hardy. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Herbert Matthews.

The Alberton Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. R. Oulton Friday evening with fifteen ladies in attendance. Mrs. C. H. Weeks presided. The roll call was answered with the name of a protective food. Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Oulton, reporting for the School Committee, said that the radio is now being used in the school and that the blackboard in the vice-principal's room has been painted. Consideration is being given to converting the fifth room in the school into a playroom. The new school committee will consult with the school board on this matter. The Visiting Committee reported eleven hospital and three home calls. The

The Christmas meeting of the Alberton Auxiliary of the W. M. S. held in the United Church Hall, Tuesday afternoon, was opened with prayer by the president, Mrs. A. C. Green, and a solo by Mrs. John Wells. Twenty members were present. Letters from the Presbyterian President, Mrs. J. D. MacDonald, and the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Cutcliffe, were read. The latter contained information about the Presbyterial which will meet in Summerside in January. The matter of nominating Presbyterial officers was left to the Executive. Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick volunteered to be Hall hostess for the January meeting when worship will be led by Mrs. C. H. Weeks and the study by Mrs. Charles Johnston. The Supply Secretary, Mrs. Hunter Weeks, reported that about two hundred pounds of good used clothing had been forwarded to Toronto for shipment to Korea. The report of the Nominating Committee was read by Mrs. Gordon Hardy and, on motion, adopted. Officers for the coming year will be: Hon. President—Mrs. G. C. Gordon; President—Mrs. A. C. Green; First Vice-president—Mrs. C. H. Weeks; Second Vice-president—Mrs. George Ramsay; Recording Secretary—Miss Annie Leard; Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Underhill Coughlin.

Treasurer—Mrs. James Hodgson. Mission Band Leaders—Mrs. A. C. Green and Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick. Baby Band Leaders—Mrs. Alvin Bell and Mrs. Fred Leard. Christian Stewardship Secretary—Mrs. William Aubrey. Secretary of Temperance and Christian Citizenship—Mrs. Gordon Coffin. Associate Members Secretary—Mrs. Charles Johnston. Literature Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Waugh. Missionary Monthly Secretary—Mrs. Heber Hardy. Community Friendship Secretary—Mrs. Jesse Matthews. Supply Secretary—Mrs. Hunter Weeks. Press Secretary—Mrs. Fred Leard. The beautiful candle-lighting service was conducted by Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Green, Mrs. Charles Johnston, Mrs. Gordon Coffin, Mrs. C. H. Weeks, Mrs. George Ramsay and Mrs. John H. Wells. Five lighted candles about the worship centre represented five gifts brought to the world by Christ—joy, love, light, peace and hope.

With a little assist from the side, teeth. The horse is one of thousands of farm animals in northern Greece that will benefit from new mammoth job of smoothing down some rough edges on the horse's Marshall plan aid.
