IN MEMORIAM

KEITH VERNON McDONALD

The residents of Morell and vicinity were saddened and shocked to hear of the sudden death of Keith Vernon McDonald, son of Mrs. Nellie McDonald and the late Vernon McDonald which occurred January 9th, 1950, at the early age of 13 years.

Buddy as he was familiarly known was a very cheerful and lovable child, which endeared him to his family, classmates and all those who knew him.

The last Sacraments were administered by his pastor, Rev. Phelan McKenna, who did much to enlighten the heavy burden of sorrow of his grief stricken mother and family.

Besides his mother there are left to mourn one brother Stephen and one sister Joan, also his uncle Frank with whom the family made their home since the death of his father, nine years ago.

His funeral which took place on January 11th, to St. Lawrence Church, Morell, was very largely attended.

A Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Phelan McKenna, who also conducted services at the grave, after which his mortal remains were laid to rest to await a glorious resurrection.

The pallbearers were:—Dunstan Dunphy, Leonard Runnighan, Wilfred Hogan, Albert Wilson, Philip Cullen and George Cullen. Honorary pallbearers were:—Axle Keefe, Sterling Keefe, Joseph Ryan, Hubert McEwen, Norman Kane and Deano Connolly.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. McDonald and Family wish to thank all those who assisted in any way during their sad bereavement; also to those who sent Mass Cards and Messages of Sympathy.

WHIM ROAD AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stewart and children, Joan and Alan, were week-end visitors to Heatherdale and Murray Harbour.

Miss Jessie MacGowan, Kilmuir, has been ill at her home for the past week. It is hoped she will soon be well again.

Miss Ruby MacLeod of the teaching staff of Montague Memorial High School spent the weekend at Whim Road with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod.

In order to increase their funds, the members of Albion W. I. presented a concert in Sturgeon Hall and again in Lower Montague Hall on Friday night, February 10th. A good crowd was in attendance at both these concerts.

The young people of Kilmuir district are showing a keen interest in the singing school which is being held every Friday evening under the direction of Mr. L. W. MacKinnon. As Mr. MacKinnon has had considerable experience in this work, his efforts are greatly appreciated by all who take part.

The regular weekly meeting of the Kilmuir Christian Endeavour Society was held on Sunday evening, February 12th with an attendance of twenty. "Youth's Part in Meeting Human Needs" was the topic, and was explained in the "Christian Endeavour World", and indicated the many ways in which a group of young people may help to improve community living and assist those in need. The scripture lesson (Matt. 25:34-36; and Timothy 4:12) was read by their leaders, Miss Eleanor MacKinnon. Others assisting were Mr. J. K. MacDonald, Mr. W. L. MacPherson, Mr. B. Beaton and Miss Florence MacKinnon. The organist was Mrs. W. E. McKenna. Hymns sung were: "He Leadeth Me", "Rescue the Perishing", "The Great Physician" and "Blest Be The Tie That Binds". An invitation from the Valleyfield Young People's Society to attend a Valentine social evening on the following Tuesday, was gladly accepted by all and plans for transportation were made. At the close of the meeting all remained for the much enjoyed sing-song which is a regular feature at these meetings. Miss Eleanor MacKinnon was the organist.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM G. WALSH

The death occurred shortly after entering the Charlottetown Hospital on November 30th, of William G. Walsh of Cardigan. In failing health for a few months previous his passing came about one month after reaching his 72nd year.

Besides a wide circle of friends he will be mourned by his wife Ida and one son Henry, both of whom reside on the homestead. Two sons Daniel and Alan, and one daughter Mary (Mrs. James Cronin), predeceased him.

The funeral took place from All Saints Church at Cardigan, on December 3rd, with Father Harold Croken, P. P., celebrating Requiem Mass and conducting the service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Henry Craswell, Jack Webster, Murdoch MacDonald, John McEwen, William Redmond and Joseph Quinn.

IN MEMORIAM

FREDA FLORENCE FORD

There passed away in the Prince Edward Hospital on January 4th, Freda Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ford of Oyster Bed Bridge at the early age of 12 years.

She had entered the Hospital about a month prior to her death for treatment for burns and all that medical skill and kind nursing could do, could not stay the hand of death, and her spirit took its flight on the above date.

Freda was a favorite with young and old alike and had many friends. She will be greatly missed by her little playmates at school, but it is in the home, where her loss will be more keenly felt. The sympathy of the whole community go out to her parents, brothers and sisters in their sad bereavement.

She leaves to mourn besides her parents, three brothers and three sisters, namely, Winston, Floyd, Fulton, Ruby, Sheila and Sandra. The funeral which was largely attended was held from her home on Friday, January 6th, the service was conducted by Rev. J. R. Skinner of Winsloe, the burial in North Winsloe Cemetery.

Following were the pallbearers: Fred Ford, Leonard Ford, Eric Carr, Gene Gallant, Benj. Ford and Arthur Peters.

Wreaths—Grandma, Clayton, Grandma, Lois, Boys, Uncle Len and Aunt Ivy and Anne. Aunt Georgina and Ben. Aunt Grace and Leonard. Aunt Lillian, Uncle Fred and boys. Oyster Bed Bridge Women's Institute. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell McQuarrie Teacher, Pupils of Wheatley School.
