To THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTETOWN AND ROYALTY.

GENTLEMEN;

HONOURED by a Requisition so numerous and respectfully signed as that which has this day been presented to me, requesting that I would allow my name to be put in nomination as a Candidate at the ensuing Election for Charlottetown and Royalty, I hasten to comply with the wishes of my friends, though I assure them and the Electors generally, that the distinguished compliment was unlooked for and unmerited. Content with the humble sphere in which Providence has placed me, I have been always willing and ready to employ all the influence I possessed in advocating those broad and liberal principles which I believe to be calculated to develop the resources of this young Colony, and to secure to its inhabitants a wise, just and impartial administration of its Government. But I beg to assure you, gentlemen, I entertained on the present occasion, no ambition to go beyond that sphere, and occupy a position in the Legislature which could not fail to be more ably filled by another reflecting your views and opinions, yet I feel that I should be wanting in respect to myself and to those who have been kind enough to honour me with their countenance and confidence, if I continued to decline their invitation.

My political principles, I believe, are known to many of you. Suffice it to say, that, if returned, I shall be found upon all occasions to vote for the general interests of the Colony, and for those of my constituents particularly; and I feel confident you will have no reason to question my integrity and consistency. If not returned, I shall be fully satisfied to resume my present private position; but in either case, I will long remember with gratitude the manifestation of respect and confidence with which I have been favored.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

W. W. LORD.
