

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN ALFRED McCORMACK

There passed away in Charlottetown on May 20, 1952, an old and highly respected citizen of Georgetown in the person of Mrs. John Alfred McCormack in her eighty-fourth year.

Her married life was spent in Georgetown until the death of her husband who predeceased her twenty-nine years ago. She then moved to Boston, Mass., where she lived with her two daughters for several years. In 1939 she returned to the Island to take up residence in the Sacred Heart Home until the time of her death. The desire to be near her two daughters who are members of the religious Community of the Order of St. Martha urged her to spend her remaining years at the Home in Charlottetown. The late Mrs. McCormack was in ailing health for the past year. All that kind medical and nursing care could do was done to alleviate her sufferings but she finally succumbed to sickness and passed away on Tuesday, May 20, 1952. She will be remembered by her many friends for her kind spirit of hospitality and sincere friendship for those who knew and loved her well.

She leaves to mourn four daughters and two sons: Adeline, Mrs. F. J. Kelly, Dorchester, Mass.; Patricia, Mrs. H. C. Rodday, Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Sister M. James and Sister Joseph Agatha of the Order of Sisters of St. Martha, Charlottetown; James L., Omaha, Nebraska; and Alfred D., New Glasgow, N. S.; one sister, Mrs. David Drinkwater, Charlottetown, Mass.; also a brother, John J. Campbell, Newport, P. E. I.

A Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for her 54th Mssr. M. MacDonald as celebrant, Father G. MacDonald and Father R. Ellsworth as deacon and sub-deacon of the Mass. Father G. MacDonald also officiated at the grave. Present also in the sanctuary were Mssr. R. MacKenzie, Father J. Sullivan of the College staff and Father B. MacDonald of St. George's.

The pallbearers were: Dr. W. H. Soper, Urtas MacDonald, Ronald MacDonald, Winnie MacKinnon, Frank Sigsworth and Jerome Gillis.

The large number of Mass cards, spiritual bouquets and messages of sympathy were distinct evidence of how well she was known and loved. May her soul rest in peace.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. John Alfred McCormack wish to thank Mssr. M. MacDonald, Father B. Gillis, the Sisters of the Sacred Heart Home and all kind friends for their many acts of kindness during her illness and death, also all those who sent Mass cards, spiritual bouquets and messages of sympathy.

Reds Sentence Two More Canadian Nuns To Prison Terms

Two more Canadian Roman Catholic nuns, Sister Veronique, left of Coaticook, Que., and Sister Raymond-Marie of Ham Nord, Que., have been sentenced to prison in China on charges of causing the deaths of orphans left in their care. Sister Raymond was sentenced to three years and Sister Veronique to two years by a "people's court" at Kweichow. Arrested by Communist police on Sept. 12, they were later placed under house arrest at the Catholic orphanage in Kweiyang where Sister Raymond was the superior and Sister Veronique her assistant. Imprisonment brought the number of foreign Catholic nuns jailed in China to nine-four of them Canadians.

YOU TWO WOULD PUT A BARREL WITH ONE BEAN IN IT IN COLD STORAGE TO SAVE WASHING IT!' Another woman replies, 'AND THIS TOO, MA-OF COURSE!' and a third says, 'YOU WANNA SAVE THIS MA, DON'T YOU?' Below the cartoon is the text 'WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY' and 'By J. R. Williams'.

Bristol and Vicinity

The weekend holiday brought one bad accident to this vicinity when a car driven by a Mr. Robbins, enroute to the City late Saturday night, crashed into a horse near the school at St. Peter's Lake. The horse, the property of John A. McAdam, wandered out of the pasture nearby and onto the road, crossing in front of Mr. Robbins' car. The horse was killed and the car badly smashed in the front and the windshield broken.

His many friends here learned with regret on Sunday, May 25th of the death in the Charlottetown Hospital of Mr. Joe Baird in his 49th year. He spent much of his time here where a brother, Philip, resides. A sister, Catharine, Mrs. Plus McCarthy, resides at Mount Stewart.

Mr. Everett Laybolt, who lost his house in a serious fire a few weeks ago, has moved another building to a lot near his old home and will convert it into a residence.

Mr. H. S. McEwen, local merchant here, decided Saturday was no day to close his store so he remained open on the holiday and closed on Monday. The other village stores were closed on the 24th.

Mr. Stannis Lappers, one of the oldest retired fishermen, answered the call of the sea recently and spent a day fishing.

A slight fire in the village bakery recently was put out by the firemen before any damage was done. It will be remembered this same building was burned two years ago when it was used for a restaurant, and a pan of burning fat started the blaze.

Several men spent Monday, May 26th getting the Little Flower Cemetery in fine looking shape.

Mr. Buddy Kelly was a business visitor to the City on Monday, May 26th.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. Joseph McInnis, retired C. N. R. foreman here was rushed to the Charlottetown Hospital on Thursday evening, May 15th, where he underwent an emergency operation. Mr. McInnis was helping some fishermen load crates of lobsters at the Red Head shore at the time of the accident. He was rushed to the city where his condition at this writing is reported as satisfactory.

We learn from the fishermen here that the lobster season is a failure and catches are reported as around one hundred and fifty pounds per day to a boat. It looks like a very bad season here at least.

Miss May McInnis has arrived from Toronto to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McInnis.

The dance in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday, May 14th, was well attended with some coming from the city. A city orchestra supplied the music for the special event.

Despite the cold weather and scarcity of trout there are a lot of anglers around the Jordan pond and streams here, better known as the old Bristol mill dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walsh, Mrs. Edward Henneberry, and Mrs. Ed Ryan were in the city on Friday night to "Meet The O'Brien's" at the Holy Redeemer Community Center. They missed the play in March and grasped the chance to see it on its final appearance.

Owing to the cold spring Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien and family have not taken up residence in their summer home here yet. They had planned on being here on May 1st but the backward weather will keep them in the city until June 1st.

Mrs. Louis Kelly was a business visitor to the City recently and spent some time with her daughter who is a teaching sister at St. Joseph's Convent.

Mrs. Robert Ballanger left here recently with her four children for Northern Ontario, to reside where her husband is stationed with the Canadian Army Corps.

Mrs. Charles Mosher, Sr. who was in the P. E. Island Hospital for some time after she suffered a severe stroke, has gone to the village of Morell to reside with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Blaxland.

We understand that no regular minister has been accepted for the Bristol United Church here following the transfer of Mr. Mercer some time ago. This charge also includes Mount Stewart.

Mr. James Gunn was a recent business visitor to the city. Like so many more of our hard-working fishermen and farmers he has retired from the shore.

Our smart old lady, Mrs. Bill Conohan, who is well over eighty years young was in the city last week for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Daveaux. Mrs. Conohan is hale and hearty and very smart despite her age, and has never needed glasses.

We learn from the telephone office here that the office is open day and night now. We might add that this central office was always open before the new rules as Mrs. Kelly never refused any one any hour of the day or night. Credit should be given her for the finest of service for so many years.

ing new about the values they contain, but over the years we have lost sight of the nutritional value of such items. So if your neighbor suddenly decides to swallow tablespoonfuls of molasses, let him enjoy his fad in peace. After all he is getting a great deal of iron that way—more than he would possibly, if the molasses were mixed up in cakes or cookies.

3. Wednesday: If you have what used to be called "company china" (you know the extra set of dishes used only on special occasions) you should use plastic covers to keep stacks of serving plates, saucers and even platters free from dust. You'll have no pre-entertainment dishwashing. Saves a lot of wear and tear on the nerves—on the china too!

4. Thursday: Abraham Lincoln was confronted one afternoon by a rather large woman, who was quite prominent in society. "Mr. President," she began in a tone that indicated she was not accustomed to taking "no" for an answer, "you must give me a colonel's commission for my son. I demand it, not as a favor but as a right!" Then she recounted her family's past deeds.

"My grandfather fought at Lexington," she said. "My uncle was the only man who did not run away at Bladensburg. My father fought at New Orleans and my dear husband was killed at Montevideo."

"Perhaps, madam," Lincoln said softly, "your family has done enough for the country. It is time to give somebody else a chance."

5. Friday: One bowl and a wee bit of mixing will make this Mushroom Salmon Loaf. Combine 2 cups salmon, flaked, 1 1/2 cups dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup minced green pepper, 2 eggs, slightly beaten, 1 can (1 1/4 cups) cream of mushroom soup. Mix lightly. Pack firmly into a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about one hour or until done. Turn out on a warm platter. Serve with mushroom sauce, made thus: Heat a can of cream of mushroom soup with 1/4 cup milk, stirring constantly. Pour over salmon loaf or serve as a side dish.

6. Saturday: Over fifty years ago a young lady wrote to a magazine asking, "Is the newspaper office the place for a girl?" Thirty-nine out of forty-two newspaper women said "Positively no!" They said it was unwholesome, nerve-wracking, disagreeable and unrefined. One newspaperman said "I would rather see my daughter starve," and another said, "young womanhood is too sweet and sacred a thing to bring to a newspaper office."—Quite a change from nowadays!

7. Sunday: St. Francis of Assisi said, "Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life." That's all for this week. In the meantime keep remembering God promises a safe landing, but not a "in passage."

Truman Welcomes Premier Over From 'Down Under'

President Truman is seen welcoming Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies at left, to the White House following his recent arrival in Washington, D. C. Following top-level military and economic talks in U. S. capital and later in London, Eng., the Australian premier will return to this continent for a visit to Canada.

IVY JR. RED CROSS

The Ivy Junior Red Cross meeting was held by the Whim Road School pupils on Friday afternoon, May 30th. There were sixteen members present to answer roll call by preparing something for the Empire Day program. As the meeting was held on Red Cross Day, each member donated a penny towards the Greek Relief Fund, to be used in buying school books for the Greek children.

The president, Edith MacDonnell, was in the chair, with the secretary, Lona MacDonald, reading the minutes of the previous meeting and attending to the business of the meeting. No new business was transacted. The Red Cross newsletter was read to the members. Committees appointed were as follows: Health, Jean Ann Munro and John Clary (re-appointed); sick, Donnie Munro and Brian MacBeth (re-appointed); water, Bob Stuart and Vernon Nicholson; tidiness, Donnie Munro and John Clary; program, Betty MacBeth and Edith MacDonald (re-appointed); police, Lona MacDonald and Cameron Munro. Tickets on an article for a penny sale were sold by John Clary with the lucky ticket being held by Vernon Nicholson. The meeting adjourned in the usual manner.
