Closing Exercises Tignish Convent

The annual Commencement Exercises of the Tignish High School were held on Thursday evening, June 12th at eight o'clock in St. Mary's Hall, Tignish, with an overcrowded audience of parents and friends from far and near.

In a very dignified manner the seven young lady graduates clad in white cap and gown and the four young men in dark coats and light trousers gracefully entered the hall and proceeded up the middle aisle to their places on the beautifully decorated stage while Haydn's Professional March was played. Seated below the stage were the other High School pupils of Grade VIII, IX, and X.

Miss Wilma Jenkins, in her salutatory, very warmly welcomed the members of the vast audience. A chorus, "To Our High School" was then beautifully rendered in three parts. This was followed by a cantata "Echoes of Our School Year" in which the graduates individually meeting of the St. Mark's Anglican Guild of Kensington, of which she has been president. The event was held at the Margate summer home of Mrs. Oliver Profit who made the presentation and voiced the regret of the meeting that Mrs. Holman is to live elsewhere.

June 8th week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Adams, Burlington, were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Duncan, and the former's sister, Mrs. Murray Brookes and daughter, Betty all of Saint John, N. B. Mr. Duncan, who is a brother of Mrs. Adams, is a former resident of Burlington and O'Leary, and he and Mrs. Duncan, the former Marion Dimock of Saint John, were married on May 1st in that city. Other guests at the Adams home on Sunday were Mrs. Adams' sisters, Mrs. Alvah Jelley and Mr. Jelley of O'Leary and Mrs. Edgar Brown and Mr. Brown of Summerside. Other relatives visited by Mr. Duncan and party before returning to Saint John on Monday, were his sister, Mrs. Howard Livingston of Summerside and his niece, Mrs. Layton Profit and Mr. Profit at Burlington.

showed their appreciation to their Alma Mater, whose part was played by Miss Irene Richard. Miss Jeanette Gaudet took the role of the Guardian Angel. The students of the graduation class then sang: "Farewell, Alma Mater", and the High School diplomas and awards were distributed.

The valedictory was delivered in a very impressive and eloquent manner by Henry Gaudet who took as his theme, "A Christian Life".

Address To Graduates Mr. Leo P. McIsaac of the Federation of Agriculture addressed the graduates with a most interesting and marvelous talk on "Why Education?"

After complimentary remarks were passed and congratulations were extended to the graduates by the chairman, Reverend Father J. A. MacDonald, pastor, by Reverend Denis Gallant, curate, and by Mr. Wilson Shea of the Tignish Fisheries. The happy evening was brought to a close by "God Save The Queen."
