BEER BROS. for Dress Goods.
L. O. A.—Regular meeting of Boyne Lodge tonight, at 8 o'clock. A full meeting is urgently requested.

POISONING DOGS—A good many dogs have lately been poisoned in Summerside, including one belonging to Judge McLeod.

I. O. O. F.—Wildy Lodge meets to-night. A full attendance of both Lodges is requested, as there is important business to transact.

FREIGHT FOR CRAPAUD.—The steamer Jacques Cartier will receive freight at Pownal wharf today and tomorrow for Crapaud. She will sail early Saturday morning and make two return trips to Crapaud that day.

SCOTT ACT.—At Montague, a day or two ago, Mrs. McPhee and Mrs. Edward Campbell were each fined $50 and costs. A case against J. G. Scrimgeour, Cardigan, was adjourned, and the summons against Frank Robertson was dismissed.

WHERE ROADS ARE BAD.—An Albert county man, who drove into town yesterday was asked how the roads were. His reply was that they were so bad that his dog, which followed him, preferred to ford the river rather than use the road.—Moncton Times

TRAGIC ELECTION INCIDENT.—A St. Hyacinth despatch says: A tragic episode of nomination day was the death of Maurice St. Jacques, the Liberal candidate, at three p. m. yesterday. As his end was known to be approaching, Major Dessanier, received the nomination in his place.

A FINE LEDGER.—We notice in the window of J. D. Taylor, printer and book-binder, Queen Street, a handsome ledger of 1,200 pages, made for the firm of Matthew & McLean, Souris. It is an excellent piece of workmanship and reflects credit on the ability of Mr. Taylor as a binder. Anyone wanting anything in that line should call and see it before it leaves for the east.

LOST HIS MONEY.—The Boston Globe says: Daniel Frazer, a recent arrival from Prince Edward Island, chartered a herd on Saturday and started out to see the sights, and to have a good time in general. His day's outing came to a finish at 8 o'clock in the evening, when he stepped up to the lieutenant's desk at the Hanover street police station, in a slightly inebriated condition and reported that he had been robbed of $40 in gold. He accused James Brady, the herdic driver, and today will formally charge him with the larceny of the money. Brady is under arrest.

KINDERGARTEN HALL.—Kindergarten Hall was filled last evening to witness the closing exercises of Miss Macdonald's classes in physical culture. The various numbers on the interesting programme were carried out in a manner which reflected the greatest credit upon all concerned, and the way in which the little ones performed their parts speaks well for Miss Macdonald's skill as a teacher. The work of the physical culture class was cleverly performed, and called forth admiration from the audience. The recitations were also well given, and Miss Sullivan's vocal solo was charmingly rendered. Miss Nora Waddell quickly danced herself into the good graces of all present, and was rewarded with a beautiful bouquet. The stately minuet was also cleverly danced. The posings by Miss Macdonald were all exquisitely performed and greatly appreciated. She also was presented with a handsome bouquet. Miss Macdonald teaches both the Delsarte and the Emerson systems of physical culture. The exercises last night were from the former system.

THE DRAMA AT SOURIS.

St. Dunstan's College Boys Receive a Warm Welcome and Act Well Their Several Parts

(Special by Telephone to THE EXAMINER.)
St. Dunstan's College Dramatic Club repeated their drama "College Boys" at Souris last night, to a crowded and very much pleased house. The drama contained some very realistic scenes of college and military life and the boys excelled themselves in both. The acting was graceful throughout, and not over stagey as we so often see in amateur clubs. Should the boys ever decide to visit us again we are sure that Souris will respond as heartily as it did last night. A fine orchestra, with Frank O'Neill as special violinist, rendered some nice selections between the acts. The Souris Band met the College special at the station and conducted them to the Hall. After the play a dance was held in the assembly rooms till 1 a. m., when the special returned, with rousing cheers for Souris. The boys stopped at Capt. Dominic McDonald's hotel, and were loudly in praise of the treatment received there. Seldom does Souris see a more gentlemanly crowd of excursionists.

The special train arrived in Charlottetown on return from Souris about five o'clock this morning. The Collegians and the ladies and gentlemen who accompanied them on the trip speak in the highest terms of the outing and of the treatment they received at the hands of the good people of Souris.
