LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros.

THE POLINO arrived here this morning about five o'clock.

MASONIC.—The brethren of Victoria Lodge will please remember the special meeting to-night. Second degree.

DOT'S GOOD WORK.—We learn from an exchange, that Dot, the Tryon mare, was 3, 3, 2, in the 2 21 class at Fitchburg, recently. The winner's time was 2.25¼, 2.26, 2.23¼.

A WORTHY OBJECT.—There will be a concert in aid of the Halifax School for the Blind in Eldon Hall on Saturday, July 28th, at 7.30 p. m. Admission ten cents.

SONS OF ENGLAND.—Special meeting of S. O. E. B. S. at eight p. m., sharp, to make further arrangements for the visit of the Supreme Grand President.—W. Reardon, W. S.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH PICNIC.—St. James' Church Sunday School will hold their annual picnic at Suffolk, on Thursday, August 12th. A good time is guaranteed all who attend. Particulars later.

A VIOLIN COMPETITION for the championship of P. E. Island will be held in connection with the tea at Orwell Cove. Full particulars later. Address applications for competition to Theophilus McLeod, Eldon.

LIGHTNING'S FREAKS.—In the lightning storm of Saturday last, the House of Mr. Hugh Campbell, North Wiltshire, was struck and a child stunned. A barn of Mr. Thomas Oxenham, of the same place, was also struck and some geese killed.

SOURIS TEA yesterday was a grand success. There was a very large attendance from the various points, and all enjoyed the tea party. Sours Band was in attendance. The ball game was a "soft thing" for Charlottetown, the score being 38 to 8. Only five innings were played. The train arrived in town shortly after ten.

NEW YORK'S SMALLEST TAX PAYER.—The tax books for this year show that the smallest tax payer in New York city is Jerry Connell. He pays a tax of one cent a year on his lot between Giles Place and Fort Independence Street. The lot was once full size, but the opening of street through it has left it so small that it is indicated on the map by a dot, and is valued at one dollar by the tax department.

FAMOUS PAINTINGS.—Call and see a copy of our Portfolio of the Masterpieces of the World's Art Galleries. These Portfolios contain copies of the world's most famous paintings. They will delight all lovers of pictures, and are not disfigured with any reading matter at the bottom of the plate. At the back of each portfolio interesting descriptions of each picture are given.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Peter Brogan, for the larceny of a bridle, the property of Rev. James Æneas Macdonald, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment, with hard labor. A woman for annoying a person in his dwelling by throwing dirty water on his clothes that were hanging on a line to dry, was fined $4 or 20 days' imprisonment. A simple drunk was fined $2, and a young lad for bathing in a nude condition at Steam Navigation Company's Wharf was fined $1.

THEATRICAL.—The Moncton press say Harry Lindley is the finest comedian and has the best company that ever visited that city. Mr. Lindley is an experienced comedian, being nearly thirty years before the Canadian public, receiving the support and patronage of each succeeding Governor-General in the meantime. He is supported by an excellent company of sixteen people who know how to act, a fact which the Charlottetown publte will appreciate; also that the prices are only 25 and 36 cents.

A HORSE POISONED.—Messrs. Ellis Brothers, of Alberton, had a valuable horse poisoned on Monday last by eating grass on the headland of a potato patch on which Paris green had been sprinkled. We have heard of several other cases of death or illness as a result of this poison. These cases suggest the importance of great care. A great many persons seem not to appreciate the deadliness of Paris green, and from what we can learn, the Government and their agents have not adopted sufficient precautions against carelessness on the part of such persons. The druggists, who know more about it, have this season, we understand, obtained unusually large supplies of the antidote for Paris green. They seem to know what's coming.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Dr. Doyle, of Vernon River, is in the city.

James Ferris, a C. P. R. conductor of Ottawa, wife and daughter are at the Stanley en route to P. E. Island on a visit.—St. John Sun.

A section of a Raymond excursion party in charge of Mr. Carroll Hutchings, arrived here and are registered at the Hotel Davies. They leave to-morrow morning.

Advices from Toronto indicate that the rumor of the death of L. Vankoughnet, late deputy superintendent general of Indian affairs, arose through a mistake. Vankoughnet is in Ireland, alive and well.

Several of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley, foreman of the Times, gathered at his residence, Lutz Street, last night, the event being the celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. A very pleasant evening was spent, and this estimable couple were tendered many useful and handsome presents.—Moncton Transcript.

For Over Fifty Years.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.—m. w. f. wkly—1 y

THE WEATHER.—Light to moderate winds; fine; higher temperature in most localities.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CHOIR PICNIC.

THE annual picnic of the choir of St. Dunstan's Cathedral was held yesterday, at Red Point, on the beautifully-situated grounds of John Maceachern, Esq. The picnics hitherto held under the auspices of the choir have been most enjoyable, and that of yesterday was more than up to the standard. The members of the choir know how to enjoy themselves, and they have a happy knack of communicating this faculty to the ladies and gentlemen who are each year privileged to be their guests and making all feel thoroughly at home.

Their picnic is a social in the fullest sense of the term.

It was about half-past ten in the forenoon when the smart and well-equipped little steamship May Queen, gayly decorated with bunting, left Steam Navigation Company's wharf for the scene of the picnic, and after an exceedingly pleasant sail reached her destination. Soon the tables were placed in position, in a delightfully-sequestered nook, and active and willing hands set to work upon them and in an incredibly short time everything was ready and the dinner "gong" was sounded. With appetites whetted by the sea breeze and strengthened to an alarming extent by the tempting manner in which the delicious viands procured for the occasion were arranged, it is perhaps needless to add that all did "ample justice to the good things provided," and the "inner man" was well satisfied.

This important part of the programme over, the "happy family"—for such the choir and their guests might well be called—proceeded to make things mutually pleasant, and the greatest degree of success crowned their efforts. With vocal and instrumental music, dancing and other amusements the time was most pleasantly passed.

In the afternoon the May Queen returned to the city and brought up a party of ladies and gentlemen who were unable to attend in the morning, and they contributed largely to the enjoyment of the occasion.

About five o'clock the tables were again spread, and all sat down to a bounteous repast. This function concluded, dancing was indulged in until the hour of departure arrived, when all boarded the May Queen and started on a pleasant sail up and down the Hillsborough. The weather was delightfully cool and the water as smooth as a mill pond. This exceedingly pleasant part of a most enjoyable outing was concluded about eight o'clock, when the excursionists were landed at Navigation Company's Wharf, all well pleased with the manner in which the day had been passed—"happy to meet, sorry to part and happy to meet again."

Before landing rousing cheers were given for Father Reid, Mr. Blanchard and the choir's guests, all of which were appropriately acknowledged.

THE SCOTT ACT.

SIR,—When the Scott Act first came into force in Charlottetown it was said that there were a few honorable exceptions of liquor dealers who really gave up the traffic and went clean out of the business. I am not prepared to say how many, but I always believed the number to be—well, not very many. Let us hope that the honorable exceptions to-morrow, or rather on Saturday, may be many. I am informed from an official source that the act comes into force at 12 o'clock on Friday night. From the present outlook there will be little or no resistance made against the law. Public sentiment is strongly in its favor. But it is always well to be on the alert.

NATURE'S GENTLEMAN.

Whom do we dub as gentlemen? The knave, the fool, the brute—
If they but own full tithe of gold, and wear a courtly suit;
The parchment scroll of titled line, the riband at the knee;
Can still suffice to ratify and grant such high degree;
But Nature, with a matchless hand, sends forth her nobly born,
And laughs the paltry attributes of wealth and rank to scorn;
She moulds with care, a spirit rare, half human, half divine,
And cries exultingly "Who can make a gentleman like mine?"

She may not spend her common skill about the outward part,
But showers beauty, grace and light, upon the brain and heart;
She may not use ancestral fame his pathway to illume—
The sun that sheds the brightest ray may rise from mist and gloom.
Should Fortune pour her welcome store, and useful gold abound,
He shares it with a bounteous hand, and scatters blessings round.
The treasure sent is rightly spent, and serves the end designed,
When held by Nature's gentleman, the good, the just, the kind.

He turns not from the cheerless home, where sorrow's off spring dwell;
He'll greet the peasant in his hut,—the culprit in his cell,
He stays to hear the widow's plaint, of deep and mourning love,
He seeks to aid her lot below, and prompt her faith above.
The orphan child, the friendless one, the luckless, or the poor,
Will never meet his spurning frown, nor leave his bolted door;
His kindred circles all mankind, his country all the globe—
An honest name his jewell'd star, and truth his ermine robe.

He wisely yields his passions up to Reason's firm control—
His pleasures are of crimeless kind and never taint the soul.
He may be thrown among the gay and reckless sons of life;
But will not love the revel scene, nor heed the brawling strife.
He wounds no breast with jeer or jest, yet bears no honey'd tongue;
He's social with the gray-haired one, and merry with the young;
He gravely shares the council speech, or joins the rustic game;
And shines as Nature's gentleman, in every place the same.

No haughty gesture marks his gait, no pompous tone his word;
No studied attitude is seen, no ribald gossip heard;
He'll suit his bearing to the hour,—laugh, listen, learn or teach;
With joyous freedom in his mirth, and candor in his speech.
He worships God with inward zeal, and serves him in each deed;
He would not blame another's faith, or have one martyr bleed;
Justice and Mercy form his code; he puts his trust in Heaven;
His prayer is—"If the heart mean well, may all else be forgiven!"

Though few of such may gem the earth, yet such rare gems there are;
Each shining in his hallowed sphere as Virtue's polar star.
Though human hearts too oft are found, all gross, corrupt and dark,
Yet, yet, some bosoms breathe and burn, lit by Promethen spark;
There are some spirits nobly just—unwarped by pelf or pride,
Great in the calm, but greater still, when dash'd by adverse tide;
They hold the rank no King can give, no station can disgrace;
Nature puts forth her gentleman, and monarchs must give place.

In furtherance of mutual interests, we ask for thoughtful consideration of our accounts sent out June 30th.—Stanley Bros, Brown's Block.

WHEN TRAVELLING

THE SUMMER GIRL
hereabouts, comes to us for her shoes. This fact proves her to be as sensible as she is lovely. Those Oxford Ties of ours are just too cool to be without, and a summer girl without them would look as dismal as a watering place without the summer girl; and certainly nothing in footwear ever delighted any summer girl so much as our Ties, that have been voted the handsomest in town. Naturally the young ladies of Charlottetown are in a flutter over our shoe triumph, and even though Miss Smith looked long, she could never look prettier from a shoe point of view than she would wearing a pair of our inimitable Oxfords sold at 60 cents and up. We also have DONGOLA COMFORTS for old ladies. Every old lady should have a pair to enjoy real comfort. Always come to us if in search of something good and cheap.
