The Rain Of May Cleans Winter's Leavings Away

Raindrops patter on the roof tonight, rain of May, it is, to clean Winter's leavings away. Unlike the sound of that which, as a friend to animals, she obeys orders. She is cheerful, thrifty, she is clean in thought, word and deed.

The above information comes to me from an official spokesman for the girl scout program. I am happy to offer this evidence that girl scouting isn't a training ground for religious bigotry or insular prejudice. M. H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Blue And White Floral Theme For Spring Bonnet Tea Set.

By JEAN KOENIG
Guardian-Patriot Staff Writer
Floral centerpieces of blue tinted mums and white roses decorated the tea tables for the Spring Bonnet Tea sponsored by the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital at the Community Centre Saturday. Blue and white papers in silver candelabra also decorated the tables.

Spring bonnets and artificial flowers in baskets were the main items of decor. A number of gay hats were on display at the front of the centre as well as on stands inside the doors. Baskets of artificial flowers decorated the walls, and miniature spring bonnets formed centerpieces for the guests' tables for four.

Several booths added to the attraction of the tea. The sewing and knitting included aprons, pot holders, dolls clothes, etc., as well as a large assortment of knitted sweaters, hats, socks and bonnets. A home-cooking booth offered a variety of baked goods from pickles to squares, and the candy booth featured homemade fudge. The "touch and take" booth featured a number of giftwrapped packages which sold for a nominal amount to the guest touching it.

Conversers for the tea were Mrs. Peter Gleason, Mrs. J. D. MacAskill and Mrs. Doan d Gordon, Mrs. Byron Burns and Mrs. George Chandler were in charge of tickets.

Mrs. George Cronin and Mrs. E. C. Tanton were in charge of the hat lottery, and Mrs. Ivan Laurie and Miss Olga Davies composed the decorating committee. Mrs. James Lee was responsible for the "touch and take" booth, Mrs. Henry Blanchard and Mrs. Somerley Trainor of the candy booth, Mrs. Leo P. Callaghan of the knitting and Mrs. A. J. Dowling of the sewing booth.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES WILLIAM PAYNTER Fashionable Wedding Unites Couple At Trinity UC S'side

KENSINGTON - A fashionable wedding of widespread interest took place in Trinity United Church, Summerside, when Laura Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ramsay, MacNeil's Mills, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Paynter, Clinton.

Rev. John B. Webber performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Eric Sheen was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied the guest soloist, Miss Joan McFadden, who sang, "O Father All Creating" prior to the ceremony, and "Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The youthful bride who was given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her floor length gown of white velvet, fashioned with a full hooped skirt, and fitted bodice which closed with tiny pearl buttons at the back, and featured a scalloped neckline. Her finger tip veil fell from a Rhinestone trimmed tiara, and she carried a white Bible covered with lace and topped with red nylidene roses, with pine and fern. Her only jewellery was a cultured pearl necklace, and a pair of diamond earrings.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Clara Hogg as matron of honor, who wore a street length dress of red velvet, decorated with three quarter length sleeves and featuring a cummerbund of the same material. Her bridesmaids, Mrs. Lloyd Ramsay, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Doreen Bernard, nee Darnley School, were in green velvet, similarly styled to that of the matron of honor, and wearing red necklaces. They wore pearl drop necklaces and carried baskets of green centered white mums. The junior bridesmaids, Marilyn Ramsay, sister of the bride and Laura Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ramsay, MacNeil's Mills, were in white cummerbunds, white shoes and pearl drop necklaces. They carried baskets of red centered white mums.

Mrs. Webber proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Telegrams which came from relatives in Ontario were read by the best man.

LAMINATES IN LIMELIGHT

presented Monday and Tuesday nights, the show has also been held over for tonight. Laminated, and fashioned in a linen texture, the coat features Chinese collar, raglan sleeves, and large black buttons. A shocking pink chiffon pillow and scarf add a note of contrasting color to the ensemble.

"But there is such a thing, Mack, as being prepared." "Meaning you will need to be up in good time in the morning," he comments. He picks up a baseball and says, "I'm not wishing that tomorrow will be fine," he says to the crowd of this new mill of mine.

"Please let me try it on," she smiles, "then we'll play ball!" "I can't do that. If it happens to be a good day for it, she'll get a workout tomorrow in the schoolyard," he grins.

"Now don't quit day to me, with clouds drooping to rest on the hillsops. Such a day as strangely enough seems to inspire hopes to cast their best notes on the stilly air. How lovely their song were, as the rainclouds gathered.

Beclouded, our day was. But beyond it, we look to days in the offing, and see the primrose shade of the dandelions, the softness of buttercups, fresh - come from the sod.

"This is quite a rain," James observed this evening, watching her get out for a walk. "It will bring the croppings!" "We'll be the lambs I'm thinking of. Not that we expect them
