600 Children Attend
Annual Legion Picnic

Upwards of 600 children of members of the Charlottetown Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion attended the annual picnic at Stanhope Beach Saturday. The program consisted of swimming and lunch distributed by 40 members and auxiliary members. The sports events were run by Cliff King, assisted by other members of the branch.

The accident occurred just after mid-night, Saturday as the Buick was crossing the tracks on Grafton street and the wheel broke, the automobile smashed into the light pole, overturning it, bounced into the parked vehicle causing considerable damage to the rear and both sides. The Buick sustained damage to the white front end.

Carson, pleading not guilty to a charge of assault, was remanded to Aug. 6 with bail set at $50 for each. The case of Joseph Doyle, charged with disorderly conduct on complaint of Gertrude Doyle was remanded to Aug. 7, pending summoning of the witness. John James Thompson, charged with drunken driving, pleaded guilty to the charge of impaired driving, and was fined $125 and costs for 20 days. Leo Steele, pleading guilty to being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 and costs for a first offence.

HILLSBORO BRIDGE OPENING

Another Island history making event will go down in the record books this afternoon with the official opening of the new Hillsboro Bridge, marking the last link in the Trans-Canada Highway in Prince Edward Island. Opening ceremonies performed by Hon. J. James Matheson, minister of public works, in the presence of a 12-car motorcade, Sept. 1, will drive across the nation to show that it is now possible to travel by road from one end of Canada to the other, will necessitate the closing of the bridge to traffic for approximately 15 minutes. The ceremony is expected to get underway at approximately 4:30.

Abortion Sought By U.S. Star

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Tired and weary-eyed, Mrs. Sherri Finckle came to Sweden Sunday to seek the abortion denied her in America of the baby she fears may be deformed by the drug thalidomide. "I am hoping and praying that the Swedish medical men will be able to help my child," Mrs. Finckle said.

Punching Ump Proved Costly

RED DEER, Alta. (CP) — For punching a fastball umpire and breaking his nose after being ejected from a game, Pat Hannigan, forward with the National Hockey League New York Rangers, was fined $100 Monday by Magistrate W. A. Shaw. Evidence was that Hannigan argued with umpire W. R. Scott grabbed him by the hair and punched him.
