IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARY WALLACE

At her late home on March 4th, there passed to her eternal reward one of Coleman's most highly respected citizens, Mrs. Mary Wallace, in her ninety fifth year. The late Mrs. Wallace, daughter of the late Hector and Jessie (MacKinnon) MacNeill was born in DeSable, P.E.I., and when a young girl moved to The Brae with her parents, later, after her marriage to the late Albert Wallace, settled in Coleman where, with her husband, by hard work and practical application acquired a splendid farm and home.

Mrs. Wallace was widely known through the years, as one who was at the bedside of the sick, ministering to the dying, and comforting the bereaved. Her home was ever open, and was known for its true highland hospitality. Her kindness and thoughtfulness at all times, are well remembered by her large circle of friends.

Mrs. Wallace was a life-long and valued member of the Church of Scotland, strictly adhering to the Calvinistic teachings of Scripture. She dearly loved the worship of the sanctuary from which she never absented herself, except in times of illness and for the last three years when she was laid aside from the result of a broken leg.

During the last months of her illness the late Mrs. Wallace often spoke of the comforts of her most holy religion, and the assurance of God's love in the precious gift of eternal life through Him, "Behold the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world."

Mrs. Wallace leaves to mourn five sons, George of Bath, Me.; Gordon of Jamaica Plains, Mass.; Rankine, William and Herman of Coleman, and one daughter, Elsie, Mrs. James Stewart of Canaan, N.H.; also twenty-two grand children and twenty-four great grandchildren. Her husband predeceased her in 1919, also one son John in 1944 and one daughter Jessie dying in infancy.

Her funeral, which was largely

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOHN THOMAS DIGNAN

The death occurred at the Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown, on Sunday evening, Feb. 28, 1950, of Mr. John Thomas Dignan of Woodstock, at the age of 76 years. The deceased, who had been in failing health for the past five years, was tenderly cared for by his immediate family until it became apparent six months ago that he required hospital treatment. He was taken to the Western Hospital in Alberton and three weeks later was removed to the Provincial Sanatorium, where he remained until he peacefully passed away.

Mr. Dignan, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dignan, was born in Woodstock where he lived his entire life. He was of a kind disposition, and was always ready to lend a helping hand and willing to help out in any good cause for the betterment of the community.

He was a member of the Old Methodist Church in West Devon, and was a regular attendant in the House of God as long as his strength permitted. His loss will be deeply felt for he was honest and upright in all his ways, a devoted husband and father, kind neighbor and friend.
