St. Andrew's Day Concert at Kensington

On Friday night the adult group of the Presbyterian Church of Kensington sponsored a most enjoyable St. Andrew's program of Scottish songs, dances and humorous skits.

Instrumental music — Mrs. Russell McKay and James Bearisto. Medley of Scottish Airs by the choir singing the following popular numbers: "John Peel", "Annie Laurie", "Oh Where Tell Me Where", "The Bonnets of Bonnie Dundee", "Comin' Thro' the Rye", "Roamin' in the Gloamin'".

Bagpipe selection by Pipers Allen Cameron and Donald McLeod. Vocal solos, "I'm Going to Marry Carry", "She is the Lass for Me", — Mr. James Phillips, Summerside.

Dance, "Sean Trewe" — Miss Jessie McGowan of Kilmuir. In her attractive Scottish costume her graceful execution of the Scottish folk dances greatly pleased the audience.

A one-act play, "Who's the Boss," was well presented by the following cast of characters — Mr. James Smith, bank accountant — Mr. Blair Heeschen.

Mrs. James Smith—Joyce Champion. Dr. Brown — Fred Semple. Mrs. Brown — Gladys Semple. Mr. Carl Millar — Ben Champion.

Miss Mary Heath — Jean McLeod. Mrs. Jenkins — Marion Lockhart. Dorothy Jenkins—Corry Bridges. Nancy; the maid—Thelma Sudsbury.

During intermission, instrumental music by Mrs. McKay and James Bearisto and the pipers proved a pleasing interlude after which the program continued.

Humorous Skit — Messrs Parmenus Phillips, Heath Casey, Fred Semple and J. McGowan. Brooklyn Trio—Messrs J. Bears, M. Munro and W. Bruce contributed three fine vocal numbers, "A Hundred Pipers and A", "The Bullfrog on the Bank" and "I've Been Working on the Railroad".

Humorous Skit — Miss Marion Lockhart and Mr. Blair Heeschen. The well-known comedians, Mr. Donald Baker and Mr. Bud Mountain of Summerside brought down the house with their vocal duet, "Jamie and Janie" and "Janie" very gracefully executed the Highland Fling as an encore.

More bagpipe music and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem by the entire cast concluded the program. Rev. J. A. McGowan very capably acted as chairman. — K

—KENSINGTON HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.— The Kensington Home and School Association will meet Thursday, December 7th, in the School. Films will be shown.

—CORRECTION.— In the report of the Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Justin MacLellan of Indian River, the names of little Miss Ona Mills and Master Michael Ramsay were omitted. Master Michael presented, Mrs. MacLellan (the former Miss K. Glennon of Montreal.) with a purse and Miss Ona made the presentation to Mr. MacLellan. — K
