TERMED 'CREAM OF CROP'

5 Island Air Cadets Win Special Training Awards

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Five Prince Edward Island Air Cadets are among 500 cadets from Canada's 10 provinces who have been selected for special training awards provided by the Air Cadet League and the RCAF each summer.

Selected are Frank Jackson Ellis and John A. Roy of 53 Summerside Squadron; Gerald Bernard Soy and Roger Ira Clark of 60 Charlottetown Squadron and Terrance Perry of 641 Tignish Squadron.

Cadet Soy has been selected for overseas exchange visits and Cadet Clark and Cadet Roy for RCAF flying training scholarships. Cadet Ellis was named for a senior leader's course while Cadet Perry will take a drill instructor's course.

CHOSEN FROM 25,000

Chosen from over 25,000 cadets in 322 squadrons, the winners have passed through joint league and RCAF selection committees at local, provincial and national levels. They are rated as the "cream of the Air Cadet crop" for 1959.

For 250 of the cadets, the high point of their careers has arrived with the award of an RCAF scholarship covering 30 hours of actual flying instruction. The four weeks' course will commence on July 13th, and training will be given at flying clubs across the country. Successful graduates will qualify for an Air Cadet flying badge as well as a private pilot's license. The RCAF scheme will be supplemented later by the award of a number of specially flying scholarships granted by the League.

One hundred cadets will report to RCAF Station Camp Boarden early in July to commence seven weeks of leadership training aimed at producing a pool of potential officers and instructors for the Air Cadet squadrons.

DRILL COURSE

Another one hundred cadets will attend a seven weeks' Air Cadet Drill Instructors Course also being held at Camp Boarden. From this group will be selected a 40-man precision drill squad which will participate with an American Air Cadet drill team in an International Drill Display at the Canadian National Exhibition on August 29th.
