

Porn, Porn, Porn, Now That's Entertainment

By Ydord Nosirrom

No, the title is not just another cheesy way of getting your attention. This is serious. "Video Wars" have begun on Prince Edward Island, and the first casualty of war has been claimed.

Yes, your favourite video store has closed down. Apparently "That's Entertainment" located on University avenue has closed down and a shiny, new Rent Town has opened up.

The store has devised a way to stay open to the public and provided the services it has always given. That's Entertainment has decided not to give up and to utilize its most valuable asset in fighting staying competitive with other stores.

A letter has been sent through the mail, announcing that That's Entertainment has not closed down their store entirely, and that they only closed down their bottom floor and kept the second floor open. Many may be unfamiliar with the "Upstairs Theme." This is the section where they kept all the Adult/Pornographic movies.

Yes, in order to stay in business one video rental store has opened Charlottetown's first and foremost Video Store totally dedicated to porn. I guess "That's Entertainment!"

Is it entertainment ?
