ADMISSION 10c.

'Tis not all Gold THAT GLITTERS

Many are taken in now-a-days, and are paying from ten to twenty dollars for a watch not worth five, by buying from peddlers and others who are not watch-makers.

Do not be Deceived.

But when you want a reliable watch buy only of one who understands the trade and asks only a fair price for a good article.

CHARLOTTETOWN

Business College

Writing Academy

Let the searchlight of practice illuminate the dark places of theory.

A THOROUGHLY Progressive Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Book-keeping (in all its applications to commerce) both in single and double entry, but are trained how to do business, by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants, in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank and the mds. issued from the Emporium, are used in bona fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business, cannot be thus acquired. That our course system of training is eminently practical write for testimonials from business men, and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS: Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical.) Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboat Ing, Banking, (actual practice in the College Bank) Typewriting, Shorthand and Navigation.

FACULTY: L. B. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation.

J. W. Coulson, (Vice Principal), Teacher of Railroading, Steamboat Ing, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice.

J. Harry Williams, Teacher of Business Penmanship.

Wm. Moran (licensed), Teacher of Shorthand.

George S. Inman Esq., (Law Firm McDonald & Inman) Lecturer on Commercial Law.

For circulars and full information, write or apply to

L. B. MILLER, Principal.

All interested are cordially invited to call at the college and inspect our system in operation, as a work in general.

But bad spice is abominable. This is a truism that no competent housekeeper should forget.

Half the trouble of cooking is past if you get the right brand of Spice, and while there are many that are fairly good, it is always safest to take one which is invariably uniform. That one is

MOTT'S

GOD'S LITTLE GIRL.

She left her home in the starry ways
 And reached our arms in the April days.
 We thought to keep her and hold her here,
 And our little girl we called the dear.

One pleasant eve when the sun had dipped
 Out of sight, and the stars had slipped
 Silently back to their wonted ways,
 She turned her face with a wistful gaze

Up to the blue of the arching skies.
 We knew by the look in her pretty eyes
 And the smile that brightened her small face so

It was time for God's little girl to go.

A kiss we dropped on her curly head.
 "Sweet little heart, goodbye!" we said.
 Then unafraid, though the way was dim,
 God's little girl went back to him.

STAGE GLINTS.

Ethel Kendal, daughter of the famous and virtuous Mrs. Kendal, is soon to appear in vaudeville.

Herbert Keley has gone back on heroics and is now playing villain in "The Moth and the Flame."

Miss Elizabeth Robins will shortly present for the first time in New York city Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler."

The naughty Yvette Guilbert is going to open in London again and try to duplicate her New York success.

Richard Mansfield promises to produce "Henry V" next season and hopes it will produce many a V for him.

Joseph Arthur, it is said, will send out the "Salt of the Earth" next season rewritten and under another name.

Walter Jones begins to star shortly, and it is said he has gone into partnership with Scott Hayes, a son of the late ex-president.

Wilton Lackaye will head a stock company which will inaugurate its season at the Great Northern theater, Chicago, shortly.

Marguerite St. John will appear in vaudeville at an early date, presenting a version of "Peg Woffington" and a comedieta entitled "Sally."

"An Old Coat" is the name of the latest play, and it was written by a lieutenant on one of the ships of the white squadron, A. H. Alderdice.

It is expected that the music hall part of Olympia in New York will be opened by Oscar Hammerstein, who will act as manager for his wife, in whose name the lease has been secured.

VEGETABLE HISTORY.

The cauliflower came from Cyprus. The eggplant is a native of Asia, Africa and South America.

Mushrooms are native to all temperate countries in short grass.

Potatoes are native to Peru, and the Spaniards discovered them. From Spain they passed into Italy and Belgium.

The cabbage still grows wild in Greece, where it originated. Radishes were native to China, but have grown in Europe for centuries.

Garlic came from Asia and has been used since the earliest times. It formed part of the diet of the Israelites in Egypt, was used by Greek and Roman soldiers and African peasants.

Prussian streets. The German emperor as king of Prussia has the sole right to name streets, and he has just refused his consent to the proposal to call two streets after the names of Dr. Bertram and Dr. Langerhaus, two popular members of the municipal council. His majesty disapproves of such a course during the lifetime of the godfathers. This apparently refers to men of official standing only, whose political opinions might change after the streets had been named, for the Mommensstrasse in Charlottenburg was recently passed with approval. Some new German streets have a tendency to long names. "Prince August von Wurtembergstrasse" is today a name and nothing more. The houses have still to be built.
