

WOUNDS DESCRIBED

Ten Witnesses Testify In Supreme Court Trial

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
 A total of ten witnesses give testimony for the crown in Supreme Court here yesterday in the case of Stirling Joseph Bernard, Lennox Island, who is being tried on separate charges of manslaughter and causing bodily harm with intent to wound.

Bernard, who is represented by J. Melville Campbell, is charged in the knifing death of Roger Labobe, another Lennox Island resident, last September 26.

On the bench for this case, the first of two cases being heard during this session, is Mr. Justice R.R. Bell of Charlottetown. Crown prosecutor is George R. McManis.

One of the witnesses for the crown yesterday was Dr. Andres Aquino, associate pathologist with the Provincial Department of Health, Charlottetown, who performed the autopsy on Labobe.

DESCRIBED WOUNDS
 Dr. Aquino described the wounds on the deceased and stated that in his opinion the cause of death was the aspiration of blood into the respiratory tree. From his findings he was of the opinion that the blood sucked in by the deceased had come from a cut on his upper lip.

He gave a description of the wounds on the deceased's left side which had penetrated his lung, along with wounds on the forehead, the side of his scalp as well as his lip. He stated that a person under the influence of alcohol or drugs or suffering from a brain tumor or a head injury such as concussion would be unable to cough up the blood if he had breathed it in.

Upon cross-examination by Defence Counsel Campbell, Dr. Aquino agreed with a portion of his autopsy report in which he stated that death could have been caused by acute alcoholic intoxication, aspirating of blood into the respiratory tree or a combination of both.

WITNESSES
 Other witnesses included Dr. Raymond Reid, Wellington, who was called to the scene the night of the incident and pronounced the victim dead; Ruth Bell, a criminologist with the RCMP laboratory in Sackville, N.B., who reported on her findings from items forwarded to the lab by the investigating team from the local RCMP detachment under the direction of Sgt. W.J.R. Macdonald, NCO, in charge of the detachment.

Cpl. William H. Smith from the identification section of the Charlottetown RCMP detachment, described charts drawn up by him of the area where the offence is alleged to have occurred as well as photos taken by himself of the area.

When questioned about the weapon allegedly used in the offence, a hunting knife, he stated that due to the material in the knife handle he had been unable to identify any fingerprints.

Mrs. Joe Labobe, the wife of the reservation constable, also gave testimony for the crown.

PETIT JURY
 Members of the Petit Jury as selected yesterday for the case are: G. Morris Caseley, Kevin (moreman); Preston Bowen, North Bedouque; John E. Cameron, Wellington RR; Marne

W. Kennedy, O'Leary; Gordon Bryanton, Spring Valley; Norman Reeves, Summerside RR; Urban Laughlin, Shebrooke; Glenford Miller, Ellerslie RR; Arnold Henderson, Bedouque; Henry Scales, Summerside East; Robert Carruthers, Kensington; Lester MacLeod, Albany.

Following the testimony of Miss Lewis Judge Bell adjourned the case to 11 o'clock this morning.

Alex B. Campbell Discusses Pension

"Why all the excitement about old-age pensions?" Liberal Leader Alex Campbell asked at a meeting at Eldon Hall last night on behalf of candidates Harold Smith and Stewart Ross who are contesting 4th Queens, and who spoke mainly about the problems of agriculture and the general development of our natural resources for the betterment of all.

"We stated our position on pensions at the outset of the campaign," Mr. Campbell declared. "What we said was that a Liberal government would see to it that pensions of $100 a month would be paid to all old age pensioners. We also said that up to $125 monthly would be provided for those in need with increased benefits also for the disabled, the blind and those receiving mother's allowances and other welfare benefits.

Mr. Campbell said that in his speech at Crapaud Tuesday night, he had merely clarified the Liberal party's position by emphasizing that the increased pension of $25 would be available in all old age pensioners, without application of a means test.

"Apparently my statement at Crapaud aroused the Conservatives," said the Liberal leader. "So much so that the premier had made frantic statements on Wednesday representing a complete shift in their previous position, which was that additional pension money would be paid to only those in need."

Mr. Campbell said that he did not like "auction block politics." "Increased old age pensions is only a minor part of our overall program," he declared. "Our senior citizens will only receive what they justly are entitled to in view of increased living costs."

CASH RELATES TO RACE
 Average income for white people in the Northwest Territories is $2,992 per annum, compared with $510 for Indians.

The Liberals try to talk about agriculture when the present agriculture department is the finest this province has ever known, with more money budgeted than ever before, he said.

"And they must have had their heads buried in the sand when they concocted their industrial policy." We have developed and will continue to develop industry that will usher in a new and unprecedented era in the Prince Edward Island economy. An economy in which every Islander can partake, and build a future for himself and his children. Gone will be the days of moving off the island to ensure a good future and full life. Even now, our population is increasing and being strengthened by well trained and well educated Islanders working hand in hand with new Islanders.

Mr. Gaudet and Mr. Davies outlined to the gathering the specific programs of the Shaw platform that will apply directly to the Fifth district of Queens.

Premier Shaw Addresses Rally

"It would appear that the Liberals are placing all their hopes for election in their ability to climb aboard the Conservative R. Shaw told a rally in Fifth district of Queens last night.

Speaking on behalf of district candidate A.W. Gaudet and Tom Davis the premier said: "The Liberals talk about tremendous changes they will make in education, when education is at the highest level it has ever been in this province and our program calls for still further improvement, the Premier stated.

ALEX B. CAMPBELL AND CANDIDATES
 Dr. Doug MacDonald, Lou Roper, Dr. Lorne Bonnell, Keir Clark, George Ferguson and Art MacDonald.

LIBERALS WILL PAY $100-A-MONTH TO SENIOR CITIZENS

HERE IS HOW:
 To pay senior citizens $100 a month, a Liberal Government on the Island will have to increase the amount paid by the province by only $12.50. The other $12.50 of the increase comes from Ottawa. Total additional cost to P.E.I. will therefore be well within the Government's ability to handle.

A LIBERAL GOVERNMENT WILL PAY THE $100

The present government found $6,000,000 for the "Cement Palace" (new provincial building) for their own comfort. They did NOT pay $100 a month, which they NOW say they will pay immediately.

Liberals are MORE INTERESTED IN PEOPLE than buildings. Liberals will pay senior citizens the $100 with help from the Canada Assistance Plan now before Parliament.
