Novel Feathered Rice Served With Roast Pork

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

"For Sunday dinner, let's plan a roast of fresh pork or stuffed spare ribs for a change," I suggested to the Chef.

"To make this something special, Madame, we might serve it with our new French onion gravy," he replied.

SPECIAL ACCOMPANIMENT

"And for a special accompaniment, the new mushroom-feathered rice, with fresh bright green broccoli and simmered, spiced red apple halves for color," I added.

"With a crisp-cross pink rhubarb pie we'll end dinner with a song of Spring, tra-la-la, la-la," hummed the singing Chef, as he started off to market.

Sunday roast pork dinner: Cole-slaw green dressing, roast pork, French onion gravy, mushroom-feathered rice, broccoli, casserole apple-halves, crisp-cross rhubarb pie, coffee, tea or milk.

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.

Green dressing for slaw: Combine 1/4 c. tart French dressing, 4 c. thick mayonnaise, 2 tsp. fine-minced green peppers and 1/2 c. fine-minced parsley. Toss with fine-shredded crisp cabbage.

Mushroom-feathered rice: In a heavy skillet, heat 1 tbsp. butter or corn oil. Stir in 1 1/2 c. uncooked rice. Stir over a low heat about 30 seconds, or until straw-colored.

Transfer to a 2-qt. casserole. Add 1 1/2 tsp. salt, 3 c. boiling water and 1 (4oz.) oz. dark mushrooms canned in butter. Cover tight.

Bake 30-35 min. in a moderate oven, 375 degrees to 400 degrees F., or until bite-tender. Stir lightly with a fork to "feather." Serve at once.

This fine vegetable is not appreciated. Cooked plain, it should be diced and seasoned with a trace of sugar, a little lemon juice and a few grains of nutmeg. Try it combined with cook green beans or peas for flavor and color contrast.

Tomorrow's fish dinner: Hot tomato bouillon, baked-fried pan-fish, mashed potato (instant),
