Father Maurice Monaghan

ONLY the old timers would remember his football playing because it took place over 30 years ago when he was performing with St. Dunstan's rugby team.

We're referring to Father Maurice Monaghan who died last Friday night in Guelph, Ontario at the early age of 51 years. It was this same Jesuit novitiate that Maurice Monaghan entered 31 years ago to begin his studies for the priesthood.

Opponents and teammates knew him as "Fat" although we could never get to understand how he got the name. Everybody who ever watched him play remembers him as one of the great forwards of this grand old game. He kept tearing in continually and was surely a thorn in the side of every opponent he ever met. He was always on the ball and there are many who rate him as one of the best forwards ever produced at the college out the road.

It was our good fortune to be a classmate of Maurice Monaghan. He was a really great friend and we surely recall with pleasant memories the many good days spent together.

The news of his unexpected death caused deep regret among his many friends on Prince Edward Island. He was from an outstanding family, one that gave six sons to the Catholic priesthood. Father Maurice was the last of the six to be ordained. Two other brothers, Father Gavin and Father Martin, predeceased him. However, three other brothers, Father Alf, Father Joe and Father St. Clair, all Jesuits, are surviving, along with two other brothers and three sisters.

To all these survivors, Sports Front extends sincere sympathy.

Cloudy With Snowflurries

THE way this weather has been behaving is surely not making anyone feel much like summer sports. Indeed we watched hockey games this winter and last fall on much nicer nights than we have been treated to lately. If things do not change in a hurry, they'll start flooding the rinks again.

However, baseball talk is beginning to be heard in spite of the snowflurries. It seems almost a certainty that a city league will again operate in Charlottetown. Last year a four-team loop provided a lot of fine entertainment. The only criticism we had of it was that playoffs were delayed until the chilly nights of October. We don't think this will be the case this season.

George Francis headed the City Baseball League and he had with him a group of interested citizens who were really in earnest about making baseball a going concern. A great many young players showed to fine advantage in the City League and we have the idea that even more will be around this coming summer.

Remember those Midgets that Charlie Ryan banded together? These lads were stars on various City League teams through the 1963 campaign and they then banded together to go all the way and win for themselves and the province a Maritime championship.

There can't be too much the matter with our ball system when our youngsters can perform such feats. There is a terrific crop of promising players around these parts. Undoubtedly the same can be said for other centres on the Island but we know these capital city boys better because we see them in action.

Hockey Awards

IT shouldn't be long now before the various NHL awards are announced and of course with their announcement will come a great deal of second guessing.

There will be plenty of beefing about some of the placements but on the other hand, some should not cause one bit of argument. Gordie Howe as the most valuable player, Dave Keon for the Lady Byng award and Kent Douglas as the season's top rookie should be almost unanimous. These three fellows appear well out in front and a shoo-in for their bonuses.

Of course, the all-star teams will get the fans buzzing. No matter who is selected, there'll be plenty of argument on the subject. The first and second team selections should be out any day now. After that comes the individual winners.

We'll just have to wait and see before expressing any comment.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Senators Outfielder Minnie Minoso goes into his slide as he steals home in sixth inning to yesterdays game with the Los Angeles Angels in Washington. Angels Catcher Ed Sadowski (6) moves to make the tag as Umpire Lou Di Muro watches the action. Senators Catcher Bob Schmidi, who was at bat, steps away from the plate. The Senators and Angels played a see-sam game with the Angels winning in the tenth, 5 to 4, on a sole homer by Sheriston Jim Froqosi.

Cubs Trounce Bucs 7-2; Giants, Cards Deadlocked

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago Cubs scored more runs in one inning than they had scored in a full game previously this season, whipped Pittsburgh Pirates 7 - 2, and knocked them out of first place in the National League Tuesday.

San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals moved into a tie for the league lead, Giants edging Cincinnati Reds 4-2 and Cardinals clobbering Houston Colts 15-0.

In the American League, Los Angeles Angels slipped past Washington Senators 5-4 in 10 innings, and Kansas City Athletics dropped Detroit Tigers 3-1.

The Boston Red Sox at New York Yankee game was postponed because of cold weather.

In an American League night game, Baltimore edged Minnesota 1-0 behind Milt Pappas' five-hitter and retained first place.

In the National, Milwaukee played a night game at Los Angeles.

SCORE SIX

Cubs, who had not been able to score more than five runs in a game this young season, broke loose for six in the fourth inning at Pittsburgh, including a three-run homer by Jim Schaffer and an inside-the-park homer by Lou Brock. Only 968, smallest Forbes Field crowd in 20 years, sat through 42-degree weather to see Larry Jackson scatter eight hits for the Cubs for his second victory.

Willie Mays, with two hits, and Orlando Cepeda, with three carried the offensive load for Giants, while Juan Marichal set down Reds on six hits. Marichal had a shutout until Jesse Gonder's pinch homer in the eighth.

Ernie Broglio threw his second two-hit shutout of the season for Cards, while his mates pounded Houston pitching for 17 hits. Ken Byer, with four RBIs, and Bill White, with three, led the Cardinal attack.

Los Angeles shortstop Jim Fregosi ruined the debut of Jim Coates as a Washington pitcher, as he struck a homer off the ex-Yankee right hander in the 10th inning for an uphill Angel victory. Chuck Hinton hit his second homer in two days for Washington, and added a double and a triple.

Ed Rakow struck out six of the first 10 Tigers he faced and went on to pick up his second victory with a masterful five-hitter. Norm Cash homered for the only Tiger run. Ed Charles singled home the winning run for the A's for the second straight day.

The Orioles got their only run off Twins' starter Dick Stigman in the second inning on singles by Brooks Robinson and Joe Gaines and Jerry Adair's sacrifice fly. Stigman was the sixth consecutive left-hander to lose to Baltimore.

Bulldogs Blank Winnipeg 2-0

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Windsor Bulldogs moved to within one victory of the Canadian senior hockey championship Tuesday night when they turned back a formidable Winnipeg Maroons challenge 2-0 in the third game of the Allan Cup finals.

Bulldogs, champions of the Ontario Hockey Association and the East could wrap up the first Dominion hockey crown for Windsor in its history tonight in the fourth game of the best-of-seven series.

Jerry Serviss in the second period and captain Lou Bendo in the final session scored the Windsor goals with rookie Wayne Rutledge stopping 28 shots for the well-deserved shutout.

Maroons gave it a great try throughout the hard-checking game but Windsor's persistent checking time and gain turned them back when nearing pay-dirt.

A crowd of 4,480 saw referee Dutch Van Deelen of Edmonton hand out 16 minor penalties, nine to the losers.

Both teams played it close to the vest in the scoreless opening period. Maroons had a two-man edge for 74 seconds but some fine checking by Serviss, Bud Hillman and Tom Micallef held them off.

Both goalies, Rutledge and Don Collins, the replacement for Winnipeg's Julian Klymkiw, made several sharp saves but, on the whole, were not tested too much because of the blanket checking by both sides.

Serviss finally broke the deadlock halfway through the second period, the pace of which was even slower and tighter than the opening session.

Jim Josephson did the spadework on the goal, knocking the puck away from Shorty Melanchuk in the right corner, skating behind the net and feeding Serviss in front who was unguarded. Serviss slid a six-footer under Collins' desperate sprawl.

HOLD ON PENALTIES

Each team had a number of manpower edges because of the seven penalties called but the penalty-killing specialists were having a field day holding their opponents' power-play at bay.

Bendo scored the clincher near the five-minute mark of the last period. He was standing at the crease when Jack Costello flipped a pass in front and Bendo pounded it past Collins.

Rally Drivers Troubled With Mud In Sask.

By BRUCE LEVETT

WINNIPEG (CP) — Mud in eastern Saskatchewan was the report Tuesday as the cars of the 4,000 - mile Cross - Canada Rally rolled into Winnipeg, about half way to their destination in Montreal.

Preliminary results showed no major changes in the standings, with the Chevy II of Clay Gibbs and Dick Doyen of Milwaukee still in the lead.

Some drivers had trouble with the mud in Riding Mountain National Park. Others said the mud was not severe enough to give the experienced wheelmen an edge.

The 47 cars that started out from Vancouver Saturday were cut to 44 during the Vancouver-Calgary leg of the run.

It was not immediately known Tuesday whether there had been any further disqualifications.

ALL DAYLIGHT

Car 111, the Peugeot 404 of Frank Curran and Ron Carney of Toronto—lying third—pulled in without having incurred any penalties during the run here from Regina. It was the third leg of the rally, the first which began and ended in daylight.

"Carney is a fantastic navigator," said Curran, "He won't even use the mechanical aids to rallying, just a pencil and paper."

Curren reported he was having difficulties with his rear shock absorbers.

The battered Bentley of Don and Colin McQuirk of Thornhill, Ont. — its transmission swathed in bandages—limped into the control here with a disintegrated right rear wheel bearing. Its future was uncertain.

Mike Kerry of Montreal, codriving a Volvo with Belgian ace Olivier Gendebien, was one of the drivers to complain about the mud.

"It wasn't bad enough," he said. "We had hoped to pick up some time over the others."

KNITS SOCKS

Jean Steagall of Merchantville, N.J., co-driver of a Studebaker Lark with Juliette Legare of Montreal, is knitting a pair of socks for team manager Paul Durish of Hamilton.

She showed reporters one sock three - quarters finished and said each stitch represented about two-tenths of a mile.

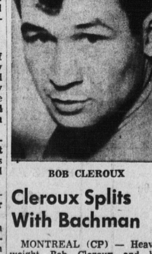
"Juliette is one real fast driver," she said.

Bill Silvera, co-pilot in a Falcon Sprint, said the rally was "better than last year—more accurate."

"But it was a bit ropy through the pastures."

USED BY ROMANS

The thermal springs of Baile Herculane in Romania were discovered by the Romans who built a statue of Hercules there 2,000 years ago.



BOB CLEROUX

Cleroux Splits With Bachman

MONTREAL (CP) — Heavyweight Bob Cleroux and his manager Al Bachman of New York split up Tuesday in a squabble over money, their contract, and promotional commitments.

Their four-year contract actually runs to May 18 but said Bachman:

"So far as I'm concerned its over now."

Cleroux scored a sixth-round knockout Monday night over Tony Hughes of Cleveland in a ragged bout that drew a gross gate of $10,700. Bachman said that since he took over Cleroux, the French-speaking Montrealer has grossed more than $45,000 in purses while his own end came to less than $5,000.

Their contract gave Cleroux 50 per cent of each purse with the remainder split between Bachman and Cleroux' father Martin.

Bachman and Martin paid for training camp costs and other expenses.

Wrestler Held Following Brawl Involving Karras

DETROIT (AP) — Wrestler Richard (Dick the Bruiser) Afflis was held for investigation of aggravated assault following a barroom brawl Tuesday involving Alex Karras, suspended Detroit Lions pro football star.

Police said the incident involved the Bruiser, Karras, James Butsicaris and five bar patrons. Butsicaris is Karras's associate in the tavern business.

Karras has a wrestling exhibition scheduled with the Bruiser Saturday night. He was suspended indefinitely by the National Football League last week for betting on the league's games.

Afflis, 34, was taken to a hospital where five stitches were used to close a cut under his left eye. He also was treated for facial bruises.

Police said Afflis entered the bar, which is frequented by sports figures, about 1 a.m. and spoke abusively to Butsicaris and Karras. When Butsicaris refused to serve Afflis and warned him to temper his remarks, the Bruiser grabbed Butsicaris by the shirt front and swung at him.

Patrons jumped into the melee and Butsicaris broke loose and called police.

Afflis, a guard for Green Bay Packers during the 1951-54 seasons, indicated he was miffed at Karras, who was reported to have called him a third-rate football player. Karras denied he had ever disparaged the Bruiser's football prowess.

Gary McMahon Picks Up Silver Medal For Canada

SAO PAULO, Brazil (CP-AP) —Canada picked up its first medal of the fourth Pan-American Games Tuesday, but the United States continued to dominate the international competition.

Garfield W. (Gary) McMahon, a sharp-shooting scientist from Dartmouth, N.S., was Canada's first medal winner, getting the silver for finishing second, a point behind Franklin C. Green of the U.S. in the free pistol shooting.

Green's victory gave the U.S. six gold medals in four days of competition—none of the other 20 countries competing has more than one so far—and U.S. contestants established themselves as ranking favorites in several other areas.

The two U.S. entrants in both men's and women's three-metre springboard diving took the lead Tuesday after the five compulsory dives with Canadians in third place in both competitions.

EXPECTED TO HOLD

Tom Dinsley, 22, of Vancouver, and Judy Stewart, 19, of Toronto, were expected to hold their positions Wednesday when the event winds up with five optional dives.

Neither is expected to overtake the leaders, although Dinsley, a senior at the University of Indiana, was within striking range of Ken Sitzberger for the silver medal.

Richard Gilbert, 19, an Indiana teammate of Dinsley, was in front with 61.23 points, followed by Sitzberger with 58.63 and Dinsley with 56.99.

Miss Stewart, a petit 98-pound commercial student making her first appearance in a major international meet, trailed Patsy Willard and Barbara McAllister 60.98 and Miss Stewart 55.74.

On the pistol range Tuesday, McMahon hit for 546 points, just one less than Green. Alvin R. Merx of the U.S. was third with 541.

WON 1959 BRONZE

McMahon, born in Roland, Man., and a graduate from the universities of Manitoba and British Columbia with a masters degree in physics, had taken the bronze medal in this competition in the 1959 Pan-American Games in Chicago.

In other activity Tuesday, Mrs. Pacita Wiedel, a 108-pound native of Spain now living in Toronto, qualified for the second round in the women's individual foil fencing event. U.S. competitors topped the three groups in qualifying-round play.

The U.S. shooting team won the gold medal in the carbine prone position shooting with three won in judo, one in weightlifting and the pistol-shooting gold taken by Green gave them a total of six.

Meanwhile, Uruguay picked up its first gold medal with a victory in the 4,000-metre pursuit cycle race. Uruguay defeated Argentina in the final and Mexico finished third, defeating the U.S. in the playoff to decide the bronze medal winner.

Cubans Out To Win Friends At Games

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Cuba apparently is out to win friends — Americans included—as well as gold medals in the Pan-American Games.

Fidel Castro's athletes seem to have come geared for a fraternal convention rather than a major sports competition.

Revolutionary dogma has been muted and obscured by the friendly 'abrazo," or hug and gifts of cigars and other non-political mementoes of Cuba.

In the Olympic Villa, Cuba's tiny, wrinkled boxing coach, Wee Wee Barton, 53, went about in his red and blue sweatsuit smiling and glad-handing Americans and Canadians.

DON'T LACK EQUIPMENT

"Everything is fine in Cuba," Barton told a reporter. "We don't lack any equipment because we manufacture most of our own although we do have to import some of the more sophisticated material."

Cubans are making baseball bats out of a native hardwood called "majagua."

Barton said Kid Gavilan, the former welterweight champ, was still in Havana but had become "a religious missionary."

Sweatsuited Cubans mingled about freely with athletes from other countries in the sunny courtyards of the Olympic Villa. A few civilians sometimes accompanied the Cubans. There has been much talk about the size of the Cuban security force accompanying the team to prevent defections.

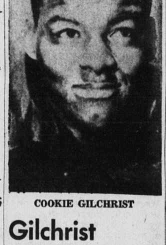
Ingo Says 'Lost Spark'

STOCKHOLM (AP) — "I've lost my spark and I am aware that the time to leave the ring is coming up," Ingemar Johansson said in an interview with Aftonbladet Tuesday.

Johansson, former world heavyweight champion and present European title-holder, won a narrow victory Sunday over Britain's Brian London in a 12-rounder here.

Ingo was knocked down four seconds before the gong finished the match in the last round and was "unable to defend himself when the bell saved him," according to Irish referee Andrew Smythe.

"I'm not sorry, but I am ashamed," said Ingo. "It was a really lousy fight. Yes, I have become conscious of a certain change in me lately. I'm not nervous any more. That is a warning. The reason may be that I am a little too well-to-do. You have to be hungry to keep the spark," Ingo was quoted as saying by Aftonbladet.



COOKIE GILCHRIST

Gilchrist Inks Pact

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Chester (Cookie) Gilchrist, the American Football League's most valuable player last season, has signed his 1963 contract with Buffalo Bills, the club said Tuesday.

Gilchrist's salary was not announced. The Bills paid him $28,000 last year and said he was given an increase over this figure.

The 243-pound fullback set a league rushing record of 1,066 yards, averaging 5.1 yards in 214 carries.

Gilchrist, 27, has had nine seasons as a pro, most of them in Canada.

Harry Harper Dies Tuesday

LAYTON, N.J. (AP) — Harry C. Harper, who pitched in the major leagues for 10 years and later became New Jersey state labor commissioner, died in hospital Tuesday. He would have been 68 today.

Harper underwent surgery last week.

When he was 18 he signed with Washington Senators and stayed with them from 1913-19. His best year was 1916 when he won 15 and lost 11. He went to Boston Red Sox in 1920 and New York Yankees in 1921, took a year from baseball in 1922 and finished his career with Brooklyn Dodgers in 1923.

His lifetime record was 59 victories and 77 losses.

Only Preparation H Contains New Healing Substance... Shrinks Hemorrhoids...Stops Itch

If your doctor thinks that surgery is not necessary, Preparation H may be the answer to your hemorrhoidal problems.

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain and itching. Thousands have been relieved with this inexpensive substance right in the privacy of their own home without any discomfort or inconvenience.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was promptly relieved. And while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of even 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a famous scientific institute. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask your druggist for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Satisfaction after one package or money refunded.
