

The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The Montreal Star says that the Presbyterian Church has a membership in full communion of 110,000, and its membership and adherents represents about one-tenth of the population of the Dominion. There are 870 pastoral charges and 650 ministers. These figures do not indicate, as might at first sight be supposed, a scarcity of clergymen, because in many cases two or three of the smaller congregations are ministered to by one man. The General Assembly is a representative body, each Presbytery being entitled to send one-fourth of its clerical members, and an equal number of elders. This gives a membership of over 320. The attendance this year is remarkably good, being in fact the largest Assembly since the Union, which took place five years ago.

The Toronto Mail remarks: "A letter from Hon. Alexander Mackenzie acknowledging the receipt of two foot-stools awarded him by popular vote in a contest with Sir John Macdonald at the bazaar of St. James' Kirk, Charlottetown, is published in the local journals. The gift is a very suggestive one. There is a cruel sarcasm in the presentation of two stools to a man who has recently come to the ground so heavily as Mr. Mackenzie, but he evidently does not realize the subtle jest."

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle, 10 cents.
