Dodgers Head Home

LOS ANGELES Dodgers headed home after their successful invasion of Busch Stadium in St. Louis and prepared for what they hoped would be a successful stand in their drive for the National League pennant.

When we wrote this column, the Cardinals-Dodgers third game result was not known, but win or lose the Dodgers had captured this all-important victory. Johnny Podres, Ron Perranoski and Sandy Koufax had halved the Red Birds' great rush and made their potent offense mighty slim. As the Los Angeles' pitching was expected to be as good as sure, Walt Alston himself didn't expect it to be as great as was shown in their first two games.

It was Podres, the old veteran himself, who started Dodgers on their victory trail. When the going gets tough, Alston is always sure that Podres will rise to his greatest heights. It was tough when Dodgers saw their ace-healthily laid aside to a mere game but Podres, with Perranoski, felt alerted that situation.

This was the same Johnny Podres who beat the Yankees twice when Brooklyn Dodgers won the world series back in 1955. Remember that great pitcher in the seventh game? That was the one Johnny won 2-0 and the 10 in which Sandy Amoros made his spectacular catch.

It's eight years later and Podres still is doing business at the same stand. If the Dodgers make it into the world series, Johnny will have another chance (perhaps two) to tame the Bombardier by his performance against the Cardinals.

Yanks Bomb Them Out of Year

BUT the National League race isn't over yet. Los Angeles have nine and a half games left in St. Louis and the Cardinals have only seven. Four of that seven for the Red Birds are being played at home.

The Dodgers have been heavily favored for the Los Angeles game but they did last year when Giants forced a playoff and beat the Dodgers in overtime.

The difference, however, is quite noticeable in the Dodgers this year. Dodgers weren't choking up as so many folks were shouting it was a case of the Cards doing next to the impossible that has made this a pennant race at all.

When the St. Louis game captured 19 decisions in 30 games, the Athletics weren't exactly playing dead. They had won 13 out of 20 games for a most respectable percentage of 65%. That's better than the Dodgers played in the season.

And so this talk of folding, bowing legs or choking up was nonsense. St. Louis Cardinals gained a lot of ground in the race simply because they played better than the Dodgers. They won 19 out of 20 baseball games, then they can't help but make up ground.

This Man Alston

THE talk was around again as Dodgers went into St. Louis to head the Cardinals out of the pennant. We haven't heard a word about fellows like Al Dink of the Giants or Bobby Bragan of Milwaukee getting the gate, yet their clubs are long since out of contention.

Alston is always the fellow they get on. The quiet-cool manager is blamed for just about everything, even the failure of hitters to come through in the clutch. He doesn't have much choice for that. He lacks color but he hasn't failed to lead at least taking over the Dodgers. Of course Casey Stengel of the Mets could brag of greater achievements than Alston but Stengel's successes came with the Yankees, in other words, in a national manager's eyes, he is Alston's mark of achievement.

And still they're been howling for his scalp. Let them holler. As long as Walter O'Malley's Buzzy Bavant is in the dugout, Alston is mighty safe.

And he always has the feeling they are quite content.

Pay Him A Visit

THAN MANN, the great little goaltender who performed with Summerside and Cape Traverse teams, is still in hospital in Charlottetown following a fall from a horse.

Thane suffered a rather severe back injury and undoubtedly he finds the time long in his hospital room. We know he would be delighted to see some of you good sports fans.

Drop around and have a visit.

Special Features Are in Race Card

A song to celebrate the victory of our Junior Legionaires. They singing it to the tune of "Roll Out the Barrel".

Victory's been this coo's dream;
In my happy clean, sun,
Donnie's schrumman,
The whip and she's in his blood
And she's slaves are Johnnies.

Gagetown Was Super-Tough

THE RCAF Eagles didn't quite come up to our expectations, but we have a feeling they had a super-tough time in those Camp Gagetown boys. To us, at least, this year's New Brunswick champs looked a lot cleaner than the ones that played MacKenzie's in the senior "C" final last year.

It cracks a big whip and also a fair bit of a horse. When you get those two accomplishments in one uniform, the batters are facing them and you get some many of the boys as B.I.I. 100,000 infield" to the cleaners in Hickox, who say Canada's World Series will romp through to the Maritime title, and if Nova Scotia beats them, we'll admit we've been overrating the caliber of softball play at Gagetown.

Did we see somewhere that "Echols" we got a phone call against the New Brunswick Intermediate-Div. 500 soft-ball team in those Camp Gagetown boys. To us, at least, this year's New Brunswick champs looked a lot cleaner than the ones that played MacKenzie's in the senior "C" final last year.

Three Horses Lower Marks At Summerside Race Track

Three horses raced to new records at Summerside Race Track last night. Blue Mt. Girl went in 2:15. Mr. Gallon lowered his record from 2:16 1/2 to 2:15 1/4. Paddy Land Girl went in 2:12 3/4 to 2:13 1/4. Racer 3 and 7 were particularly thrilling with blanket finishes as Paddy Land Girl, owned by Elmer Bernard, Kensington, and driven by Emmett Bernard, nosed out the other horses in each race.

Little Burn Time, a five-year-old, was the door prize, donated by Alex MacDonald, Summerside automobile dealer, and by sheer coincidence the winning ticket was held by Ronnie MacAlear, the donor's brother.

The first quinella featuring Jody Lass B. Compton (3) and Roger W. Bates (4) won $100.00. The second quinella featuring Jody Lass B. Compton (3) and Roger W. Bates (4) won $100.00.

City League Chimp Goes To Rovers 3-0

THE Rovers now reign as the City Baseball League champions for the 1963-64 season after their victory last night over the Stars by a score of 4-0. The Rovers took the best of five series three games to two.

Billy Weatherbee sparked for the winners on the mound giving up only one hit and walking one. He struck out four batters and hit a single to help out his own team. The game was called after the sixth inning because of darkness.

Locals Play At Chatham

CHARLIE RYAN'S Canadian Legion A juveniles will play Grand Falls juveniles in a Sunday-day fixture for the New Brunswick Intermediate-Div. 500 soft-ball championship this afternoon at Chatham, N.B.

It was decided to go with the outdoor team as the teams were unable to agree on dates for home engagements.

RYAN hopes that a strong contingent of Islanders will make the trip to Chatham when the locals on a triumph.

The game is set for 1.30.

Possible Fight For Tiger, Giardello At Atlanta In Nov.

NEW YORK (AP)—New Jersey boxing promoter said Wednesday he hopes to stage a fight between middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria and Joey Giardello of Philadelphia in Atlantic City, N.J., in November.

Joe Kapp May Not Be Out After All

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia Lions are not counting quarterback Joe Kapp out of their weekend football excursion after all.

Kapp dislocated a finger in Monday's 20-9 victory over Montreal Alouettes and the club said Tuesday that he would miss the rest of the season. Football League games Saturday night at Hamilton and Monday night at Ottawa.

Kapp said he snipped the little finger on his right hand into place after it was dislocated and thought no more about it until Tuesday morning, when it was swollen and discolored.

U.S. RESTRICTS TROOPS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. armed services are barring parades unless they are in any public event where racial discrimination is practiced. It was learned Tuesday that the air force had taken that action. Subsequently, a defence department spokesman said the other services are making similar moves in response to a Pentagon directive.

Last Home Game

AT New York, it was the Mets final home game of the season. Next year they move into the new Bill Shea Stadium in Flushing Meadows.

The Phils got to Craig Anderson for three runs in the fourth, as scoring by Bobby Wine and triple. The other two were at the expense of Roger Craig in the fifth.

The Mets run was a fourth inning homer by Jim Hickman off southpaw Chris Short, who went all the way for the Phils.

New Record For Two Years Olds Set At Delaware

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—For the fourth time in less than a week, a world's harness racing record was set at the Delaware County Fairgrounds half-mile track Wednesday.

While scoring a 18-length win in the first heat of the Ohio Standardbred Futurity, Ayrone of Star's Pride, trotted a 2:00 1/5 mile, the fastest ever by a two-year-old trotter on a half-mile track. Ayrone is owned by Mrs. C.N. Sheppard and was driven by John Simpson.

The fastest previous mile by a two-year-old trotter was 2:03 1/5 recorded by Trian Haver in 1944 at Delaware.

Ayrone's quarter times were 0:29 4/5, 1:00 4/5 and 1:29 4/5.
