Ex-Queen Narriman Seeking Divorce

CAIRO, (AP)—Ex-Queen Narriman Wednesday filed suit for divorce from former King Farouk and asked 5,000 Egyptian pounds a month alimony, her lawyer announced.

The 19-year-old former queen has been living quietly at her mother's villa at suburban Heliopolis since she left the ex-king last March and returned to Egypt. Farouk and their child, the infant former King Fuad II, are in exile in Italy.

Last month Narriman's lawyer said she was suing Farouk for alimony. Under Moslem law a wife separated from her husband may sue for alimony without seeking a divorce.

Britain Buying Russian Silver

LONDON, (Reuters) — Britain has made a large purchase of silver from Russia, it was learned Wednesday.

The exact quantity cannot be disclosed until it is shown in official trade statistics but it is believed to be several times larger than the 3,000,000 ounces (about $2,800,000 worth) which the British government recently bought from Japanese government stocks.

The government needs silver to supply essential consumption in Britain and the Russian purchase saves Britain spending dollars on western hemisphere silver.

chances you don't have to," whispered that inside voice.

Again Johnny started to eat, then stopped. Somehow that clover was tasteless. Actually it was as sweet and good as it ever had been. It was the temptation of that garden that made the clover seem tasteless. Abruptly Johnny made up his mind. He sat up to look this way and that way. No enemy was in sight. He started to waddle over to Farmer Brown's garden. Peter saw him coming. A mischievous thought popped into Peter's head. "I'll get Johnny Chuck to try to crawl under that fence," thought he.

TO MARK MEETING PLACE

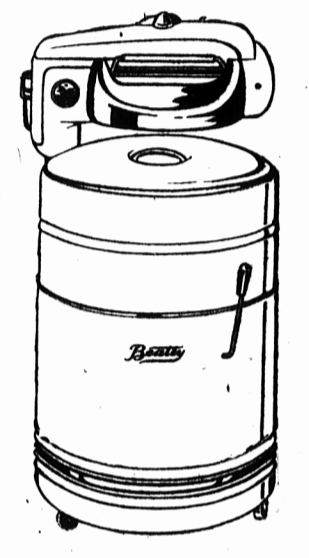

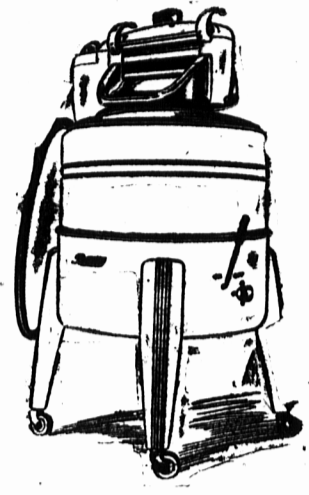

OTTAWA, (CP)—The meeting place of fur traders on the Columbia river will be marked by a stone cairn to be unveiled Sunday near the historic boat campment where boats from Fort Vancouver, New Vancouver, Wash., waited on the Columbia river for pack trains to take their furs on to Jasper House.
