

Montreal Canadiens Rest Up For Big Game Sunday

By W. R. WHEATLEY
 MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens, riding high on two smashing victories over Detroit Red Wings, took things easy at their homes Friday in the lull before the best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final is resumed Sunday in Detroit.

Coach Toe Blake said a light workout will be held this morning, the team leaving at night by train and arriving in Detroit early Sunday afternoon.

The travelling routine is the said as that followed during the National Hockey League season when the club has a Saturday night game at home. It "was felt nothing would be gained by an earlier departure and that the players would be better off by spending the intervening days in Montreal."

The Red Wings, beaten 8-1 Tuesday and 5-1 Thursday, left by hearted plane at noon. They were preceded by defenceman Red Kelly, via commercial line flight who suffered stomach pains after Thursday's game.

For a while it was feared Kelly had been stricken with appendicitis. On his arrival at a Detroit hospital his illness was diagnosed as a minor gastro-intestinal upset.

It was expected he will be ready for Sunday's game. The fourth game of the series is scheduled for Detroit Tuesday.

A few of the Montreal squad worked out Friday. Three were regulars, just off the injured list—Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, Dollard St. Laurent and Marcel Bonin. St. Laurent has seen no action yet in the series although he has been dressed for both games. Others at the workout were farm-club players called up for use if necessary.

Coach Toe Blake professed no particular worries about the shift to foreign ice.

"We're going into Detroit with confidence" said the man who is aiming for his third Stanley Cup championship in as many seasons as an NHL coach.

Hospital Men Promote Skate

The Men's Association of the P. E. I. Hospital are promoting a community skate at the Sports Arena on Tuesday evening, April 1st. This energetic group of business and professional men of Charlottetown who take a special interest in the hospital has successfully undertaken several novel projects since organizing about two years ago.

The Band of the P. E. I. Regiment (better known as the Recce Band) will furnish the music and the Association, through its President, Brigadier G. G. Peake, is urging all regular skaters and those who may consider themselves "has-beens", who possibly haven't been on skates for quite a spell, to join the crowd at the Arena Tuesday evening for what will be one of the last skates of the season.

The men feel that when the smoke of the election battle has cleared away, everyone will welcome an opportunity for a change of scenery. The price of admission is small and the proceeds are in aid of the Hospital. Incidentally, the skate takes place on the evening of April Fool's Day, but that has no significance for the event.

Ice 4: Wilbur Willis, skip, Mary MacLennan, L. Doyle, Marie Toole vs. Doug George, skip, Jean Grant, R. Carr, D. Doyle.

8:30 P. M.

Ice 1: Gordon Stewart, skip, Charlotte O'Rourke, Dick Matheson, Carolyn MacGregor vs. D. O'Rourke, skip, Marguerite Stewart, James MacGregor, Hazel Matheson.

Ice 2: Henry Peters, skip, Ada Mahar, G. Ives, Jean MacLean vs. C. Whitlock, skip, K. Johnstone, Art Wellner, M. Ives.

Ice 3 and 4: Open.

Kensington Rink Closes Tonight

The Kensington Rink will close tonight with the final game for the R. S. Humphrey Trophy between Springfield Royals and Kensington Bombers, each having won a previous game. Springfield this year won the "Stanley Bridge Trophy" for winning the Farmers' League. The Kensington Rink Trophy was won by Cavendish, winners of the regular league schedule. Beverley Simpson, Cavendish goal tender, won the Farmers' League Trophy for net minder with lowest goals. Fred Doughart, Cavendish player, won the new trophy donated this year by "Big Jim" Pendergast for the greatest number of points in regular league play. The official scorer was Gerald McCarville. Ten spoons were presented by the rink management to ten highest point makers.

Beavers Defeat Cape Breton 5-2

SYDNEY (CP)—Hustling Buckingham Beavers skated Cape Breton all-stars into the ice for two periods for a 5-2 victory and a 2-1 lead in their best-of-five eastern Canada Memorial Cup quarter-final here Friday night.

Beavers ended the first period with a 3-0 lead. The outcome was never in doubt. The teams split four goals in the second and Beavers played defensive hockey in the third to hold Cape Breton scoreless.

Diminutive Louis Beaugard, picked up from Ottawa Shamrocks, shot a pair of goals for Beavers in the first period. Tom Lesnic, who joined the team from Pembroke Lumber Kings, also got two goals and helped Michel LaFrance with the other Buckingham tally.

The Cape Breton team played poor hockey until the third. Then it was a case of too little, too late.

Penalties were costly to Cape Breton, though Beavers got eight to the All-Stars' seven. Cape Breton, however, had to play two men short three times.

Cape Breton snapped home two goals at 10:52 and 11:07 of the second period, playing a man shy when Eustace Reeves and Sonny Salyzyn clicked on nice passing plays.

The fourth game will be played here tonight.

Phil Watson Admits It Is Going To Be Tough To Win

NEW YORK (CP)—Coach Phil Watson of New York Rangers was ready to admit Friday that Boston Bruins are in the driver's seat, but he was still hoping to wrest control of the steering wheel.

"It's going to be tough," Watson said after Bruins tied the best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final 1-1 with a bruising 4-3 overtime win Thursday night.

"It'll be even tougher," he added morosely, "if we go on losing a man a game."

As a sign of how badly he felt, Phils only comment on the game was, "We should win." He didn't criticize a single Ranger player.

KEY MEN HURT

Main causes of his woes were the injuries to team sparkplug Red Sullivan and defenceman Bill Gadsby, and the fact that the rest of the series is to be played on Boston ice.

Sullivan was out of the series with a broken jaw suffered in the first game, won 3-3 by the Rangers Tuesday night.

Gadsby is a doubtful starter for Saturday night's third game with a shoulder injury. He will travel with the team to Boston today, but won't decide until just before game time whether he will play.

Rangers called John Hanna, 23, from the Quebec Hockey League as a stand-by replacement.

SCHMIDT HAPPIER

Bruin coach Milt Schmidt was happier as he herded his team to Boston after Thursday's game.

Island Playoffs Arena Tonight

This evening at Sports Arena City Minor Hockey League representatives will be at home to invading Paperweight, Pee Wee, Bantam and Sawsdick teams in opening games of home-and-home series in all brackets for Island titles.

In the Paperweight class, Major Mike Campbell's Royal City Bears will represent the City; in Pee Wee playoffs Bill MacMillan's Queen Charlott Lions will wear Ch'town colours; in Bantam class John Davis' C. C.H.S. squad will hold the fort and in the Midget Class Col. Al Rogers Midget Abbies will do the honours. All Summer-side squads are picked from Summerside A.A.A.'s Minor League teams so can be counted on to give our City boys quite a battle in every class.

Following tonight's games there will be skating for all. Admission to see all this hockey and enjoy a skating session will be very nominal. Officials who have arranged the program are looking for a big attendance tonight to encourage our future hockey greats. It will be a big evening for the youngsters—why not encourage them by being on hand?
