ELLEN'S DIARY

We Count Many Blessings As Another Week Ends

"We think now, assessing the week's blessings, that one of its comforts to the farmers, was likely make him a better farmer than it allowed them the continued use of the tractor at the various haulings, which are a necessary part of the farming they do. There was also to be counted as such, the fact that there was no snow to delay footsteps at the choring nor doors nor paths to be cleared toilsomely away.

"It's more like the fall now than the winter," we said of the conditions obtaining and voiced no complaint.

"But what will weather like this, with bare hard-frozen fields, do to the meadows?" James wondered.

What fine travelling there is; dust rises in the wake of passing wheels.

"It was like autumn today," one commented smiling at a memory. "I saw brown leaves rise and drift away on a bit of wind. It's actually amazing weather for the last of January," he nodded.

And to the children's delight, field-ponds and rinks keep.

"I hope the skating lasts into April," Mack said when he waited a moment with us this evening for the sound of the machine which was to take him and granddaughter off to rink.

A schoolboys' hockey game had taken him there this morning with as James remarked watching him go "Enough gear on-gloves and pads and what not, to buy him a nice sized calf I'm thinking, Ellen," he added, "he'll have to forget the like of this if he intends to make a success of his farming."

RESULTS!

Newspaper Advertising Scores More Sales than Other Media

The nation's local advertisers invest more in newspapers each year than in all other media combined. This is fine testimony of the ability of newspapers to pay off in results. As one leading business executive expressed it: "I feel that when you place an advertisement in a newspaper — something happens... You get action."

If you want action, if you want results — use the daily newspaper.
